MARYLAND & RARE BOOK ROOM
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND LIBRARY
COLLEGE PARK, MD.

LIBRARY - COLLEGE PARK

DO NOT CIRCULATE

JOSEPH RUZICKA
BOOKBINDERS
BALTIMORE, MD
GREENSBORO, N.C.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV June, 1933. No. 1

Many Present for Alumni Reunion

Forty-Second Meeting of Association Two Fifty-Year Classes Represented

GATHERING for the forty-second time, the Alumni Association of the College Park Schools of the University assembled Saturday morning, June 3. Some 40 classes were represented with the class of 1908 celebrating their twenty-fifth anniversary, and the class of '92, with the highest percentage of living members present the third consecutive year, holding the spotlight. The class of '03, returning in large numbers to celebrate their thirtieth anniversary established a fund for a suitable memorial to mark the location of the Old Barracks, which was destroyd by fire in 1912.

Fifty-Year Club

Among those present were two members of the honorary Fifty-Year Club, E. S. Walker, '70, of Mitchelville, Md., and R. S. Griffith, '80, of Basic City, Va., who have been Alumni for more than 50 years.

John P. Mudd, '07, of Philadelphia, Pa., was elected to the office of president of the association. He was vice-president last year and by a new procedure the vice-president now automatically becomes president. J. Enos Ray, '92, was elected vice-president. C. W. Cole, '21, was elected to the Alumni Board to succeed M. M. Clark, '22, as representative of the College of Arts and Sciences. By an amendment to the constitution two new "members at large" are to be added to the Alumni Board. Miss Elgar Jones, '31, and Dr. T. B. Symons, '02, were elected to fill these positions.

Founder's Memorial

The annual meeting began at 11 A. M. Talks were given by Senator M. E. Tydings, '10, Messrs. Griffith, '80, Byrd, '08, and Prof. Harry Gwinner. Senator Tydings stressed the need of a traditional memorial somewhere on the campus to instill more enthusiasm and interest in the University and its Life, and upon which could be inscribed the outstanding accomplishments of students and Alumni. Dr. Griffith talked about the old gateway and the memorial tablet upon which was inscribed the names of the founders, and expressed the hope that it would be placed on the new brick gateway. Mr. Byrd told something about the athletic policies and programs of the institution, but more about the good condition the University was found to be in by the legislative investigating committee during the past session, and the good attitude of the legislative body toward the University. He gave much of the credit for the good principles and administrative success of the University to members of the University Senate. G. F. Pollock, now secretary-treasurer, gave remarks on Alumni activities and emphasizd the need of more letter contacts among classmates and the desire of more group meetings. He also recommended that a day be selected as a charter or founder's day at which time group meetings in all parts of the country would be held. A radio broadcast from the University at this time might be possible.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT FOR '33-'34

JOHN P. MUDD, '07

Ray, '92, Speaks at Luncheon

Immediately following the meeting, the annual Alumni luncheon was held in the University dining hall. Dr. Raymond A. Pearson, President of the University, and J. Enos Ray, '92, gave very interesting talks.

Following the luncheon several

(Continued on Page 2)

Diplomas Awarded To 686 Graduates

Hon. Albert C. Ritchie Delivers Commencement Address—Senior Banquet Held

GRADUATION EXERCISES for 686 seniors was the closing event of the Commencement week program at College Park. His Excellency Albert C. Ritchie, Governer of Maryland gave the Commencement address. More than 6,000 people attended the exercises.

Events for the senior class began Thursday, June 1, when the senior banquet was held at the Kennedy-Warren apartments in Washington, D. C. George Weber, President of the class, was toastmaster, Dr. T. B. Symons, secretary-treasurer of the Alumni Association, spoke in the absence of Senator Tydings, president of the Alumni Association, who was detained at the Senate. Dr. F. B. Bomberger, '94, and H. C. "Curley" Byrd '08, also made a few remarks. Entertainment was provided by Miss Marie Fowler, prominent radio singer; Marty Rubin, crooner, from the Club Michel, and George O'Connor and Mat Horne, widely known entertainers of Washington.

As a recognition of his fine qualities of leadership, fellowship and sportsmanship, the senior class presented their president, George Weber with a gift of remembrance; George Street made the presentation. The banquet was closed by singing Auld Lang Syne.

(Continued on Page 2)

Tydings Given Honorary Degree

Senator M. E. Tydings, '10, former president of the Alumni Association, was presented with the honorary degree of Doctor of Law by the University at the Commencement exercises held June 3. Senator Tydings graduated from the College Park school in Engineering in 1910 and from the Law school in 1913. For many years he has been one of the leading Democrats of the State, a fact which was brought out very emphatically in the past elections. He was reelected to the United States Senate by the largest majority any political candidate has ever received in the State of Maryland. He has been a member of the United States Senate since 1927.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor
G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
174 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.
J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md
G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

T. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

Permanent Possession Of Cup Won By Class Of '92

For the third consecutive time the class of 1892, headed by F. W. Besley, Maryland State Forester, has won possession of the cup for the largest percentage of living members present on Alumni Day. The win this year gives them permament possession of the cup. A picture of those present will appear in the next issue of the News. They have had six of their seven living members present for the past three Alumni Reunions.

* * * * *

J. Enos Ray, '92, Collector Of Internal Revenue For Md.

J. Enos Ray '92 has been appointed by President Roosevelt as collector of Internal Revenue for the State of Maryland. Mr. Ray is president of the Prince Georges Bank and Trust Co., and chairman of the Maryland Democratic State Central Committee. He has also been elected vice-president of the Alumni Association and next year he will succeed to the presidency, a position which he previously held from 1902 to 1904. He is a native of Maryland and resides at Chillum.

* * * * *

Mitchell, '98, Sees Son Graduate

J. Hanson Mitchell, '98, a graduate in Engineering attended the Commencement exercises to see his son, J. Hanson Jr., '26, receive his degree in law. Mr. Mitchell has another son, F. Lewis, who is at present a Junior in the College of Engineering.

* * * * *

Military Awards

Governor's cup, won by Company D., commanded by Arthur B. House.

Military Faculty award, to George O. Weber.

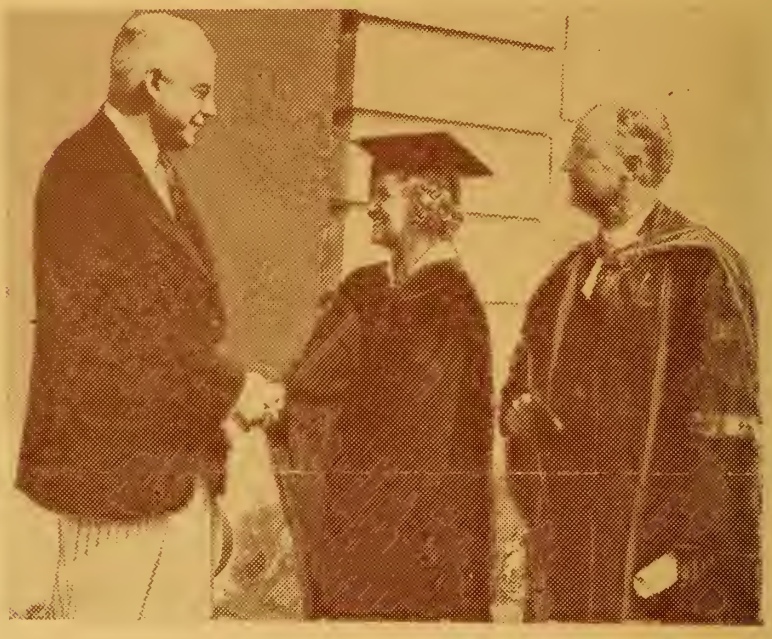
Military Dept. medals, to Ralph Williams and J. P. Heidrich.

University of Maryland prize saber, for best company commander, Arthur B. House.

Military medal for best individual soldier, won by Robert W. Slye, Jr.

Alumni cup, best platoon, Sergt. H. C. Turner.

Governor Congratulates Honor Student



GOVERNOR RITCHIE MISS BIXLER PRES. PEARSON

Organizer of Lacrosse Here On Alumni Day

One who had a lot to do with the origin of lacrosse at Maryland was on the campus for the Twentieth Reunion of his class, E. E. Powell, '13, Mr. Powell helped his class President, C. M. White, '13 to round up many of their class mates for the reunion. The list of those present can be found in the general write-up of the day.

* * * * *

DIPLOMAS AWARDED TO 686 GRADUATES

(Continued from Page 1)

Class day exercises were held Friday, June 2, at which time the Terrapin Memorial was presented to the University, by the class of 1933. Also the honorary awards for student accomplishments were made. The Citizenship medal for men was awarded to Ralph I. Williams, of Washington, D. C. The Citizenship medal for women was awarded to Miss Eva Catherine Bixler of Capitol Heights, Md.

The Athletic medal was awarded to Albert W. Woods. The Maryland ring went to Gordon S. Pugh, and Women Senior Honor Society cup to R. Selena Reynolds.

The Commencement Ball, held that evening in the University gymnasium from 9 to 1, was the finale of the student activities.

* * * * *

MANY PRESENT FOR ALUMNI REUNION

(Continued from Page 1)

classes held get-togethers until 3:30, when graduation exercises began in the Ritchie Coliseum.

In celebration of their 25th anniversary, the class of '08 had a banquet in the private dining-room of the University dining hall that evening and invited as their guests those members of the faculty who were here at the time of their graduation. A more detailed account of their reunion will be found in the next issue.

The following is a list of the Alumni and Alumnae who returned for Alumni Day:

1870—Edward S. Walker; 1880—R. S. Griffith; 1892—F. W. Besly, George H. Calvert, Jr., Frank Chew, Hon. Stephen W. Gambrill, Edward D. Johnson, J. Enos Ray; 1893—Henry Holzapfel; 1894—Arthur S. Brown; 1895—R. L. Harrison, W. W. Skinner; 1896—Clifton E. Fuller, Parker Mitchell; 1897—Harry Gwinner, Harry Heward; 1898—J. Hanson Mitchell; 1899—J. W. Chambers, J. J. Betton.

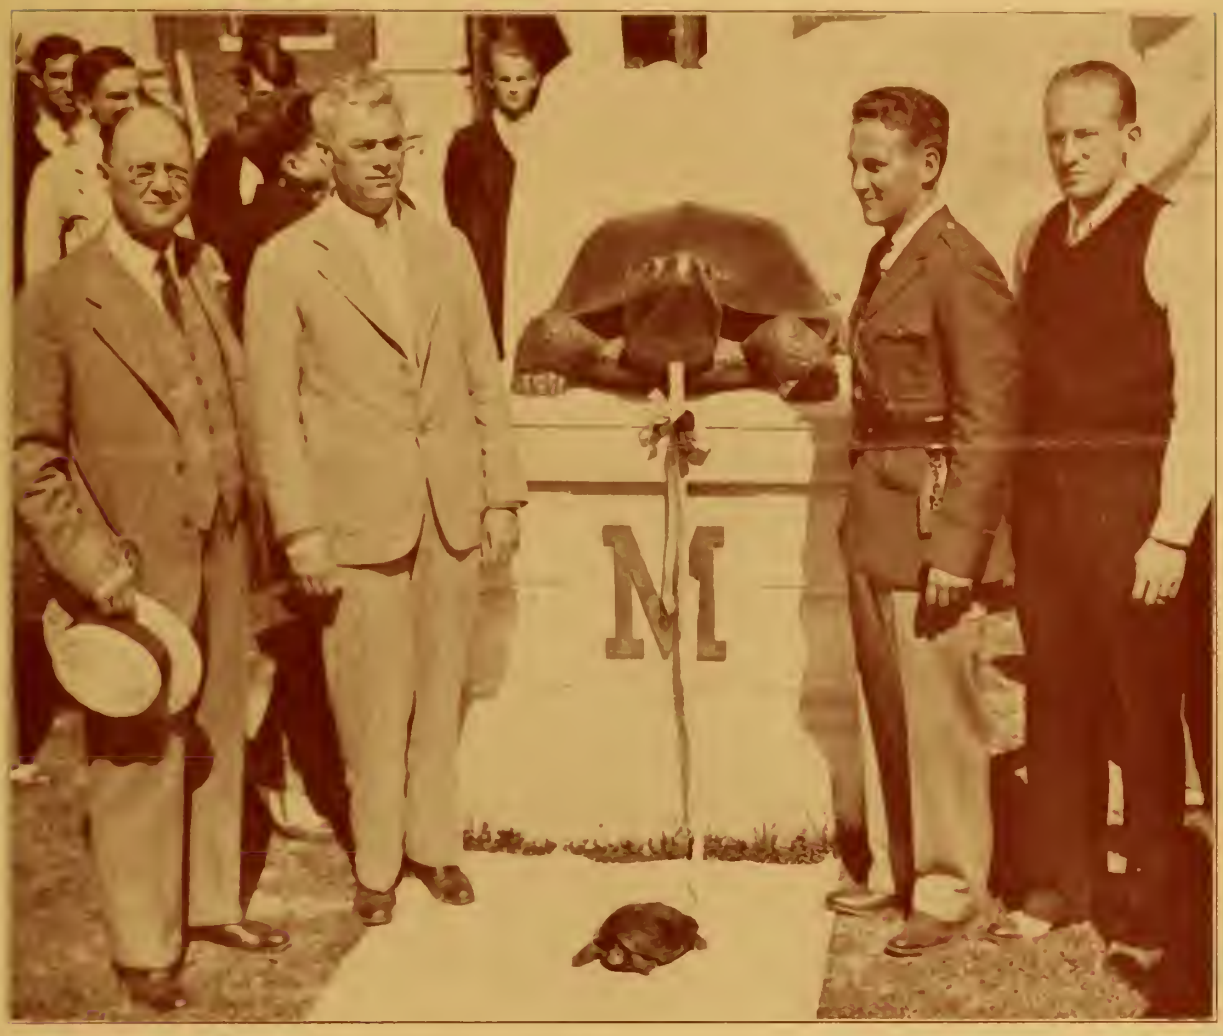
1900—W. D. Groff; 1902—T. B. Symons; 1903—J. Marsh Mathews, E. D. Dunbar, John P. Collier, G. W. Cairnes; 1904—Wiliam C. Rolph, A. W. Valentine, S. B. Shaw; 1906—J. J. T. Graham, A. M. McNutt, J. L. Showell; 1907—C. H. Harper, N. Bosley Merryman, John P. Mudd; 1908—G. G. Becker, Norman E. Brice, Rueben Brigham, H. C. Byrd, B. R. Cooper, G. C. Day, J. William Firor, Harry Hoshall, L. B. Broughton, U. W. Long, E. I. Oswald, W. C. Reeder, R. H. Ruffner, H. W. Stinson, W. A. S. Somerville, Charles W. Sylvester, T. B. Mackall; 1909—E. N. Cory, Martin Koenig.

1910—William J. Frere, S. L. Gray, S. S. Stabler, T. Ray Stanton, M. E. Tydings, W. P. Cole; 1911—L. McD. Silvester; 1912—S. C. Dennis, W. M. Hilegeist, Thomas H. Hopper, W. B. Kemp, V. F. Roby; 1913—Henry P. Ames, Gladden Davis, E. E. Powell, W. K. Robinson, A. M. Todd, Harry W. Townshend, Earnest Trimble, C. M. White; 1914—R. V. Truitt, E. P. Williams; 1917—H. B. Derrick, H. B. Durant, D. J. Howard; 1918—P. E. Clark, Frank E. Day, Geary Eppley, H. R. Walls; 1919—R. Lee Sellman.

1920—Arthur D. Etienne, Elizabeth H. Day, T. F. Bissel, P. W. Chichester; 1921—Austin C. Diggs, Thomas Frere; 1923—William B. Belt, Kirk Besley, J. H. Harlow, W. E. Kubitz, Ruth Reppert Marsh, Alma H. Preinkert, Charles E. White; 1924—George Darcy, Sarah E. Morris, R. B. Reed, R. G. Rothgeb; 1925—J. C. Burger, Elizabeth Flenner Eppley, Mary Harbough Campbell, Addison E. Hook, J. S. Hough, Edward Pugh; 1927—William P. Beatty, Dr. P. F. Brookens, Norwood Eaton; 1928—R. H. Brnboker, J. S. Davison, Evelyn Shank, Sam Winterberg; 1929—Mrs. Jean Lilicafeld, Theresa B. Night.

1931—Winifred Gahan, Nellie Kooken, Marguerite Lea, Miriam Lloyd, Fletcher P. Veitch, Jr.; 1932—Mable Mudd.

WHEN THE TERRAPIN WAS UNVEILED



From left to right—President Raymond A. Pearson, Vice-President H. C. "Curley" Byrd, Ralph Williams and Edward Quinn, President and President-Elect of the Student Government Association.

Model Unveils Memorial

Probably the most outstanding event of the Commencement Week program was the unveiling of the Terrapin Memorial, located in front of the Ritchie Coliseum, on class day. The model for the Terrapin Memorial performed the gracious act of unveiling his enlarged likeness in bronze. The Terrapin is a gift of the Senior class.

Ralph I. Williams, president of the Student Government Association, was sponsor of the idea and was very active in making the memorial possible. In his dedicatory remarks he expressed his appreciation to those who had generously given him assistance.

Edmund C. Mayo, '04, president of the Gorham Manufacturing Co., Providence, R. I. played a very important part in having the Terrapin made. H. C. "Curley" Byrd, vice-president of the University, was also very active in making the memorial possible. His first act was to get the real specimen from his home town, Crisfield, Md., on the Chesapeake, the "Home of the Diamondback." The base of the memorial was given by the Student Government Association. Upon the memorial will be inscribed the results of the annual Sophomore - Freshman struggle.

Class of '03, Held Thirtieth Reunion

Celebrating their thirtieth anniversary of graduation, the Class of '03, headed by E. P. Walls, returned for the Alumni reunion in a large percentage. Six out of eight surviving members were present. They plan to have all present next year.

Those present were: J. Marsh Matthews, now an established lawyer of Baltimore; John P. Collier, branch manager for the American Radiator Co. of Cincinnatti, Ohio; George W. Cairnes, Commander United States Coast Guard; Emmon B. Dunbar, Milling business at Little Valley, N. Y.; Preston L. Peach, preacher and teacher; Edgar P. Walls, extension worker for the University.

The class held a meeting and have established a fund for the planting of a large oak tree on the site where The Barracks once stood, as a memorial of their class to the origin of the school and the location of the first building of the College Park Branch of the University. This building was destroyed by fire in 1912.

The class is planning a larger reunion next year.

Thirty Years Between Father And Son's Class

Thirty years following his own graduation, Emmon B. Dunbar, '03 has a son, William H., '33, a graduate of his Alma Mater this year. At the time of Emmon Dunbar's graduation, the College Park branch of the Institution was known as the Maryland Agricultural College. Young Dunbar is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

* * * * *

¶ Its the news that isn't fit to print that makes a lively evening.

TAKING A GLIMPSE AT ATHLETICS AT MARYLAND

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

MARYLAND had a gratifying year in athletics, one that was a tribute to the players and coaches. Getting its material "more naturally" than most of the schools and not laying the stress on winning that prevails at entirely too many institutions, the Old Line Athletes and their mentors got a lot of "kick" out of the 1932-33 competition.

Seven pastimes are supported at Maryland, schedules being maintained in football, basket-ball, boxing, track, lacrosse, baseball and tennis. Freshman teams also were maintained in all of these sports with the exception of boxing.

Maryland took part in a total of 99 regularly scheduled events, in addition to some special track competition, in varsity and freshman sports and won 60 times, lost on 35 occasions and figured in four ties. Sixty-seven of these were varsity engagements in which 36 victories were scored, 27 reverses suffered and in which the four ties resulted.

Here are the records of the teams:

	Varsity			Freshman
	W.	L.	Tied	W.	L.	Tied
Football	5	6	0	2	2	0
Basket-ball	11	8	0	10	3	0
Boxing	4	0	4	No Schedule
Baseball	6	4	0	4	1	0
Lacrosse	5	1	0	4	0	0
Track	2	4	0	3	1	0
Tennis	3	4	0	1	1	0
Total	36	27	4	24	8	0

MARYLAND'S showing in football, basket-ball and boxing have been reviewed in previous issues of the Alumni News, so we will give our attention this time to taking a glimpse at the spring pastime.

Burton Shipley had a highly capable nine that doubtless was prevented from making a much better record than its satisfying accomplishment on account of a rainy season that kept the team from getting in shape early and caused six games to be called off. However, after losing three of the first four tilts, the nine won four of its last five to place itself on the right side of the ledger. One of its late victories was over Navy.

BEATEN only by a great Hopkins' ten and scoring over Navy and Rutgers among others, Jack Faber's lacrosse charges rated as the second best in the country. It was a great accomplishment considering the material at hand and it was lack of capable reserve strength that kept the Old Liners from having an even chance to beat Hopkins. Until a couple of Maryland's regulars had to be taken from the game to rest up on account of the heat, the Old Liners played the Blue Jays to a standstill. Hopkins' edge came from its wealth of reserves who matched the regulars in ability.

In addition to its collegiate battles, the stick team won over Hopkins Varsity Club, made up of former Blue Jay stars, and Mount Washington, the best club team in the country, in practice games.

Faber has been named as one of the coaches for the picked American squad that will play the Canadians in four games at the Century of Progress Fair in Chicago, with Norwood Sothoron, defense player, and Gordon Pugh, center, among the players selected to participate. Pugh, Sothoron, Car, Pfau, goal, and Parker, Faber and Bill Wood, attack, were on various all-state first teams and a number of others were placed on second tens.

GEARY EPPLEY, agronomizing track mentor, had a nice team with the exception of weight tossers, pole vaulter and hurdlers. It was his fine array of runners, including Earl Widmyer, his ace, that kept his rivals worried and gave spice to the campaign. However, he had enough power to beat Hopkins, a bright spot in an interesting campaign.

Widmyer was unbeaten in the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the six dual meets and picked up added honors in big meets. He won the Southern Conference indoor crown, was third in a blanket finish in the outdoor title race and ran second in the invitation century in the Penn Relay carnival.

Eppley retains practically his entire squad for next season, among them an array of quarter-milers who should give Maryland a relay team like some of its honor gathering quartets of the past.

TENNIS took a leap upward during the past season when Les Bopst, associate State Chemist, took charge of the netmen in an effort to bring the sport out of the ruck. He did his job well, although only three of seven matches were won. However, four were prevented by rain which the Old Liners undoubtedly would have won. As it happened all of the matches with the strongest rivals on the schedule were played.

AS TO FRESHMEN sports, more than the usual number of capable players will be gained from the lacrosse squad that was best yearling ten in history at Maryland. Some fine material also will advance from the track combinations; the tennis aggregation will provide a couple of netmen of note, while the baseball nine, not up to the usual standard in strength, will send up only two or three diamonders of varsity caliber.

But athletic endeavor at Maryland, in the final analysis, is making the best of what they have; and, meeting with the success that has crowned the Old Liners' efforts should be highly gratifying to those in charge and to the alumni. Maryland's good name and its ability to schedule the leaders in various sports, without question, should be sufficient recompense if nothing else were attained.

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 1, June, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV July, 1933. No. 2

How Some of Them Looked On Alumni Day

Top row—(Left to right)—Ralph Williams, '33; Bill Needham, '33; Sam McGlathery, '33, and George Weber, '33 (around the Terrapin); Senator Tydings, '10; S. S. Stahler, '10, and others; P. E. Clark, '18; Austin Diggs, '21; Henry Walls, '18, and Thomas Frere, '18.

Second row—Sarah Morris, '25; Ruth Reppert Marsh, '23; Frank Chew, '92; Congressman Gambrill, '92; Clifton E. Fuller, '96; Fred. W. Besley, '92, and his son, Kirkland, '23.

Third row—Thirtieth reunion of '03. (Left to right)—G. W. Cairnes, E. P. Walls, J. Marsh Mathews, E. B. Dunbar, John P. Collier and Preston L. Peach; two members of the Fifty Year Club, Dr. R. Sumter Griffith, '80, and E. S. Walker, '70; class of '92, winner of the cup for the highest percentage present for the Alumni Meeting, Stephen W. Gambrill, J. Enos Ray, Fred W. Besley, George B. Calvert, Frank Chew, Rev. E. D. Johnson.

Fourth row—E. B. Dunbar, '03, and his son W. H. '33; Dr. A. W. Valentine, '04; J. Hanson Mitchell, '98, and his son J. Hanson, Jr., '26, Law '33; R. M. White, '13; Barney R. Cooper, '08, and his son.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor
G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
148 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.
J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.
G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

(Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.)

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

MEMBERSHIP DUES FOR 1933-'34

Below you will find the names of those who have paid their dues for the year 1933-34. The response to the first call was encouraging, but has not reached the quota necessary for carrying on the program of the Association for the coming year. The Association gratefully appreciates the prompt response of those whose names appear in this list and hope that their friends and former schoolmates will do as they have done.

The dues from association members are the only source of revenue for publishing the ALUMNI NEWS and carrying on many other duties of the Alumni Asociation.

If your name is not in the list look in the cubbyholes of your desk and get out the bill sent you last month and send in your check for $2.00 before the impulse leaves you.

Alumni who have responded to the Roll Call for dues for the year 1933-34, to July 11:

Ames, Henry P., '13, Clarendon, Va.
Ashman, Louis S., '08, Baltimore, Md.

Balkam, Herbert H., '17, New York, N. Y.
Parmer, Dr. Nolde P., '93, Washington, D. C.
Beale, R. B., '96, Schenectady, N. Y.
Becker, G. G., '08, Washington, D. C.
Belt, Wm. B., '23, Hyattsville, Md.
Bosley, F. W., '92, Baltimore, Md.
Bosley, A. Kirkland, '23, Riverdale, Md.
Boss, Dr. Thomas, Keyser, W. Va.
Betton, J. J., '99, Washington, D. C.
Bissell, T. F., '20, Griffin, Ga.
Blotch, Cecil E., '19, Washington, D. C.
Bomberger, Frank B., '94, College Park, Md.
Bopst, L. E., '16, College Park, Md.
Brice, Norman E., '08, Milburn, N. J.
Brookens, P. F., '27, Hyattsville, Md.
Brown, Arthur S., '91, Washington, D. C.
Brown, Leo T., '23, Washington, D. C.
Brown, R. S., '15, Easton, Md.
Browne, F. L., '32, Washington, D. C.
Bruner, E. R., '12, Scranton, Pa.
Bucks, Paul G., '22, Allentown, Pa.
Byrd, H. C., '08, College Park, Md.

Carrier, C. W., '91, Washington, D. C.
Carnes, G. W., '06, U. S. Coast Guard
Calvert, George H., Jr., '92, Washington, D. C.
Capper, Walter C., Law, Cumberland, Md.
Carroll, D. G., '02, Brookeville, Md.
Carroll, H. M., '20, Bel Air, Md.
Chambers, J. W., '00, Washington, D. C.
Crow, Frank, '92, Baltimore, Md.
Chichester, P. W., '25, Frederick, Md.
Church, Mary H., '25, Williamsport, Md.
Clark, P. E., '18, Upper Marlboro, Md.
Coleman, W. Bailey, '21, Baltimore, Md.

Dr. S. S. Buckley, '93, a Former Alumni Association President, Succumbs

IT is with regret that we announce the loss of one of our most able alumni leaders in Dr. Samuel S. Buckley, who died, July 6, 1933. Dr. Buckley was president of the Alumni Association from 1904 to 1907. He was for a long time connected with the University, but at the time of his death he was an associate animal husbandman of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A short while before his death he underwent a minor operation from which he had apparently recovered, when a blood clot developed and he died within a short time afterwards, at his home in College Park.

Following Dr. Buckley's graduation from the Maryland Agricultural College, now the College Park Branch of the University, he went to the New York American Veterinary College where he graduated in 1896. Shortly afterwards he returned to the College Park Schools as professor of veterinary science and veterinarian of the Experiment Station. He was also consulting veterinarian for the Maryland State Board of Health at that time. He went with the U. S. D. A. in 1918.

Dr. Buckley was born in Mount Washington, Md. He is survived by his two daughters, Helen and Dorothy, having lost his wife several years ago. Interment was made in the St. John's Protestant Episcopal Cemetery at Beltsville, Md.

Colborn, William T., '15, Springfield, Pa.
Collier, John P., '03, Cincinatti, Ohio.
Collins, H. E., '99, Crisfield, Md.
Cooper, B. R., '08, Worton, Md.
Cory, E. N., '09, College Park, Md.

Darcey, George, '24, Hyattsville, Md.
Davidson, J. S., '28, Washington, D. C.
Davis, Gladden, '13, Rocks, Md.
Davis, Leonard L., '21, Baltimore, Md.
Day, Elizabeth H., '20, Centreville, Md.
Day, Frank, '18, Centreville, Md.
Day, G. C., '08, Baltimore, Md.
Deeley, Haskin, W., '14, Baltimore, Md.
Derrick, H. B., '17, Towson, Md.
Doerr, Paul L., '28, Washington, D. C.
Dunbar, E. B., '03, Little Valley, N. Y.

Eaton, Norwood, '27, Washington, D. C.
Elgin, B. K., '04, Indianapolis, Ind.
Eppley, Elixabeth F., '25, College Park, Md.
Eppley, Gerry, '18, College Park, Md.
Etienne, Arthur D., '20, Baltimore, Md.
Evans, Wm. H., '26, Denton, Md.

Faber, John E., '26, College Heights, Md.
Ferguson, H. F., '32, Baltimore, Md.
Fletcher, Canon Joseph, '75, Washington, D. C.
Firor, J. William, '08, Athens, Ga.
Fuller, Clifton E., '96, Cumberland, Md.

Geist, C. H., '24, Hyattsville, Md.
Gifford, George, '23, Rising Sun, Md.
Gifford, William G., '31, Washington, D. C.
Gilbert, Herbert D., '22, Passaic, N. Y.
Gilpin, Douglas, '15, Kennet Square, Pa.
Graham, J. J. T., '06, Glendale, Md.
Gray, John B., '75, Prince Frederick, Md.
Gray, J. B., Jr., '14, Prince Frederick Md.
Gray, S. D., '10, Baltimore, Md.
Griffith, Dr. W. Allen, Berwyn, Md.
Groff, W. D., '00, Owings Mills, Md.
Gwinner, Harry, '97, College Park, Md.

Haines, Mahlon N., '96, York, Pa.
Hale, Roger F., '24, Berwyn, Md.
Hanna, Mary G., '31, Westernport, Md.
Harley, C. P., '23, Wenatchee, Wash.
Harlow, J. H., '23, Lansdowne, Pa.
Harper, C. H., '07, Baltimore, Md
Harrison, L., '95, Washington, D. C.
Hewurd, Harry, '97, Philadelphia, Pa.
Hill, William B., '27, Upper Marlboro, Md.
Hillegeist, W. M., '12, Baltimore, Md.
Holzapfel, Henry, '95, Hagerstown, Md.
Hoshall, Harry, '08, College Park, Md.
Howard, D. J., '17, Winchester, Va.
Huffington, Jesse M., '22, State College, Pa.
Hurtt, Dr Harry, '95, Washington, D C.
Hyde, J. F. B., '75, Baltimore, Md.

Johnson, Leonard B., '88, Morganza, Md.
Juska, Edward F., '25, Long Branch, N. J.

Kemp, Allen D., '23, Washington, D. C.
Kemp, W. B., '12, College Park, Md.
Koenig, Martin, '09, Baltimore, Md.
Kubitz, W. E., '23, Annapolis, Md.

LeGore, W. C., '08, LeGore, Md.
Lines, William F., '32, Kensington, Md.
Linhardt, Charles, '12, Baltimore, Md.
Long, E. W., '08, Selbyville, Del.

MacDonald, Alexander, '21, Silver Spring, Md.
Marsh, Ruth Reppert, '23, Washington, D. C.
Mathews, J. Marsh, '03, Baltimore, Md.
Mayer, G. M., '06, Fort Clark, Texas.
McHenry, R. F., '16, Cumberland, Md.
McManus, James P., '14, Bridgeport, Conn.
McNutt, A. M., '06, Camden, N. J.
Merryman, N. Bosley, '07, Ruxton, Md.
Metzger, J. E., College Park, Md.
Miller, Robert H., '24, Spencerville, Md.
Mitchell, J. Hanson, '98, Baltimore, Md.
Mitchell, Parker, '96, Perryman, Md.
Morgan, E. King, '21, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Moore, John F., '23, Bath, N. Y.
Morrison, Lillian N., '27, Colonial Beach, Va.
Moss, Howard L., '23, Baltimore, Md.
Mudd, John P., '07, Philadelphia, Pa.
Mudd, Mabel, '32, Philadelphia, Pa.
Mullendore, Thos. B., '04, Buffalo, N. Y.

Newbarr, Bernard B., '11, Med., Los Angeles, California.
Night, Theresa B., '29, Frostburg, Md.
Nourse, Alice C., '30, Dawsonville, Md.

Ogden, J. M., '00, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Oswald, E. L., '08, College Park, Md.

Paine, C. E., '19, Washington, D. C.
Pancoast, Priscilla, B., '26, Elkton, Md.
Parker, A. A., '05, Pocomoke, Md.
Powell, E. E., '13, Towson, Md.
Prienkert, Alma, '23, College Park, Md.

Ray, J. Enos, '92, Hyattsville, Md.
Reed, R. B., '24, Pointe Clmire, Can.
Reeder, W. C., '08, Springfield, Pa.
Robinson, W. K., '13, Hartford, Conn.
Rolph, Wm. C., '04, Philadelphia, Pa.
Rothgeb, R. G., '24, College Park, Md.
Ruffner, R. H., '08, Raleigh, N. C.
Sanders, W. R., '25, Washington, D. C.

(Continued on Page 3)

Nineteenth Session of Summer School Large

When the nineteenth session of the University's Summer School opened June the 20th, there was approximately an 18 per cent decrease in the enrollment, as compared with last year. This was not considered a very large decrease when the State School Board gave a one year moratorium on requiring many teachers to attend Summer School to renew their teachers' certificates. When the final count was made it was found that 830 students had registered for the session.

Many former students of the University are among those enrolled; either completing their required work or working for advanced degrees.

The school is under the supervision of Dr. W. S. Small, Dean of the College of Education.

The session will close August 8.

* * * * *

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Housden L. Marshall, announce the arrival of John Housden, an eight pound son born April 28. John has a sister 18 months old. Mrs. Marshall was formerly Miss Agnes Donnelly, of Pennsylvania. Marshall is a member of the class of '25. He is now employed by the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, U. S. D. A. The Marshalls live at 135 Arlington Ridge, Alexandria, Virginia.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Marion W. Wallace, are the proud parents of a baby boy born April 6. His christened name is Karal Kay. Mrs. Wallace was formerly Miss Charlotte Henderson. Wallace graduated in the class of '29. The Wallaces are residing at Lynchburg, Ohio, where Marion is teaching.

* * *

Announcing the arrival of George Nelson Schramm, Jr., by his dad, a member of the class of '22. The baby carriage notice was labeled as follows: "Free squealing—runs nicely, wet or dry, arrived May 19, 1933; weight 7¼ pounds, Margee Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa." Mrs. Schramm was formerly Miss Pauline M. Hill, of Kittaning, Pa. Schramm, a member of Sigma Phi Sigma Fraternity, received his M. S. in Chemistry in '23 and is now with the American Steel and Tin Plate Co., a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corporation, as corrosive research engineer in the laboratories at Vandergrift, Pa. His address is Box 542.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Reginald V. Truitt, are the proud parents of George Emerson, born February 28, 1933. Mrs. Truitt was formerly Miss Mary Virginia Harrington of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The Truitts live in College Park. Dr. Truitt is Professor of Aquiculture at the University.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Endslow announce the arrival of Elizabeth Eugenia, born May 29, at the Women's Hospital in Baltimore. Joe, as he is better known by his class mates, was a former star track-man having been a member of probably the greatest relay team Maryland has ever had. He is now teaching at Street, Md. Mrs. Endslow, was formerly Miss Katherine Archer. They reside at Darlington, Md.

Burnside to Manage Bank

Harold W. Burnside, '04, vice-president and former assistant manager of the Farmers and Mechanics Branch of the Riggs National Bank, has been named manager of the newly acquired, Chevy Chase Branch.

Burnside graduated in Arts and Sciences and for many years has been in the banking business in Washington. He is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking and a member of its faculty as well as having held many high offices in the organization.

He married Miss Enid Holden and they have two sons. They live at 3018 P St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

* * * * *

Alumni Receive Advance Degrees

At the Commencement Exercises held this year several former students attained the honor of receiving advanced degrees. Quite a few had the professional engineering degree conferred upon them. They were the following:

Walter Scott Atkinson, '29, C. E.; Leo Blankman, '13, C. E.; James Slater Davidson, Jr., '28, C. E.; Jay V. Hall, '29, C. E.; James Hayward Harlow, III, '23, E. E.; Alfred Franklin Weirich, '29, C. E.; Ralph Charles VanAllen, '29, E. E.; Robert Randolph Welsh, '29, E. E.; Raymond Franklin Iager, '29, M. E.; and John Campbell Slack, '29, C. E.

In addition to those receiving the enginering degrees, Glenn S. Weiland, '28, received his Doctor of Philosophy Degree; Edward H. Siegler, who obtained his Master's Degree from the University in '29, received his Ph. D. John Conrad Bauer, '28, a member of Phi Kappa Phi, received his Doctor of Philosophy Degree, while Selix Scott Lagasse, '25, now of the University of Delaware, received his Ph. D.

* * * * *

Harvey H. Heyser, '96, Succumbed Last Fall

The death of Harvey H. Heyser, '96, who died October 10, 1932, at his home in Hagerstown, Md., was not known until recently. Mr. Heyser, graduated from the College Park Branch of the University, in the classical course with the class of 1896 after which, he entered the banking business in Hagerstown, Md. At the time of his death he was treasurer of the Southern Shoe Mfg. Co., of Hagerstown and one of the prominent citizens of that city. His brother, W. W. Heyser, attended the institution in 1906 and '07.

Through the courtesy of his son, Harvey H. Heyser, Jr., we were informed of his death.

NELLIE BUCKEY GOES ABROAD

Nellie Buckey, '25, former vice-president of the Women's Student Government Association and for several years teacher in the Ypsilanti High School of Michigan, went abroad this summer. Her trip abroad is in connection with a new position at Columbia University, where she will be in charge of the personnel work and teach home economics in the new college of the Teachers' College. In addition she will be in charge of foreign travel for her department. Her trip abroad this summer, takes her to Germany where she will make a survey of home economic work in German schools.

Nellie hails from Brentwood, Md., and is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. She visited the campus just before her departure.

* * * * *

New Buildings for Campus

The university is very glad to announce that the legislature has appropriated $400,000 for the erection of two new buildings on the campus. One will be a new dormitory for women and the other, a classroom and laboratory building. These will be started early this fall.

* * * * *

¶ Stanley Orr, '24, is now in Hyattsville, Md., where he represents the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.

* * * * *

Membership Dues for 1933-'34

(Continued from Page 2)

Saunders, O. H., '10, Washington, D. C.
Savard, H. O., '19 Med., Baltimore, Md.
Sellman, R. Lee, '19, College Park, Md.
Shank, Evelyn, '28, Washington, D. C.
Showell, J. L., '06, Hughesville, Md.
Silvester, L. M., '11, Washington, D. C.
Simmons, Lawrence D., '23, Tulsa, Okla.
Slanker, F. K., '21, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Smith, George F., '23, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Somerville, Wm. A. S., '08, Cumberland, Md.
Speer, T. T., '18, Baltimore, Md.
Stabler, N. S., '15, Cossart, Pa.
Stabler, S. S., '10, Washington, D. C.
Stamp, Adele, '24, College Park, Md.
Sterling, Wilbur, '20, Washington, D. C.
Stevens, William E., '15, Long Island, N. Y.
Stewart, Frank G., '12, Washington, D. C.
Sylvester, Charles W., '08, Baltimore, Md.
Symons, T. B., '02, College Park, Md.

Tait, Sterling, '24, White Plains, N. Y.
Terhune, Frank, II., '27, North Plainsfield, N. J.
Thorne, Walter A., '30, Riverdale, Md.
Todd, A. M., '13, Sparrows Point, Md.
Townshend, Harry, W., '13, Mitchellville, Md.
Trueworthy, T. H., '00, Washington, D. C.
Truitt, R. V., '14, College Park, Md.
Tydings, Millard E., '10, Washington, D. C.

Valentine, A. W., '04, Washington, D. C.
Vandermast, George H., '19, Stemmers Run, Md.
Veitch, Fletcher P., '31, College Park, Md.
Vincent, Lionel L., '32, Westminster, Md.

Walker, Edward S., '70, Mitchellville, Md.
Walker, W. P., '21, College Park, Md.
Ward, Harry, '16, Baltimore, Md.
Walrath, E. K., '24, Westminster Md.
Walrath, Vera M., '24, Westminister, Md.
Wertheimer, Phillip, '29, Frederick, Md.
Wharton, Thomas P., '07, Stockton, Md.
White, Charles E., '23, College Park, Md.
White, C. M., '13, Youngstown, Ohio.
White, Robert, '16, Carteret, N. J.
White, Wellstood, '05, Washington, D. C.
Williams, E. P., '14, College Park, Md.
Winant, H. B., '17, College Park, Md.
Winterberg, Sam, '28, New Brunswick, N. J.
Woolford, Cator, '89, Atlanta, Ga.
Woods, Mark W., '31, Berwyn, Md.
Worthington, L. G., '25, Berwyn, Md.

Yates, Harry O., '24, Merchantville, N. J.
Young, C. Mervyn, '06, Wynnewood, Pa.

LOOKING AHEAD IN ATHLETICS AT MARYLAND

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

WHILE not half of the summer is over, the talk of football for next fall and even the winter sports of basketball and boxing is in the air at College Park.

Football, of course, is the root of most of the conversation and, while it is hoped that a better line will be developed than that of last season, it is an uncertain proposition as the main strength of the forward wall will have to come from players on last year's freshmen eleven. And just how sophs will pan out always is highly problematical. At any rate, the line material appears to be better than it was in the fall of 1933.

However, while the linemen offer great hopes for improvement, it is hardly likely that the backfield will offer as much power on offense as defense, and the main reason will be the loss of Al. Woods. As a blocker, he was a big part of Maryland's attack and as a defense player he was on a par with the best. And along with Woods went Ray Poppelman and Paul Kiernan, two capable ball toters.

Other letter men who will be missing when the Old Liners gather on Labor Day for the start of practice will be Charles Keenan and George Cole, tackles; John Mitchell, guard, and Bill Wood and Frank Hines, ends.

In addition to the above, Val Rouzer and John McDonald, who played most of the time in the regular guard positions have gone. Rouzer failed scholastically. McDonald had to leave school on account of a lack of finances, but may return.

This leaves the following insignia winners slated to be back: Rufus Vincent, end; John Simpson and John Mayhew, guards; Al Farrell, tackle; Tom Webb, center; Willis Bonner, end or back; Dick Nelson, Norwood Sothoron, Earl Widmyer, Joe Crecca and Buckey Buscher, backs. Farrell, though, will be unavailable for scholastic reasons.

Just how many of last year's freshmen squad will be back is a question that can be answered only by the roll call, but some of those expected to be on hand and to be a big help are:

Louis Ennis, Carl Stalfort and Bernie Buscher, ends; Ed Minion, Charles Callahan, Bill Garrott, McGruder Huff and Tom McLaughlin, interior linemen; Harry Gretz and Bernie Cummings, centers; and George Sachs, Charles Yaeger, Steve Hatos, John and Frank Christhilf, Albert Benjamin and March McCoy, backs.

In all there were about 25 freshmen who remained out all last fall and possibly 20 of them may be on hand this season. In fact, sophs will be predominant on a roster that will number around the 35 mark.

As it looks this far away, Maryland should be able to develop a fairly well balanced eleven next fall and to look to 1934 with hopes for a really good team. Football teams don't just "happen" at College Park, they are developed here.

* * *

SIX of the eight letter winners in basket-ball and four of the five regulars of the 1932-33 team are due back. George Weber, regular guard, and Fred Stieber, a reserve, were the losses.

Rufus Vincent, big center, who led the Southern Conference in scoring; Spencer Chase and Bob Snyder, regular forwards, and Buckey Buscher, regular guard, Warren Evans and George Walker, utility performers, doubtless will bear the brunt of the coming season.

Bernie Buscher, Ike Rabbitt, Fred Scheele and Malcolm Johns are the most promising additions that will come up from the freshmen.

EIGHT boxers got letters and a half dozen of them are due to don the gloves again. They are: Harry Carroll, featherweight; Harold Burns, lightweight; Lyman McAboy and Monte Jones, 155 pounds or middleweight; Stewart McCaw, light-heavy, and Al Farrell, heavyweight.

Bernie Keener, welterweight regular, and Victor Wingate, who also fought in that class, were the only letter men to graduate.

There was no freshman team but a capable lot of additions should come up from intra-mural competition which wound up with a title tourney.

* * *

AS usual all schedules will be attractive. All of the lists will be printed in due time but the football card is given here so the old grads may plan in advance:

September 30—St. John's at College Park.

October 7—Virginia Poly at Norfolk.

October 14—Tulane at New Orleans.

October 21—V. M. I. at Lexington.

October 28—Western Maryland at College Park or Baltimore.

November 4—Virginia at Charlottesville.

November 11—Duke at College Park.

November 18—Hopkins at Homewood Field, Baltimore.

November 25—Washington and Lee at College Park.

December 2—Florida at Tampa.

* * * * *

Byrd, '08, on Public Works Committee

H. C. "Curley" Byrd '08, has been appointed by Governor Ritchie as a member of the Public Works Committee for the State of Maryland. This board will have the spending of the State's share of the $3,300,000,000, Federal appropriation for creating jobs for the unemployed.

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 2, July, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV August, 1933. No. 3

The College of Engineering

Journalism Now Among Courses At The University

JOURNALISM, a very much desired course, has been added to the University's curriculum. This has for sometime been the wishes of those students engaged in work on the student weekly paper, the "Diamondback," the "Reveille," and the "Humorous" publication. It was felt that the practical experience that students were getting by writing for the various publications should be supplemented by technical training and due credit received.

Dr. Charles B. Hale, professor of English; William H. Hottel, director of publicity for the University, and A. H. Snyder, University Extension Service editor, have been appointed to direct the course.

* * * * *

SHEAR WRITES BULLETIN

George Myron Shear, '27, who has been doing research work on tobacco at the V. P. I. Experiment Station, at Blacksburg, Va., has written a bulletin on "Frenching of Tobacco." He is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity.

* * * * *

¶ In the minds of men the future already exists.

DOINGS IN CHINA

By Ed. Tenney, '28

FROM across 3,000 miles of Universe we hear from an Alumnus who tells his former schoolmates and Alumni something about his experiences. Ed Tenney, '28, is the one who has favored us with this narrative about doings in China. He is with an internationally known oil company located there. His writing studio is the Rest House at Chinwangtao, near the hostilities. As "Ed" tells it in his letter to the editor of the News: "As the heading of this letter indicates I am writing from Chinwangtao, famous as a summer resort and for its proximity to the present trouble between the Chinese and Manchukuo-Japanese forces. It has been developed by the Kailan Mining Administration (the concern for which ex-President Hoover worked as a young mining engineer) as a port from which the bulk of their coal is exported. It is approximately 160 miles northeast of Tientsin on the Peking-Moukden R. R. and the Gulf of Hopei—your idea of its location after reading this is probably about as clear as it was before. It is also ten miles southeast of Shankaikwan, the latter place

(Continued on Page 2)

Washington's False Teeth Exhibited At World's Fair

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S false teeth, the treasured property of the University's Dental School, are being shown at the World's Fair to exemplify the "Century of Progress." This set of teeth, according to research made by Dr. J. Ben Robinson, Dean of the Dental School, were made by Dr. John Greenwood before 1798. It is believed that the teeth were in the possession of Dr. Greenwood, for repair, at the time of Washington's death. They were given to the school in 1875 by Dr. John Allen who obtained them from a grandson of Dr. Greenwood. The teeth are a relic of that period before dentistry became a profession. It was not until 1839 that the first dental school was founded, known as the Baltimore School of Dentistry, which is now the Dental School of the University.

* * * * *

FOGG GONE TO GERMANY

George W. Fogg, '26, the well known reference librarian for the University library, is spending his vacation in Germany. Last year George went to Porto Rico. He is originally from Bangor, Maine.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor
G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.
J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.
G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

RESPONSE OF MEMBERSHIP DUES FOR 1933-34 CONTINUES

Bromley, John A., '17, Annapolis, Md.
Burger, Lt. Joseph, '25, U. S. Marine Corp.
Burritt, Loren, '17, Washington, D. C.
Butts, John A., '22, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Carter, John H., '26, Oakland, Md.
Church, Culvin C., '00, Los Angeles, Calif.
Cole, W. Graham, '10, Long Island, N. Y.
Devilbliss, H. Roland, '11, Riverdale, Md.
Donaldson, Edmund C., '21, Laurel, Md.
Erdman, Lewis W., '16, Milwaukee, Wis.
Hubich, Helen Beyerle, '27, Philadelphia, Pa.
Huzen, Melvin C., '88, Washington, D. C.
Hitch, Robert A., '29, Washington, D. C.
Jenifer, Dr. Daniel of St. Thomas, '02, Towson, Md.
Mayo, Edmund C., '04, Providence, R. I.
McFadden, Charles P., '26, Huntington, L. I., N. Y.
Miller, J. Z., '28, Elkton, Md.
Norris, G. W., '19, Annapolis, Md.
Quinn, Dr. John F., '06, Bridgeport, Conn.
Remsburg, Harold A., '24, Middletown, Md.
Reynolds, Clayton, '22, Denton, Md.
Ruppert, E. C. E., '20, Washington, D. C.
Scheuch, John D., '23, North Beach, Md.
Sherman, Dr. Henry C., '93, Columbia University, N. Y.
Silvester, Dr. R. L., '08, Washington, D. C.
Simonds, Florence T., '28, Riverdale, Md.
Sterling, John C., '16, Newport News, Va.
Watts, H. D., '04, New York City.
Zerkel, L. F., '06, Luray, Va.

* * * * *

Alumni Elected To Tau Beta Pi

John H. Eiseman, '21, a former baseball star and graduate in engineering has been elected to membership in Tau Beta Pi National Honorary Engineering Fraternity, recognizing his ranking position in the engineering field. John received his B. S. in mechanical engineering in '21 and his M. E. in '24.

He is now employed at the Bureau of Standards. His address is 4600 Stanford Street, Chevy Chase, Md.

Six juniors in the College of Engineering were also elected: J. T. Dressel, Mt. Ranier; Jacob Friedman, Washington, D. C.; B. P. Kang, Takoma Park, Md.; Charles W. Ackershausen, Washington, D. C.; J. W. Steiner, Washington, D. C.; and J. P. Bowker, Jr., Washington, D. C.

* * * * *

¶ We're inclined to say "He's a gentleman" when we can't think of any other nice appellation.

INGERSOLL, '32, STUDIES TURKEY INDUSTRY OF MD.

Mary Ingersoll, '32, who completed her masters work this year has the distinction of being the first to make "an economic study of the Turkey Industry of Maryland," the subject of her thesis. Her thesis will be put into bulletin form for publication by the Experiment Station. Mary is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority and her home is in Chestertown, Md.

DOINGS IN CHINA

(Continued from Page 1)

marking the eastern termination of the great wall of China.

Rest House

"In order to further clarify the letter head I'll explain that the "Rest House" is a miniature (extremely miniature) hotel maintained by the K. M. A. for visitors to Chinwangtao; and the circles linked in the black diamond indicates the British and Chinese interests linked in the K. M. A. Is that clear or should I have never mentioned it in the first place?"

"It is very quiet here at present or I wouldn't be here to begin with, though fighting continues at Haiyong between the Chinese and Manchuko forces, the latter place being 15 Chinese li (approximately 5 miles) distant. From where I sit I can see two Japanese destroyers at anchor as well as a British destroyer, the latter being tied up at a K. M. A. wharf. There is always a British warcraft of some sort stationed here for the protection of the British people employed here by the K. M. A. and of British property."

"There is evidently a Japanese aircraft carrier anchored near here—out of sight of land—as every so often Japanese planes cross overhead, coming from the direction of the gulf. Sometimes they are observation planes and sometimes bombers that proceed further inland and dump their dynamite.

American Army Camp

"An American army camp is located here (it is used as a summer camp for the Fifteenth U. S. Infantry, located in Tientsin). At present the camp is occupied only by a winter detachment of about 12 men.

"My presence here is accounted for by the fact that we have an office at Chinwangtao from which we control certan of our agencies in a specified area known as the Chinwangtao Territory, and my job is supervising that particular territory from the head office at Tientsin. Right now the Japanese and Manchukuo forces are "supervising" most of it for me—especially my agencies in Jehol of whom I've heard nothing for a month and a half. I, incidentally, find quite a lot of work to do down here in the summer season when the place is filled with summer visitors, despite the fact that most of our business is carried on during the winter months. Very odd that—shan't try to explain it as I might possibly find a very unsatisfactory explanation.

(To be Continued)

The Military Question

Many Alumni who have not already heard about the outcome of the case regarding the student who last year refused to take the regularly prescribed Military Training at the University, because of his conscientious religious convictions. The case was tried in the trial court of Baltimore where the University lost. The case was then appealed to the Court of Appeals, of Maryland and in this Court the decision was reversed in favor of the University.

Excerpts from the opinion of the Court, delivered by Judge Pattison, explains the decision: "There is no law, Federal or State, known to us or to which our attention has been called which exempts registered students in the University of Maryland from taking the required military course. In the absence of such law, we are of the opinion that any demand made by them to be exempted from such course could not be legally enforced . . In preparing for defense, a military training for those who may be called upon to take arms in defense of their country is a necessary incident thereto and any effort on the part of any of the people to hinder or defeat the Government in so doing should not be countenanced by the Courts so long as the Government acts in the lawful exercise of such power."

* * * * *

Traveling Alumni

Raymond B. Reed, '24, journeyed from Ponte Claire, Quebec, Canada, to be present for Alumni Day, also to visit his parents who reside in College Park. He shares the honor with T. F. Bissell, '20, of Griffin Ga., for traveling the furtherest to be present for the Alumni Reunion, June 3rd.

Reed is with the Shawinegan Power Company, of Canada, with headquarters in Montreal, the largest power company of Canada. He has been with this company for six years as electrical engineer. His address, is 33 Belton Avenue, Ponte Claire, Quebec, Canada.

* * * * *

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Huffington were on the campus while visiting with Malcolm M. Davis, of Washington. Mr. Huffington, a member of the class of '22, is located at Penn State College, where he is assistant professor in vegetable gardening.

* * * * *

William J. Richard, '24, a graduate in electrical engineering, is located in Philadelphia. He married Miss Margaret L. Leberman and they have two children. Their address is 6614 Morris Park Road, Overbrook, Philadelphia, Pa.

Those Present For Their 25th Anniversary

Front row (Left to right)—Charley Sylvester, W. A. S. Somerville, G. B. Day and U. W. Long.
Second row—W. C. Reeder, Harry Hoshall, H. C. "Curley" Byrd, George Becker, E. I. Oswald and L. B. Broughton.
Back row—Barney Cooper, R. H. Ruffner and N. E. Brice.

43 Due To Report For Grid Practice

Sophomores To Play Prominent Part, Although Ten Letter Men Will Be Among Candidates

By W. H. HOTTEL

"Curley" Byrd has sent out word to 43 of his football-inclined students to be at College Park on Labor Day, Monday, September 4, for the start of practice.

A majority of them will be sophomores—23 in fact—and a great deal of dependence will be put in the newcomers to the varsity squad for whatever success the Old Liners may eke out of their difficult 1933 schedule. It would not be at all surprising if the line was made up mainly of sophs as Tom Webb, all-state center last fall, appears to be the only forward who has a good grip on his job.

In the 20 leftovers from last year are 11 letter men, but this does not carry as much significance as it would indicate offhand. Maryland used so many men last fall in an effort to get a working combination that more players than ordinarily is the case(18) got letters. Some of them would not have made the grade in an ordinary year.

While the Old Liner gridders seems sure to play some good and interesting football in the coming campaign, it hardly can be expected that a really good team can be developed before the 1934 campaign, when some of the promising sophomore talent will have the experience that is essential in the greatest of all college pastimes. This with the fact that losses from the ranks of the leftovers also will be comparatively light, makes the building-up outlook rather bright.

However, Maryland does not intend to give up the ghost in advance in any of its games this fall, and unless things break badly the Old Line outfit should be rather formidable by the time the late stages of the 1933 campaign are reached. It should be a fairly capable defensive team from the outset, but with its limited number of backs its offense will have a tough time making headway against some of the powerful elevens that will be met.

Mostly Home Talent

Ninety per cent of Maryland's players, as usual, come from within the State and the District of Columbia. Only six of the men hail from other territory, and 10 of the 43 asked to report never had any gridiron experience before matriculating at College Park.

In fact, Maryland, compared to most of the teams that it will meet during the season, will present a bunch of greenies, and, in eight of its ten games is sure to concede much in weight, age and experience. However, this is nothing new and offers an incentive for the players and coaches to accomplish something really worth while.

Football teams have to be "made" at College Park, and this year is not an exception to the rule.

* * * * *

"Jap" Hines Visits The Campus

Who should drop in on the campus but Thomas L. (Jap) Hines, '05, and son who expects to enter Maryland this year. It was his first visit to the campus in 15 years. His remarks were, "What a change! What a change!"

Hines has been with the Dupont people for 17 years and at present is assistant manager of the Dupont Cellophane Mfg. Co. He is located in the Empire State Building, New York City.

In the Alumni office he learned much to his surprise that two of his classmates are located in New York—H. D. Watts, and George L. Wentworth.

Prominent Graduate Of Medical School Succumbs.

Dr. James Julian Richardson, a graduate of the Medical School about 1900, died June 29, at Atlantic City, N. J. He was one of the leading nose and throat specialists of this country and was recognized as the guardian of the speaking voices of many of the nation's leading statesmen. Dr. Richardson was born in Sardis, Ohio, January 18, 1873. After graduating from the University's Medical School he took up work at Universities of Edinburgh, Vienna, Heidelberg and also in London hospitals.

Interment was made at New Martinsville, W. Va., the home of his boyhood days.

* * * * *

MARRIED

Class of 1928

Paul L. Doerr, '28, and Miss Louise M. Columbus, of Washington, D. C., were married April 17, 1933. Paul, former president of the Student Government Association, is now with the military department of the high schools of the District of Columbia. Their address is 1702 Summit Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Diamondback for Alumni

For the many Alumni who like to subscribe to the "Diamonback," the student weekly paper, which gives the current news of campus activities, the subscription price will be $2.00 this year. To be sure of starting off by receiving the first copy, which will appear September 18, get your subscription in, at once, to E. Dorrance Kelly, business manager of the "Diamondback," University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland.

BIRTHS

Mr. Edward I. (Pete) Troth and his wife, the former Miss "Billie" Cook of Birmingham, Alabama, announce the birth of their son, Edward I. Troth, Jr., on February 20, 1933. "Pete," since his graduation in June, 1928, has been with the Commercial Credit Company and is now branch manager for that company in Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. and Mrs. Troth are now living at 1117, N. 25th Street, Birmingham Alabama.

* * *

Classes of '29-'27

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Park Shipley, announce the arrival of Frederick Herzog, April 10, 1933, a fine ten-pound son. Fred has an older brother, Linwood, Jr. Mrs. Shipley was formerly Miss Emily Herzog, '29, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. Mr. Shipley is a member of the Sigma Phi Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity. The Shipleys live at East Orange, N. J.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Potts, are the proud parents of a daughter, Dorothy Blanche, born, May 23, 1933. Mrs. Potts was formerly Miss Sara A. Warrington. Mr. Potts got his M. S. degree from Maryland in 1924. He is now assistant entomologist in the Bureau of Entomology of the U. S. D. A. and is stationed at Highland, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Potts were married, August 31, 1929, at the Theta Chi Fraternity house in College Park, of which Mr. Potts is a member. Their home address is Melrose, Mass.

* * * * *

Frank B. Hines, '00, ('04, M. D.,) is Major of the Chestertown Medical Detachment, First Maryland Infantry.

Maryland's Varsity Football Squad, 1933

Name	Pos.	Years on Squad	Wt.	Ht.	Age	From
*Rufus Vincent	end	3	180	6-2	26	Hyattsville, Md.
Chas. Rittenhouse	end	2	171	5-11	21	Baltimore City College.
Donald Hay	end	3	165	5-11	21	Central High, Wash., D. C.
Sam Silber	tackle	2	181	6	19	Baltimore City College.
Stewart McCaw	tackle	2	178	5-11	24	East High, Rochester, N. Y.
*John Simpson	guard	3	180	5-11½	21	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
*John McDonald	guard	2	210	6-2	24	Emerson Institute, Wash., D. C.
*John Mayhew	guard-end	3	168	6	23	Central High, Wash, D. C.
Joseph Coulehan	guard	1	181	6	21	LaSalle Institute, Cumberland, Md.
Adam Penrod	guard	2	195	5-7	22	Greenbrier, Va., M. A.
*Thomas Webb	center	2	180	6	21	Western High, Wash., D. C.
Luther Goldman	center	2	162	5-9½	23	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
*Willis Benner	center	2	170	5-10½	23	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
*Norwood Sothoron	back	3	158	5-11	22	Charlotte Hall, Md., Academy.
*Dick Nelson	back	2	175	5-10½	20	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
*Earl Widmyer	back	2	165	5-10	20	Hagerstown, Md., High.
*Joe Crecca	back	2	160	5-10	21	Barringer High, Newark, N. J.
*Buckey Buscher	back	3	170	6	24	Western High, Wash., D. C.
Robert Snyder	back	3	168	5-10½	22	Hagerstown, Md., High.
H. C. Byrd, Jr.	back	2	143	5-7	19	Hyattsville, Md., High.
FROM 1932 FRESHMAN
Louis Ennis	end		191	5-11	19	Long Branch, N. J., High.
Carl Stalfort	end		192	6	19	Baltimore City College.
Bernard Buscher	end		175	6	19	Western High, Wash., D. C.
Corbin Coggswell	end		166	5-11	19	Baltimore City College.
Magruder Huff	tackle		218	6-2	22	Centreville, Miss. High.
Thos. McLaughlin	tackle		208	5-10	20	St. John's M. A., Delafield, Wis.
Walter Bradley	tackle		204	6-1	21	McDonough School, Baltimore.
Edward Minion	guard		190	5-11	20	Barringer High, Newark, N. J.
Chas. Callahan	guard		190	6-2	19	Loyola High, Baltimore.
William Garrott	guard		176	5-6	20	Central High, Wash., D. C.
Arthur Buddington	guard		218	6-1	18	Central High, Wash., D. C.
Charles McGuire	guard		170	5-10	19	Capitol Heights, Md.
William Graham	guard		175	6	20	Washington, D. C.
Kenneth Staubaugh	guard
Bernard Cummings	center		167	5-11	20	St. John's Prep., Wash., D. C.
Harry Gretz	center		165	5-10½	19	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
George Sachs	back		191	5-9	20	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
Steve Hites	back		181	6	22	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
John Christhilf	back		172	5-11	19	Friends School, Baltimore.
Frank Christhilf	back		181	5-10	19	Friends School, Baltimore.
Herman Medler	back		180	5-8	22	Tech High, Wash., D. C.
Charles Yaeger	back		175	6	20	Baltimore City College.
Marsh McCoy	back		142	5-7	22	Maryville, Tenn., High.

Hay, Simpson, Mayhew, Bradley, Buddington, Snyder, Byrd, McGuire, Graham and Medley never had any football experience before entering Maryland, and McGuire and Medley did not report for freshman squad last Fall.

*Lettermen

HOMECOMING -- Saturday, November 25
MARYLAND VS. WASHINGTON AND LEE

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 3, August, 1933.

Miss Grace Parnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV September, 1933. No. 4

FOOTBALL SQUAD FOR 1933

Front row (l. to r.)—Webb, Byrd, Jr., F. Christhilf, J. Christhilf, Ennis, Goldman, Sach, McLaughlin, Williams, Bradley. Second row—Crecca, Buddington, Simpson, Minion, Gretz, Stalfort, Garrot, Bernie Buscher, Graham, McGuire, Widmyer. Third row—Penrod, Smith, Rittenhouse, Cummings, Robertson, Callahan, Silher, Hay, Yaeger, Sothoron, Bucky Buscher, Nelson. Benner, Vincent and McCaw, were absent.

Over Five Hundred Enter Freshman Class

A FRESHMAN class of over five hundred students registered at the College Park Branch of the University September 18 and 19, for the beginning of the seventy-fourth session. A program of orientation occupied the time of the freshmen for the first three days. The freshmen mixer was held on the evening of the first day—Tuesday evening. Dr. R. A. Pearson, president of the University, held a reception for all new students in the University Gymnasium and on the following evening the Student Government Association, lead by President Edward Quinn, held a general assembly for acquainting the new students with the policies of the Association. The Maryland Christian Association, under the leadership of Harry Dyer, president, and Miss Evelyn Brumbaugh, president of the Y. W. C. A., assisted in the orientation program by arranging games and informal meetings with student leaders, members of the faculty, and student pastors.

The freshman football squad, under the direction of Al Heagy, '30, and Al Woods, '33, was organized two days after the opening of school on Thursday, September 23.

DOINGS IN CHINA

By Ed. Tenney, '28

WE HAVE our private depression in the oil business out here—have had for the past several years. It has been due to the fact that the Chinese (or Mexican) dollar, which is based on silver currency, has dropped very materially in the relation of its value to the American Gold dollar. When I came out in 1928 our American dollar was worth $2.15 in Chinese money—now it is worth approximately $4.85 in Chinese money (has been worth over $5.00). Since we import all of our oil from the States (the sale of kerosene for lighting purposes constitutes by far the largest part of our business) we must naturally raise our prices accordingly as we sell our products for Chinese currency. Accordingly as we raise prices our volume of business decreases—this has also been true with other groups. Added to this difficulty at the present is a vicious price-war which has been brought on by Russian competition on the oil market and which is the most serious problem that has developed in years. Because of the above factors we have reduced our staff by about fifty per cent in the past two

(Continued on Page 3)

Peach, '03, Goes To British Malaya To Head High School

PRESTON L. Peach, '03, is returning to British Malaya this month, where he will become principal of the Methodist Boys' English High School, in which there are 30 teachers and 1,000 students. This school has everything that the high schools in this country have. A sport program is carried on in football, cricket, tennis, volley-ball and field sports. In the track events the record time of 10 2/5 seconds for the scholastic 100 yard dash is held by an Indian boy. Peach had previously spent seventeen years in that country doing educational missionary work. He returned to this country in 1931 to take graduate work in the College of Education, for which he received the Master of Arts degree this year.

His assignment this time is for five years and upon his return he will have circled the world four times in twenty years.

* * * * *

Four Games For Frosh

Maryland's freshman football team will play four games this fall with yearling elevens from other colleges. Virginia, on October 14, and St. John's, on November 16 will be the home contests.

Maryland Alumni News

Marylnnd Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor
G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

PAY YOUR DUES

An organized effort thru the class presidents is to be made to secure more paid members of the Alumni Association. The dues are only $2.00 per year which is nominal enough and certainly within the means of every Alumnus.

All class presidents are being asked to communicate with the members of their class urging them to pay their dues.

The membership dues is the only revenue upon which the Association has to carry on the current activities.

The following is a list of those who have paid since the last issue of the News:

Bacon, S. Rankin, '24, Washington, D. C.
Beach, Clarke, '27, Baltimore, Md.
Bierman, Hugh E., '13, Washington, D. C.
Burnside, Harold W., '04, Washington, D. C.
Caldwell, David D., '21, Washington, D. C.
Clendaniel, George W., '20, Bel Air, Md.
Cole, C. Walter, '21, Towson, Md.
Daiker, Barbara, '32, Washington, D. C.
Dearstyne, R. S., '17, Raleigh, N. C.
Dent, Gilbert, '04, Point Lookout, Md.
Droop, Carl A., '91, Washington, D. C.
Duckett, J. W., '10, New York, N. Y.
Dukes, Reyner, '14, Baltimore, Md.
Evans, Edward B., Med. '97, Omaha, Nebra.
Glass, Gerald L., '24, Dansville, Ill.
Griffith, Dr. R. S., '80, Waynesboro, Va.
Hawkins, A. H., Med., Cumberland, Md.
Hoffecker, Frank S., '14, Sparrows Point, Md.
Holloway, J. Q. A., '09, Philadelphia, Pa.
Holder, T. D., '22, Easton, Md.
Holter, Amos A., '30, Frederick, Md.
Horine, Cyrus F., Med., '19, Baltimore, Md.
Jones, George F., '17, Washington, D. C.
Kuluik, Max., '15, Philadelphia, Pa.
Mackall, J. N., '05, Baltimore, Md.
Nash, Mabel, '25, Potomac, Va.
Peacock, William, '16, Philadelphia, Pa.
Rukeman, Fred B., '18, New York, N. Y.
Roche, Thomas J., Med., '11, Bridgeport, Conn.
Sando, W. J., '20, Washington, D. C.
Schaefer, J. Philip, '23, Edgemoor, Md.
Shaw, S. B., '01, College Park, Md.
Shea, John, Med., '11, Bridgeport, Conn.
Simons, Lansing, '23, Washington, D. C.
Stevens, James W., '17, Baltimore, Md.
Stevenson, James W., '32, Pocomoke City, Md.
Ungar, Harry F., Brooklyn, N. Y.
Young, Dorothy O., '26, Bethesda, Md.

MARRIAGES

Class of '30-'31

Miss Lois Christine Simmonds, '31, and Mr. William Kinnamon, '30, were married at the home of the bride, Tarrytown, N. Y., April 8, 1933. The maid of honor, was the bride's sister, Miss Helen Simmonds. Among the guests present were: Miss Sherbie Rome; Margaret (Peg) Wisner, '30; Geraldine (Jerry) Parry, '31; Marjorie Rugge, '32; Agnes McNutt, '31, now Mrs. Kricker; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fouts, '32; Florence Peter, '33; Sannye E. Hardiman, '33, and Ralph Williams, '33.

Mrs. Kinnamon is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

* * *

Class of 1931

Jane Hammack and John T. O'Neil, both of the class of '31, were married June 22, 1933, at the Hamline Methodist Church in Washington, D. C. Miss Ernie Hammack, '34, a sister of the bride was maid of honor, and John Bischoff, '31, was best man.

A reception for the immediate family was held at the Kennedy-Warren Apartments, after which the young couple left for their honeymoon at Hot Springs, Va. The bride is a member of the A. O. Pi Sorority, and John, as he is better known, is a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and former president of the Student Government Association. They will reside at 1359 Euclid St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

* * *

Classes of 1930-'32

Miss Genevieve Wright, '30, and Claude Smith, '32, were married June 17, 1933, at the Memorial United Presbyterian Church of Washington, D. C. A reception followed the ceremonies at the home of the bride's parents. The maid of honor was Miss Elgar Jones, '31, and Miss Eloise Sargent '32, was one of the bridesmaids. The bride is a member of A. O. Pi.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside at 3221 Connecticut Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.

* * *

Class of 1929

C. Merrick Wilson, '29, and Miss Hilda Bernice Bowdle were married June 19, 1933, at the home of the bride's parents, Denton, Md. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen Bowdle, and Harry N. Wilson, '30, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Mrs. Wilson is a graduate of the State Normal School and has been teaching in the public schools of Caroline County. Merrick is an instructor in agriculture at the high school in Poolesville, Md.

* * *

Class of 1933-34

Evelyn Brueckner, '34, and George L. Hockensmith, '33, were married September the first in the Holy Redeemer Catholic Church of Berwyn, Md. Miss Hazel Hockensmith, sister of the bridegroom was the maid-of-honor and Fred Brueckner, '35, brother of the bride was best man. Harold

(Continued on Page 4)

Homecoming Plans Underway

Arrangements have been started for the Annual Homecoming to be held November 25 at College Park. On this day Maryland will meet its old rival, Washington and Lee, on the gridiron as the feature of the day. That evening the well-known Homecoming Dance will be held in the gymnasium which is always well attended by many former students.

On this day the "M" Club will hold its annual luncheon and meeting in the Ritchie Coliseum. The Board of Governors are making great plans for this meeting. A more detailed program will be published in later issues.

* * * * *

Ralph Williams, '33, Returns as Assistant in Student Affairs

Ralph Williams, '33, former president of the Student Government Association, has returned to the University this year in the capacity of assistant in student life. Throughout his four years at Maryland he was very active in many extra curricular activities and student affairs.

* * * * *

In Commemoration Of Dr. Samuel S. Buckley

In commemoration of Dr. Samuel S. Buckley, deceased, a former president of the Alumni Association, his daughters, Misses Helen and Dorothy Buckley, have presented to the Association, their father's collection of Reveilles, which is practically complete from the beginning in 1897 to 1916.

On behalf of the Alumni Association the News takes this occasion to express the appreciation of the members of the Association for the gift. The volumes will be known as the Buckley Memoriam. Additional volumes will be added until the set is brought up to date.

* * * * *

Grid Squad Jolted By Sothoron's Loss

(Continued from Page 3)

Stewart McCaw (175), right tackle; Bernie Buscher (175), right end; Joe Crecca (160), quarterback; John Christhilf (168), left halfback; Willis Benner (170), right halfback; Buckey Buscher (170), fullback.

Hay, Silber, Buscher and Benner are seniors, McCaw and Crecca are juniors and the rest came up from the 1932 frosh.

One phase in which Maryland should show to advantage is in kicking. Nelson and Widmyer did a good job of it last fall, and Yeager can boot the ball farther than either of them.

* * * * *

¶ How To Tickle Your Wife—"What did you do when your husband disapproved of your bathing-suit?" Oh, I just laughed it off."

OLD LINE ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

Grid Squad Jolted By Sothoron's Loss

Already Hard Task Is Made Harder As Appendicitis Takes Ace Of Backfield

LOSING A NUMBER of 1932 aces by graduation, particularly Al Woods, and having a number of unexpected casualties, the most jolting of which was the loss of Norwood Sothoron, backfield star, on September 13 because of an appendicitis operation, Maryland's football coaching board faces a tremendous task in a tough ten-game schedule.

However, the squad of 39, twenty of whom are sophomores and a dozen of whom came to College Park without gridiron experience, contains plenty of heft and fight, and will play interesting, if not winning, football. And it should be a pretty good outfit before the season is over.

Rare Defensive Schedule

Sothoron, a fleet and capable ball carrier and a rare defensive player, doubtless would have been Maryland's best all-around back. His loss, coming after ten days of practice had started, forced the changing of many plans and plays.

Outside of Sothoron, Tom Webb, all-State center; Willis Benner, the Old Liners' best end who has been turned into a halfback; Dick Nelson, Earl Widmyer and Joe Crecca, backs, are the only players left who saw what might be termed regular action in 1932. John Simpson, guard; John Mayhew, guard or end; Rufus Vincent, end who has been shifted to tackle, and Buckey Buscher, back, are the others on hand who played enough last fall to win their insignia.

An illustration of the task that is faced is given in the fact that 12 of those now running as the first and second teams are Sophomores, with five seniors and a like number of juniors completing the number.

Make-up of the two elevens with the weights of the players are as follows:

First team: Louis Ennis (184), left end; Ed Minion (190), left tackle; Walter Bradley (204), left guard; Tom Webb (180), center; John Simpson (180), right guard; Charles Callahan (195), right tackle; Carl Stalfort (192), right end; Dick Nelson (160), quarterback; Charles Yaeger (180), left halfback; Earl Widmyer (158), right halfback; George Sachs (191), fullback.

Simpson is a senior, Webb, Widmyer and Nelson are juniors and the others are sophomores.

Second team: Donald Hay (163), left end; Thomas McLaughlin (215), left tackle; William Garrett (170), left guard; George Gretz (160), center; Sam Silber (180), right guard;

(Continued on Page 2)

Board Of Four, Including Byrd, Is Directing Football At College Park, With Faber As Field Coach Of Squad

H. C. (Curley) Byrd, vice-president of the University, having found his time too occupied with executive duties to give his full attention to the grid squad, a board of four has been named to direct football at the Old Line institution.

FABER

Byrd is a member of the board, with John E. (Jack) Faber, Charles LeRoy (Mac) Mackert and George F. (Rosy) Pollock completing the quartet.

Charlie Fenwick, former Virginia star, for six years assistant mentor, also was named as a member of the board, but was forced to forsake football on account of the pressure of business.

Faber, who is varsity lacrosse mentor and freshman basket-ball coach and who was freshman football tutor for several years, will be head field coach of the varsity gridders.

MACKERT

His principal duties at the University, however, are as instructor in bacteriology. He received his B. S. degree at Maryland in 1926 and his M. A. the following year. He played basketball, lacrosse, and football in his undergraduate years.

Mackert, who is head of the University's physical education department, was a great tackle and fullback in his playing days. He got his B. S. degree in 1921 and his master's in 1924. He since has earned his Ph. D. in physical education at Columbia University.

POLLOCK

Pollock, who is alumni secretary, was a football center and played first base on the baseball team three years. He earned a B. S. degree in 1923 and a master's in 1924.

Byrd, whose class was 1908, has been at Maryland in various capacities since 1912, returning that fall as instructor in English and coach of all sports Maryland then supported—football, baseball and track.

He later became athletic director and assistant to the president and lately vice-president. In recent years he gave up all coaching except football.

FOOTBALL CARD

September 30—St. John's of Annapolis at College Park.
October 7—Virginia Tech at Norfolk, Va.
October 14—Tulane at New Orleans.
October 21—Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va.
October 28—Western Maryland at Baltimore Stadium.
November 4—Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.
November 11—Duke at College Park.
November 18—Johns Hopkins at Homewood Field, Balto.
November 25—Washington and Lee at College Pk. (Homecoming.)
December 2—Florida at Tampa, Fla.

* * * * *

DOINGS IN CHINA

(Continued from Page 1)

years. And if the Russian competition gets any worse (which it is doing every day) I may be forced to become a Soviet citizen yet.

By Way Of Paris

Well—for no reason at all—to get back to less recent and more pleasant topics, shortly after my visit to Maryland I started on my return journey to China, along with another Soconyite of my age who had made the trip out to China with me in 1928 and back again last year. We sailed from New York on the Mamitamia, landed at Plymouth, England, from whence we proceeded to London by train and after a few days, on to Paris by air in a forty-passenger airliner of the Imperial Airways.

We had the unique experience of spending a night in Paris when every theatre, cabaret, restaurant, and what have you was closed as a protest against a newly imposed government tax. Probably the only night in the history that Paris has been closed and I would have to be there. But then there were several other nights when they were open, but due to my poor powers of narration and a campus acquired consideration for the delicacy of the co-ed's feelings I'll skip that part.

To be Continued

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hamilton Roche, have another son, to be known as Kenneth Charles. Mr. Roche is a member of the class of '24. He is now employed at the University of Wisconsin, where he received his M. S. in 1926. Mrs. Roche was formerly Miss Minnie McFadden. They are residing at 432 University Farm Place, Madison, Wisconsin.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Bafford, announce the arrival of Joseph Edmonds, born September 11, 1933. Mrs. Bafford was formerly Miss Mina Edmonds, '29, and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. "Biff" as he is better known, is a former captain of the football team. They reside in Brooklyn, N. Y.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Park Shipley, have a fine son, Frederick Herzog, born April 10, 1933. Fred has an older brother, Linwood, Jr. Mrs. Shipley was formerly Miss Emily Herzog, '29, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. Mr. Shipley is a member of the Sigma Phi Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi Fraternities. The Shipleys live at East Orange, N. J.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Potts, are the proud parents of a daughter, Dorothy Blanche, born May 23, 1933. Mrs. Potts was formerly Miss Sara A. Warrington. Mr. Potts got his M. S. degree from Maryland in 1924 and is now assistant entomologist in the Bureau of Entomology of the U. S. D. A. and is stationed at Highland, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Potts were married August 31, 1929, at the Theta Chi Fraternity house in College Park, of which Mr. Potts is a member. Their home address is Melrose, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Langeluttig are the proud parents of a daughter, June Lee, born June 15, 1933. Mrs. Langeluttig was formerly Miss Elizabeth Wittig, '31, of College Park and a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. Mr. Langeluttig, a member of the class of '30, operates a large poultry farm near Annapolis, Md.

* * * * *

MARRIAGES

(Continued from Page 2)

Norwood, '33, was an usher. A reception for the immediate family was held, at the home of the bride in College Park, after which the newlyweds left by auto for their honeymoon. The bride, a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority, is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences and will return this year to complete her course. Hock, as he is known by his football and lacrosse associates, is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity and is now employed at Beaver Falls, Pa.

* * *

Class of 1931-'32

Agnes McNutt, '31, and William M. Kricker, '32, were married June 16, 1933, at the home of the bride's uncle near Berkley Springs, Md. Katherine Kricker was maid-of-honor and James Stevenson, '32, was best man. Among those who attended the ceremonies were Miss Marie Mount, Dean of the College of Home Economics; Audrey Killian, '23; Ester Hughes, '33; Betty Smaltz, '33; Florence Peters, '33; Louise Hersperger, '33; John W. Street, '33, and Gibb Myers, '30. Betty Smaltz caught the bride's bouquet. Following the ceremonies a reception was held after which the bride and groom left, by boat, for their honeymoon in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Kricker will reside at Sparows Point, Md., where "Bill" is engaged in the chicken business.

* * *

Doris Evans, '34, and Raymond Poppelman, '33, were married at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Charles D. Hamel, of Washington, D. C. on June 17, 1933. The maid of honor was Miss Lucille Hancock, '35, and the best man was John Scott, '33. Among those to attend the ceremonies were Misses Francis Schrott, Ernestine Loeffler, Carmel DeMarco, Joan Wells and Ester Fritch, Kappa Delta Sorority, sisters of the bride. Others to attend were Albert Woods, William Hauver and Raymond Schmidt, member of the bridgroom's fraternity, Sigma Hu. A reception followed the ceremonies after which the newlyweds left by auto for California, where they will make their home.

* * * * *

Charles T. Cockey, '15, is supervisor of operations for the Williamsport Steam Electric Station of the Penn. Power and Light Co. He married Miss Helen Wallace and they have two children. Charles is a graduate in Mechanical Engineering. Their resi- Williamsport, Pa.

* * * * *

White, '22, Visits Campus

Wilfred F. White, '22, visited the campus. He entered the University in 1918 but left before completing his course in Electrical Engineering to take a position with the Westinghouse Electric Company. He is now in the sales department and located at Cleveland, Ohio.

He married Miss Dorothy Branson, of Washington, in 1921; their address is 1616 Northland Avenue, Lakewood, Cleveland, Ohio.

HOMECOMING -- Saturday, November 25

Maryland Vs. Washington And Lee

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 4, September, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV October, 1933. No. 5

Hon. Samuel Moor Shoemaker, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS

1861

1933

Homecoming Marks "M" Club's Tenth Meeting

WHEN the Homecoming throng gathers at College Park, November 25, it will have a full day's program of interesting events. Football, soccer, an "M" Club meeting, and the great Homecoming Dance will be the events of the day. An effort is being made to arrange an athletic event for the co-eds in the morning, to be followed by a special luncheon.

Registration will begin at 9:30 A. M. The men will register at the Coliseum, and the women at the Girl's Field House. Dinner for returning alumni is being arranged in the University Dining Hall at 6 P. M. The Homecoming Dance will be held in the University Gymnasium from 9 to 12. P. M.

As usual, the feature of the day will be the Maryland-Washington and Lee football game at 2 P. M. in Byrd Stadium. These teams have frequently met at Homecoming affairs at both schools and several times they have spoiled the day for the home team.

DOINGS IN CHINA

By Ed. Tenney, '28

We took a motor-car trip from Paris down through Southern France and eventually to Nice, from whence we made side trips to nearby Cannes and Monte Carlo. A year ago today I was putting one franc pieces in the slot machine in the Monte Carlo Casino just to show my indifference.

From Nice we went to Venice via Genoa and Milan. And the pigeons in front of Saint Mark's Cathedral in Venice, for all of their notoriety, are just as impolite as the ones that roosted in the pine trees down by the Rossburg Inn. Disillusioning, that!

At Venice we boarded the good ship Conto Rosso for Shanghai. We stopped at Brindisi (Italy), Port Said, Bombay (India), Colombo (Ceylon), Singapore (Strait Settlements), and Hongkong. At sometime during the nine days between Port Said and Bombay (India), Colombo (Ceylon), as most of the passengers were helping me prepare for, celebrate it and recover, the event was lost sight of somewhere in the scuffle. It must have been a good one, though.

(Continued on Page 3)

Sam. Shoemaker Leaves Enviable Reputation

THE HON. SAMEUL MOOR SHOEMAKER leaves to this world a reputation for human and personal service which is deserving of great praise.

A graduate of Princeton University, and a native of the Green Spring Valley of Baltimore County, he gave his life to the organization of projects of great value to the people of Maryland.

His first outstanding accomplishment was to head the State Roads Commission and start Maryland on its system of good roads building.

Being greatly interested in the heritages of his ancestors, he took an active part in agricultural projects. For many years he served as head of the Maryland State Agricultural Society, and the Maryland State Board of Agriculture. To substantiate his belief in agriculture and its necessary part in the nation's industry, he built and maintained one of the outstanding dairy herds of the country for the production of certified milk.

His interest and ambition educa-

(Continued on Page 2)

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

O. R. Carrington, '28 ..... Advisory Editor
G. F. Pollock, '23 ..... Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 ..... President
173 Manheim St., Philn., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 ..... Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 ..... Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 ..... Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 ..... Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 ..... Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 ..... Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 ..... Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 ..... Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 ..... Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

RESPONSES TO 1933-34 CALL FOR DUES

Bewley, John P., '31, University of Maryland.
DeCaindry, E. C., Landsdowne, Penn.
Dunning, E. C., '23, Chambersburg, Penn.
Furst, W. A., '12, Pittsburgh, Penn.
Hala, Dr. W. W., '05, Long Island City, N. Y.
Hill, Mr. R. W., '27, New York, N. Y.
Hines, Thomas L., '05, New York, N. Y.
Holloway, Edwin, '07, Balitmore, Md.
Jenkins, Miss Felisa, '31, Newark, Del.
McBride, Austin A., '23, Towanda, Penn.
McBride, Mrs. Austin A., '26, Towanda, Penn.
Melroy, M. B., '23, Washington, D. C.
Newcomer, Lionel, E., '26, New York, N. Y.
Northam, A. J., '22, Wilmington, Del.
Phelps, E. C., '01, Laurel, Md.
Trimble, Ernest, '13, Pittsburgh, Penn.
Williar, Harry D., '07, Baltimore, Md.

* * * * *

ALUMNI GROUP FORMED IN THE SMOKY CITY

In the Smoky City (Pittsburgh) there has been organized another group of Alumni members. The group is headed by David Kerr Endslow, '23, a track athlete of note, having been captain of the team in 1923, a quarter-miler, and a mainstay on the relay team. He has been ably assisted by Dr. Bernard A. Goldman, a medical graduate, as vice president; Miror Winner, '27, a graduate of the engineering college, as secretary; and W. M. Kishpaugh, '17.

Several metings have already been held, and November 11 and January 12 have been set as the dates for the winter meetings, at which representatives of the University will be present.

The following were among those present at the previous meetings:

Mrs. Bertha Ezekial Kohner, '22; Mrs. Ruth Reppert Marsh, '23; Mike Heller, '21; Jack Butts, '25; Wm. Kishpaugh, '17; Joseph Macko, '25; W. A. Furst, '12; Eddie Hand, '17; J. C. Norris, '32; Chas. A. Chenney, and Ernest (Sox) Trimble, '13.

Blue Eagle and Green Terrapin

By JOHN P. MUDD

A certain distinguished alumnus whose personal mail runs into hundreds of pieces every day told me that when he receives the Alumni News he always takes the time to read it from cover to cover.

Perhaps your daily mail also runs into volumes and perhaps, in spite of the demands on your time, you share with this alumnus that same personal satisfaction that he gets in reading the news of Old-Line men and women. If you do like to get the Alumni News and wish to show your appreciation there are two ways of showing it in a very tangible way. One way is to occasionally send a contribution of news concerning other alumni and yourself as well. Facts that you may assume are well known may not be known to the officers of the association, or to the editor.

Now the second suggestion about how to show your appreciation does not apply to you if your name has appeared in a recent issue of the Alumni News under the caption, "Response of Membership Dues for 1933-34." Men and women on this list have done their part in sending in their annual contribution of two dollars for their dues.

We see in the windows of many homes and places of business a poster bearing a blue eagle, indicating that the owner of the establishment is doing his part in combating a great business depression. There is no great financial depression in the Alumni Association affairs, but the association really does need the support of every alumnus. If an artist were to design a green terrapin poster to use like the N. R. A. uses the blue eagle, and bearing the caption, "I have paid my alumni dues," many loyal Marylanders would rush to display such an emblem.

There is no such poster, nor is one necessary. Maryland men and women will do their part.

* * * * *

THIRTY YEARS LATER

When Preston L. Peach, '03, was on his way to the Malaya States, he and A. T. Schenck, '03, met for the first time in thirty years, in Portland, Ore.

* * * * *

Alumni Send Sons and Daughters to University

When the final count of the freshman class was made, which totaled something more than 500, it was learned that more and more alumni are sending their sons and daughters to Maryland. It was found that there are more than 75 members of the freshman class who are either sons, daughters, or relatives of former Marylanders.

J. W. P. Somerville, '05, Mine Owner, Succumbs

It is with regret that we announce the death of John Wesley Porter Somerville, '05, a true and loyal alumnus. Born May 6, 1883, at Echart, Md., he was better known by his classmates as "Stubby." He came to College Park in 1901, and graduated in engineering in 1905. His first position was as a road engineer with Prince George's Country, which position he held until 1908, when he became treasurer of the Moscow-George's Creek Coal Co. of Cumberland. In 1913 he was made president of the Midland Coal Co., which position he held until his death.

He was the leader of the Cumberland Group of the Alumni Association, serving as secretary and treasurer since its organization some years ago. His daughter entered the University this year. W. A. S. Somerville, '08, is his brother.

The Alumni Association expresses deep sympathy to his wife and family.

* * * * *

Medical Alumni to Meet At Richmond Convention

From November 14 to 17 one of the oldest medical societies of the country will meet at Richmond, Va. As a part of the three-day program, the evening of the 16th has been set aside for get-together dinners, of the alumni of various universities. Maryland graduates from all branches of the University, residing in Richmond and vicinity, will be invited to attend the gathering. Dr. Kenneth Boyd, of the Medical Alumni, and G. F. Pollock, of the College Park schools, are making arrangements for the reunion.

* * * * *

SAM. SHOEMAKER LEAVES ENVIABLE REPUTATION

(Continued from Page 1)

tionally called for his services to head and direct the Board of Education of his county. His ideas were so well thought of that when the State of Maryland became the guardian of the Maryland Agricultural College in 1916, now the University of Maryland, he was called upon to take the reins and direct its reorganization. He was chairman of the Board of Regents from then until his death and he saw the fruits of his efforts—a great and flourishing University of Maryland.

The alumni of the University deeply regret the loss of Mr. Shoemaker, a loyal and faithful friend, and the "News" takes this occasion to express condolence to his family on behalf of the members of the Alumni Association.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baker, announce the arrival of Thomas Kenneth, born October 4, Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Sarah Etta Huffington, '32, of Riverdale, Md. "Ken" is teaching in the high school at Sudlerville, Md.

Varsity Contests In November of Great Interest To Alumni

Heagy and Woods Coaching Capable Freshman Gridiron Squad.

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

MARYLAND'S NOVEMBER football schedule is the one that the Old Line fans are interested in for more than one reason.

To begin with, two of the last three games of that month will be played at College Park, with one of them being the Homecoming affair, and the other will be with Hopkins in Baltimore.

Here is the card for the month:

Nov. 4—Va. at Charlottesville.
Nov. 11—Duke at College Park.
Nov. 18—Hopkins at Homewood.
Nov. 25—Washington and Lee at College Park (Homecoming).

A lot of Maryland folk should and will drive to Charlottesville on November 4, but the other games, of course, will get more support from the old grads. And Maryland's green team getting better—and it is big enough—with every game should be good for its last five contests, the final of which is with Florida in Tampa on December 2. That is the reason that Hopkins—for one year only—was shifted from Thanksgiving Day to November 18.

* * *

MARYLAND and Virginia appear on a par; Duke will present one of the South's leading elevens; Hopkins should be much improved over 1932; and Washington and Lee and the Old Liners should be pretty nearly on a 50-50 basis for the Homecoming battle, although the Generals had more assets at the outset than the Terps.

Maryland and Virginia stand even with four wins each and two ties over a stretch of years; Duke beat the Old Liners last Fall in their only meeting; Maryland tops Hopkins with 14 victories against 11 defeats and five deadlocks, and the Terps and Washington and Lee have divided eight battles since the began hooking up in 1925. The Generals and Old Liners should furnish an ideal Homecoming attraction, as no finer spirit of rivalry and sportsmanship exist between two teams anywhere.

* * *

WHILE the Old Liners lost two of their first three games, the green team is playing good football and developing gratifyingly.

St. John's was beaten, 20 to 0, in the opener, and then followed reverses at the hands of Virginia Tech, 14 to 0, at Norfolk and Tulane, 20 to 0, at New Orleans. Maryland played Virginia Tech practically even, and with any sort of breaks would have gained a tie. Tulane got all its points in the last 20 minutes, one of the touchdowns coming after an intercepted pass and a run of 50 yards, and another on a 60-yard runback of a punt. It was a case of the best getting in its toll and of too many good Tulane reserves.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Meyers are the proud parents of a son, John Marlow, born September 10, 1933. Mrs. Meyers was formerly Miss Louise Marlow, '28, of College Park, Md. Victor is a graduate of Agriculture in the class of '25.

AL HEAGY, '30

AL WOODS, '33

* * * * *

DOINGS IN CHINA

(Continued from Page 1)

We eventually landed in Shanghai from whence I was shipped out to Tientsin—where I have been stationed since—and went back to work to earn enough to pay for the pleasure trips.

Tientsin is an excellent place and I hope that I'll be stationed there for some time to come. It is rather difficult to describe a city such as Tientsin, which, while being part of China with the attendent customs, et cetera, is controlled in part by other nationalities, has a large foreign population and influence, and the atmosphere of a foreign city. So I'll limit my description of the whole, present a few of the more interesting features, and let you form your own mental picture.

(To be Continued.)

A PAIR of Als, both former Old Line athletic aces, are handling a pack of promising yearling football players at Maryland, and should send a few Terps of high caliber up to the 1934 Varsity.

Al Heagy and Al Woods are the persons referred to and both are doing other bits on the campus besides coaching. Heagy, who also coaches freshman lacrosse and helps with basket-ball, is employed in the Chemistry Department and Woods is working for his master's degree.

Heagy, who got his sheepskin with the class of '30, was one of Maryland's leading three-letter athletes, being a great football end, all-America in lacrosse as a defense player, and one of the best basket-ball guards ever to wear a black and gold suit. Woods, '33, who confined his efforts to the gridiron, was rated the best back in this section last fall.

They had 33 youths toiling when this was written, out of about 50 who originally reported, the others having dropped by the wayside of their own free will.

The first team, with weights and schools from which they came, is as follows:

Robert Lenzen, 186, left end, Baltimore City College; John Birkland, 180, left tackle, Clifton, N. J., High; Wallace Gramlich, 175, left guard, Tech High, Washington, D. C.; Edward Fletcher, 180, center, Tech High, Washington, D. C.; Charles Zulick, 185, right guard, Houtzdale, Pa. High; Edward Quigley, 190, right tackle, Gonzaga School, Washington, D. C.; Daniel Carr, 165, right end, Gonzaga School; Blair Overton, 172, quarterback, Calvert School, Baltimore; Edmond Daly, 185, left halfback, Peddie Institute, N. J.; John Guckeyson, 180, right halfback, Bethesda-Chevy Chase, Md., High; John Gormley, 190, fullback, Tech High, Washington, D. C.

This team aveages 181 pounds to the man, the line and backfield being the same.

There are not many good line prospects outside of those named, but there are quite a few other high-class backs. Among them are J. E. Stonebraker, 150, from Hagerstown High and Choate (Conn.) School; Coleman Headley, 160, a College Park boy who was at Hargrave, Va., Military Academy for a couple of years; Charlie Ellinger, 160, from Baltimore City College, and Herbert Bohnke, 165, and Arthur Wilson, 152, both from Tech High of Washington, D. C.

The baby Terps won their first game, defeating the Virginia yearlings, 14 to 12, despite the fact that Overton and Daly, two of Maryland's leading backs were unable to play because of injuries.

The yearlings have five contests in all, the others being with the Catholic U., V. M. I., Washington and Lee and Georgetown freshmen. The game with the Georgetown frosh will be played at 10:30 the morning of Homecoming Day, November 25.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

R. D. Bonnet, '28, has established his own landscape business in Washington, D. C.

* * *

Harold Bonnet, '25, is now working with the Van Schaack Chemical Co., of Newark, Ohio. He is a World War Veteran. His address is 71 North 2nd Street, Newark, Ohio.

* * *

Edward W. Tippett, '33, our leader of cheers in recent years, is now connected with the Classified Ad. Department of the Washington Post.

* * *

C. W. England, '23, a graduate in dairy husbandry, has returned to the University after completing a several years' course of study at Cornell University, where he received his M. S. in 1931 and his Ph.D. this year. He will take the position in the Dairy Department left vacant by the death of Professor Munkwitz. His subject will be the manufacture of dairy products.

* * *

Walter Bonnet, '32, a graduate in engineering, has taken up the profession of flying. He is with the 52nd student squadron, Kelly Field, Texas. "Son," as he was called on the campus, is a member of K. A. and his home is in Washington, D. C.

* * *

Thomas L. Hines, '05, now of the DuPont Cellophane Company, located in New York, has entered his son, "Tom," Jr., in the University.

* * *

Helen Farrington, '33, a leader in student affairs, has returned to the campus as an instructor in Spanish. Helen also plans to do some graduate work. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

* * *

Lt. John Hough, '25, of the U. S. Marine Corp has been ordered to Cuba to assist in protecting American property and quell the disturbance. "Tony," as many call him, a former star of the barred field, left Norfolk, Virginia shortly after the Maryland-V. P. I. football game there, where he saw his successors taste defeat at the hands of the "Kadets."

* * *

The drone of twenty or more airplanes drew the attention of those wending their way to classes one morning at College Park. It was learned later that as a gesture to his Alma Mater, Lt. Ed Pugh, '25, a former star halfback on the gridiron, who was leading a cross country squadron of Marine planes, had circled and dipped over the campus while enroute from Philadelphia to Quantico, Virginia.

* * *

Joe Caldara, '31, while on a cross county flight, dropped in at the College Park Airport and paid the old campus a visit. Joe, the former leader of cheers, is stationed at Shreveport, Louisiana.

* * *

John G. Krein, '27, is the New England representative for the Faultless Nightwear Co.

* * *

Eames Harrison, '30, is now with the Hutzler Brothers, of Baltimore, as broadcaster for their Radio Cooking School.

* * *

Alice Burdick, '28, is now teaching home economics in the Junior High Schools of Baltimore.

Robert W. Hill, '27, is now with the New York Public Library.

* * *

F. C. Brimer, '18, is a salesman for the Pierce-Arrow Company, of New York, and made a visit for the first time since 1919.

MARRIAGES

Harold Norwood, '33, and Mildred Hobbs, Rockville, Md., were married September 1, at Laurel Md. The newlyweds are living at Beaver Falls, Pa., Where Harold is employed.

* * *

Louise Gall, '31, and Sameul T. Royer, '31, are married and living in Somerset, Pa. The bride is a graduate of the College of Education, and "Sam," of the College of Agriculture.

* * *

Harry W. Wells, '28, and Miss Sarah Williamson of San Antonio, Texas, whom he met while attending the flying school at Kelly Field, Texas, were married at Lima, Peru. They are residing at Huancayo, Peru, where Harry is employed in radio and research work in terrestrial magnetism for the Carnegie Foundation Institute. He is a graduate in engineering, a former captain of the rifle team and a member of Phi Sigma Kappa.

* * *

Amos A. Holter, '30, LLB, '32, now practicing law in Frederick, Md. joined the matrimonial ranks. He married Miss Francis Slifer of Middletown, Md.

* * *

S. Austin Miller, '31, and Miss Mary House of Middletown, Md., were married recently. Austin is now the superintendent of the Baltimore City Hospital Farm in Frederick County.

HOMECOMING -- Saturday, November 25

Maryland Vs. Washington And Lee

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 5, October, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

Vol. IV November, 1933. No. 6

HOMECOMING -- Saturday, November 25

YOUR GATEWAY

Grads To Celebrate Tenth Homecoming

JUST ten years ago this fall the Byrd Stadium was dedicated in honor of H. C. (Curly) Byrd, '08, as a recognition of his accomplishments in building athletics at Maryland. November 25 will be the anniversary of the fall Homecoming of old grads at College Park.

Two Football Games

Football, the feature of the fall gathering, will start the day, and the Homecoming Hop will be the final affair. The yearling gridironers will break the ice at 10 A. M. by engaging the Georgetown University freshmen in Byrd Stadium. Following this a soccer game will be held between the kickers of Western Maryland and the pick of the University's intramuralists. At 2 P. M. in Byrd Stadium the Terrapin eleven will encounter the Generals of Washington and Lee University.

Ritchie Coliseum, the center of ac-

(Continued on Page 2)

Alumni Head Medical Society

When the Southern Maryland Medical Society met at Marlboro, Md. November 1, several graduates of the University's Medical School were elected to office in the organization, Dr. Ernest Spencer, was made vice-president and representative of Charles Co., Dr. A. O. Etienne, vice-president and representative of Prince George Co. and Dr. L. B. Johnson, vice-president and representative of St. Mary's Co.

The latter named attended the College Park Schools before entering the Medical School and was manager of the first baseball team to make history at Maryland. This was in 1887. The outstanding accomplishment of the season was the defeat of St. John's College of Annapolis in the morning and Navy in the afternoon. Dr. Johnson resides in Morganza, Md.

* * * * *

Sara Carrie Davis, '31, a graduate of the College of Home Economics, is dietitian at the Pottsville Hospital, Pottsville, Pa.

Generals Strong Foe For Old Line Eleven

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

ALUMNI who come back for the big doings on November 25 should see one of the best football games of their lives when Washington and Lee, one of the South's best this year, meets Maryland's youthful aggregation that has been coming fast all season and should "arrive" by Homecoming Day.

It is divulging no secret either, to tell that the Old Liners are being primed in an attempt to "take" the Generals in a contest that will be the "rubber" of the series.

* * *

MARYLAND and Washington and Lee have been battling since 1924 and the score stands 4-all, with all of the games having been red-hot battles with the exception of 1930 when the Old Liners romped to victory.

The Generals won the first four games and the Old Liners evened mat-

(Continued on Page 3)

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES.... $2.00

BRIDGING THE GAP

A main purpose of the Alumni Association is to help alumni bridge the gap between themselves and the friends of their University days. The Alumni News is read each month by many who are aided by its columns to keep in touch with college friends and what is going on at the University.

Below are some of those who have contributed to the cause from which you are benefiting. Are you going to let them carry the burden or, are you doing your part?

Rodgers, Mrs. S. Proctor, '24, Baltimore.
Sherman, Franklin, '97, Clemson College, South Carolina.
Upshall, Dr. W. P., '29, Vineland Station, Ontario.
Radebaugh, A. D., '14, River Forest, Ill.
Mankin, J. Lavinia, '27, Washington, D. C.
Hockman, Geo. B., '20, Hagerstown, Md.
Jarvis, Harry A., '30, Buenos Aires, Arg.
Brown, Chauncey, '22, Washington, D. C.
Tobias, Dr. H. R., '22, Washington, D. C.
Eyre, R. S., '18, Newark, N. J.
De Boy, Dora F., '31, Solomons, Md.
Scott, Joseph G., '22, Landsdowne, Pa.
Arnold, Dr. J. S., '96, Washington, D. C.
Trimble, Wm. R., '27, Charles Town, W. Va.
Moreau, Mrs. Dale Simmonds, '24, Flemington, N. J.
Twilley, Otis S., Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * * *

Stock Judging Team Wins

Another victory for the University of Maryland was written upon the pages of history when the stock judging team won first honors at the Eastern States Fair, held at Springfield, Mass., this fall. It was the second successive win for the team in the past two years. Albert Nicholson, high man in the contest, Charles Clark, second, and William Chilcoat, fifth, comprised the team. H. B. Derrick, '17, played an important part in their early training. Prof. Ingham, of the Dairy Department, and Mr. Barker, of the Extension Service, were the coaches.

GRADS TO CELEBRATE TENTH HOMECOMING

(Continued from Page 1)

tivities, will be open at 9 A. M., at which time registration for men will begin. The women graduates and wives of alumni, however, will register in the office of Miss Stamp, the Dean of Women, which is located in the Old Library Building. Special entertainment is being arranged, with the girls not to be outdone, as they will also have an athletic program in the morning.

The Junior-Senior hockey play-off will be the feature game. Also, the College of Home Economics is arranging special entertainment for returning co-eds and wives of alumni. Grads in home economics in '32, are having a special reunion luncheon in the Practice House. A general luncheon for all co-ed grads and wives of alumni will be held in the dining hall at 12.30 at a nominal cost to each.

"M" Club Meeting

In the Ritchie Coliseum the "M" Club members will gather at 12 o'clock noon for their annual luncheon, cafeteria style, and the annual meeting. The election of officers, and the presentation of membership certificates to former athletes who have not received them, will be part of the program. A few other matters of importance will be discussed. Every member of the club is urged to be present.

An Alumni Dinner has been arranged for those who will make reservation before noon of that day. It will be in the University Dining Hall at 6 P: M., at a cost of seventy-five cents per plate. Wives, sweethearts, husbands, and friends are invited to attend. No program of speeches—just an informal, social dinner.

Homecoming Dance

What will be probably the most elaborate Homecoming Dance ever held in the University Gym will begin at 9 P. M. A student committee, composed of seniors, are assisting in making arrangements. Noise makers, favors, and what-not are a part of this colorful occasion.

* * * * *

HOMECOMING PROGRAM

Saturday, November 25, 1933

9:30 A. M.—Registration, men at the Ritchie Coliseum; women at Dean Stamp's office, Old Library. Football tickets on sale at Coliseum.

10 A. M.—Freshman football game with Georgetown University Frosh, Byrd Stadium.

10:30 A. M.—Girls soccer game, Juniors vs Seniors. Girls' Gym Field.

12 Noon—Alumni luncheon, followed by annual "M" Club meeting. Ritchie Coliseum.

12:30 P. M.—Special luncheon for women graduates, friends and wives of alumni, University Dining Hall. Home Economic class of '32, luncheon, Practice House.

Intramural soccer game with Western Maryland College, Parade Grounds.

2 P. M.—Homecoming football game. Washington and Lee vs Maryland. Byrd Stadium. Tickets $2.00 ($1.50 to alumni if bought prior to noon, Homecoming Day).

6 P. M.—Dinner for alumni. Wives, husbands, sweethearts and friends invited. University Dining Hall. 75c. per plate.

9 P. M.—Homecoming Dance. University Gymnasium. $2.00 per couple.

The Slide Rule Group

It would be impossible to cover the field of successful alumni in the College of Engineering or any other college, but from time to time the News will carry short accounts of a few. The items will make reference to their activites when students and as alumni, as far as known.

John P. Collier, '03

With respect to seniority, we take John P. Collier, '03. In 1900 he came to College Park from Ellicott City. His ability and rapidity in learning made him an "A" student and he was a wizard in math. He also participated in the Glee Club as director. He clung to his profession as an engineer and today is manager of the Cincinnati branch of the American Radiator Co. His face is a familiar one when the clans of bygone years rally annually at College Park on Alumni Day.

Harry D. Watts, '04, has followed the engineering profession ever since graduation. Today he is vice-president of the James Stewart & Co., Inc., nationally known builders. As a student he was a leader in military, athletics, and socially. He was cadet-major of the battalion and known by the fairer sex as "Major Harry." On the gridiron he was captain and fullback on the team of 1903. From the gridiron he stepped to the tennis court, where he was the school champion.

W. A. Furst, '12, a graduate in Electrical Engineering, and an ardent student of the profession, today is manager of the Engineering Division of the Westinghouse Electric, in Pittsburgh, Pa. "Fuzzy," as his classmates would say, got his early training as a director of men on the gridiron, when he was quarterback on the team of 1911.

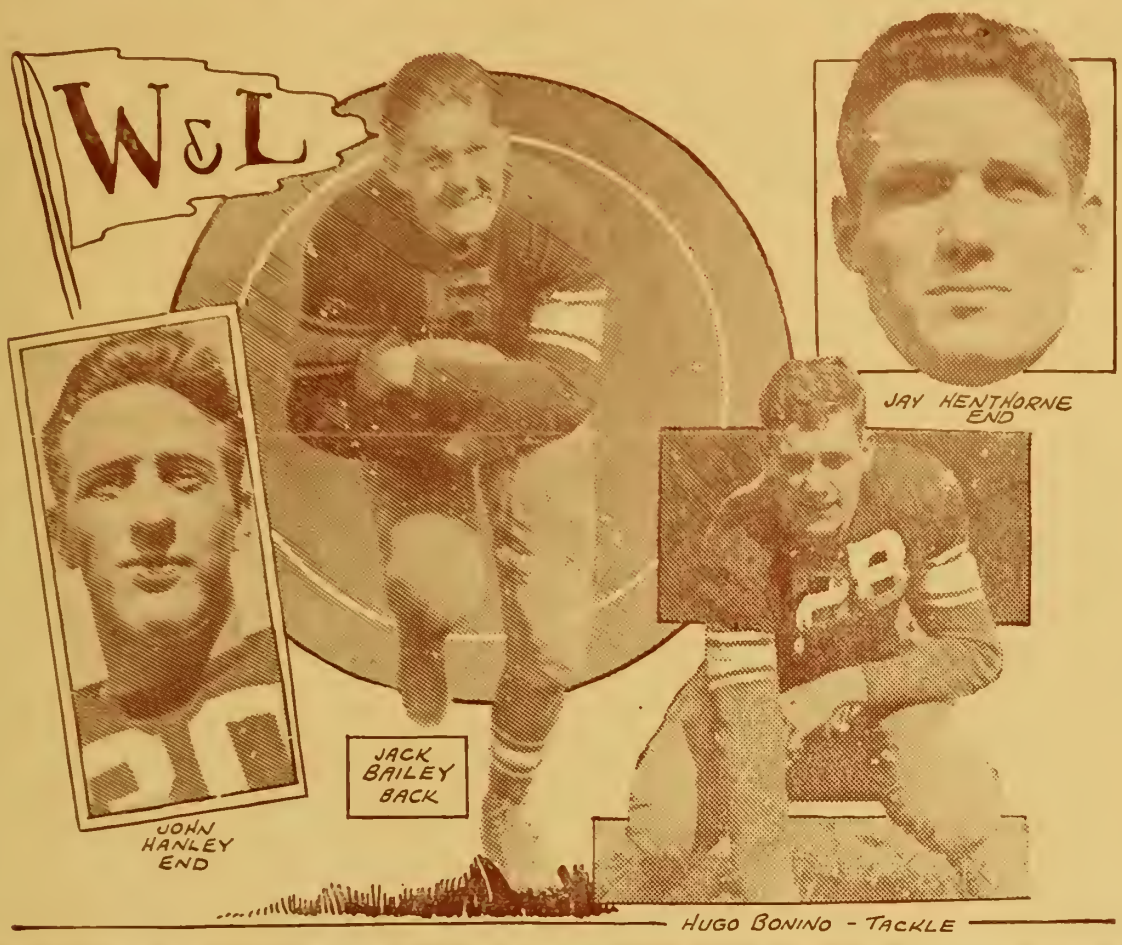
Jere H. Sullivan, '21, one of the more recent grads in engineering, has ascended the ladder rapidly. Today he is a manager of the George A. Fuller Construction Co., and is located in Toronto, Canada. "Jerry" has managed many a big job for his company, from Florida to Canada. His recreation when a student, as it would naturally be for Sullivan, was football. His ability as a guard will be long remembered.

* * * * *

Alumni Attend Tulane Game

Maryland was not without rooters at the Tulane game. In the stands was a former football star and captain of the 1923 football team, Thomas Jackson (Jack) McQuade. With him was Pete Schrider, port side hurler for the College Park diamonders in 1923-4-5. Both Jack and Pete are now pilots in the U. S. Marine Flying Corp and they came to the game by plane from Pennsacola, Fla. H. W. Fristoe, '17, now county agent in Louisiana, and his wife were on hand for the game, and Bozey Berger, Maryland's contribution to the major leagues baseballers, held the side line stakes. Bozey has been playing with the New Orleans Pelicans this summer.

Some Generals Who Will Play Against Terps Nov. 25.



Two Big Basket Tilts Carded for December

WITH games with the University of Michigan and Indiana on December 18 and 30, respectively, staring him in the face and 17 more after the holidays to think about, Coach Burton Shipley of the Varsity basketball team has practice going in full force with all talent that can be called upon at this time sharing in the toil.

Spencer Chase, George Weber and Warren Evans, letter men, and Roy Yowell of last year's squad, along with Fred Sheely, Alton Rabbitt and Malcolm Johns of last season's freshmen, make up the aggregation at present.

Rufus Vincent, high scorer in the Southern Conference last fall; Buckey Buscher and Bob Snyder, all 1932-33 regulars and letter winners, and Bernie Buscher, the best yearling player last season, are with the Varsity football squad and will not be able to get out until after the Florida eleven is met in Tampa on December 2.

* * * * *

Robert M. Maxwell, '32, captain of the Burton Shipley's diamonders visited the campus, at which time it was learned that he is now working for the Goodrich Rubber Company in Washington, D. C. "Bob" was a leader in student affairs and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Generals Strong Foe for Old Line Eleven

(Continued from Page 1)

ters by taking the last four, so Washington and Lee feels that it is time to call a halt.

Maryland, although its 1933 record is not up to snuff in games won and lost, has played good and interesting football all year, and should be just about right for the November 25 encounter.

On the other hand, Washington and Lee is having one of the best seasons in its history and the stage is set to give the Old Grads something worthwhile to watch, win or lose.

* * *

SEVEN sophomores have been in Maryland's regular line-up in practically every game the Old Liners have played this season and they now have gained the needed experience to oppose a powerful team like the Generals. And, while Washington and Lee doubtless will go into the contest a favorite, a triumph for the Terps is not beyond reach. At any rate, it is certain to be a real grid battle.

Record of Past Games

1921—Maryland, 7; Washington and Lee, 19.
1925—Maryland, 3; Washington and Lee, 7.
1926—Maryland, 0; Washington and Lee, 3.
1927—Maryland, 6; Washington and Lee, 13.
1928—Maryland, 6; Washington and Lee, 6.
1930—Maryland, 11; Washington and Lee, 7.
1931—Maryland, 13; Washington and Lee, 7.
1932—Maryland, 6; Washington and Lee, 0.

Boxers Getting Ready For a Hard Campaign

COACH John (Jazz) Harmony of the Varsity boxing squad has all his available talent toiling for a nine match schedule that will open with Virginia Military Institute at Ledington, Va., on January 13.

Harry Carroll, featherweight; Harold Burns, welter; Lyman McAboy, 160 pounds, and Stewart McCaw, lightheavy, form the nucleus of the team. All won their letters last season and Burns was undefeated. He fought in the lightweight class, but has stepped up a notch for the coming campaign.

Graduations and failures to return cost Harmony quite a bit of his best material, but the outlook is for a fairly capable team.

* * * * *

PERSONALS

W. W. Hala, M. D., '05, and former captain of the football and basketball teams of the Baltimore Branch of the University in 1903 visits the campus this fall to see his daughter who is a junior in the College of Arts and Science. Dr. Hala has his practice in Long Island City, New York.

* * *

Frank Hines, '32, former footballer, has located with the DuPont Cellophane Company of New York.

Alumni Come Home

The referee's whistle and the plunk of the pigskin, with the crowd whispering "The Kick Off," is tempting to all college men. Also, the meeting with old friends adds just that thing to a Homecoming which makes you feel that you just can't miss the day.

Big preparations are being made by the Alumni Committee at College Park to make this the greatest day of them all. A full day's program has been arranged, as you will see elsewhere in the paper.

I personally urge every alumnus, if he possibly can, to lay aside his cares, and give the day to his friends. Your presence adds much to the enjoyment of others.

Hope to see you Saturday,

Sincerely yours,

J. P. MUDD,

President, Alumni Association.

* * * * *

BIRTHS

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Brown, announce the arrival of a fine son, Henry Cloyde, born June 6, 1933. Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Helen Slaybaugh. Dr. Brown is a member of the class of '23, and is now practicing medicine in Washington, D. C. They reside at the West Chester Apartments.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baker, are the proud parents of a son born November 4, at Sudlersville, Md. His christened name is Thomas Kenneth. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Sara Huffington, '32. Kenneth, '31, has recently been appointed the County Agent for Queen Annes County, Eastern Shore, Md.

* * * * *

Isabel Buick, a graduate of the College of Home Economics, visits the campus. Isabel is teaching home economics in the high school at Old Town, Md.

Frosh Football Eleven To Help Entertain Grads

Maryland's freshman football team, that contains some high-class Varsity hopefuls, has broken even in two games, defeating the Virginia yearlings, 14 to 12, and losing to the Catholic University cubs, 6 to 0.

The young Terps will show before the alumni on November 25, playing a capable Georgetown freshman team at 10:00 in the morning.

In the meantime the yearlings will travel to Lexington, Va. twice to play the V. M. I. and Washington and Lee frosh in that order.

* * * * *

New Buildings

The University's new building program is going ahead. The two-million dollar hospital has been started and plans for the Girls' Dormitory and Arts and Science buildings have been approved. The former is being erected in Baltimore and the other two at College Park.

DOINGS IN CHINA

By ED. TENNEY, '28

CONCESSIONS IN TIENTSIN

Separate parts of the place are for British, French, Japanese and Italian Concessions, which are controlled by Nationals of those countries. It has other parts which were formerly controlled by the Germans and the Russians, but which have since been returned to the Chinese. And then there is the part which is, and has always been the Chinese native city. Sounds like an impossible conglomeration, but there is rather close cooperation between the governing bodies of the separate municipalities and except for a few trivial things it is exactly as if it were governed by a single administration. Most of the larger foreign firms are located in the British Concession and it constitutes the central part of the town as we foreigners know it, but as is to be expected, a large portion of the Japanese and French firms and residents locate in their respective concessions. Our office is in the French Concession, I live in the ex-German Concession (on Woodrow Wilson St., which was formerly Kaiser Wilhelm Strasse) and go through the British Concession on the way to the office.

(To be Continued.)

Annual "M" Club Meeting

FELLOW "M" MEN:

Ten years ago this fall the Byrd Stadium was dedicated, and for the first time the annual Homecoming Day was held. This fall we are celebrating the anniversary of this monument in athletic history at Maryland.

A most interesting program has been arranged to attract the return of all former students. Plenty of football, soccer and dancing.

Naturally, everyone is interested in the football game, but I want to particularly urge all "M" Club members to attend the luncheon and meeting at 12 o'clock in the Ritchie Coliseum. We will not delay you long, but your presence there means much to the future progress of the Club.

Looking forward to seeing you, I am,

Cordially yours,

JAMES M. BURNS,

President, "M" Club

* * * * *

John Bowie, '25, is located in New York with the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey. He has spent three years in Alaska and was transferred from Seattle, Wash. to New York.

HOMECOMING DANCE, RITCHIE GYMNASIUM

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland

College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 6, November, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes, U
Librarian,
Campus.

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

VOL. IV DECEMBER, 1933 No. 7

SNAPSHOTS FROM HOMECOMING

(1) J. Enos Ray, '92; (2) Wellstood White, '05 and Dr. W. W. Skinner, '95; (3) Dr. A. W. Valentine, '04; (4) Girl cheer leaders, Misses Charlotte Hood, Helen Wollman, Jone Barnesley; (5) Minion making diving; (6) Dr. Leo Brown, '23; (7) Tom Downing, '20, Paul Frank, '23; (8) F. G. Livingston; (9) Gerald Swan, '24; (10) Chief Justice Wheat, Miss Grace Kanode, and Melvin C. Hazen, '88; (11) John P. Mudd, '07; (12) Widmyer gaining groond; (13) Ed Pugh, '25, Joe Burger, '25, Flying Marines; (14) W. T. S. Rollins, '96, Clifton E. Fuller, '96; (15) President and Mrs. Gaines of Washington and Lee, Misses Elizabeth Ijams, '34, and Sarah Louise Short, '34. Center Picture part of those "M" men who attended their annual meeting of the "M" Club.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 — Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 — Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 — President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 — Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 — Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

(Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.)

C. WALTER COLE, '21 — Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 — Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 — Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 — Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 — Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 — Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 — Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES — $2.00

PAID MEMBERS INCREASING

The following are helping to swell the roll of paid members in the Alumni Association for 1933-1934:

Barrows, P. R., '11, Milwaukee, Wis.
Maslin, Wm. R., '09, Port Chester, N. Y.
Clark, A. H., '27, Charleston, W. Va.
Kieffer, J. D., '30, New York, N. Y.
Thompson, Ed. S., '26, Schenectady, N. Y.
White, Albert, '14, Ridgely, Md.

* * * * *

Melvin C. Hazen, '88, Made District Commissioner

Melvin Colvin Hazen, '88, first president of the Alumni Association and for over thirty years a member of the government of the District of Columbia, has been appointed Commissioner of the District, and elected chairman of that board.

Hazen began his activities at College Park in 1885, graduating in engineering in 1888. During his student days he was a star on the diamond, playing the hot corner, and in '88 captained the baseball team which defeated two major opponents in one day—St. John's College and the U. S. Naval Academy. A photograph of the team hangs in the trophy room of the Ritchie Coliseum at College Park.

Hazen is a great lover of horses, and organized the first Washington Horse Show Association, which he led for many years, and in recognition of his great achievements, made him honorary president.

Following graduation he began as a school teacher in Virginia, but soon entered the engineering field with the District of Columbia. He rose to the position of surveyor of the District, which position he held prior to his appointment.

To Mr. Hazen go the best wishes of the Alumni Association for a most successful term of office.

Homecoming Activities Interesting To Alumni

When the final note was sounded November 25, it closed one of the most brilliant Homecomings Maryland has ever enjoyed. A day which was full of interesting activities for the returning grads, both men and women.

The outstanding achievement of the day was the come-back of the heretofore losing football team to triumph in an impressive fashion over Washington and Lee University. It was the rubber game in a series between the two universities, and at one time Maryland trailed by a score of 13 to 0. Then, with a faultless attack mixed with brilliant plays, the Generals were overtaken and the Terrapins were never to be headed thereafter.

The spirit of the student body delighted the hearts of the old grads who joined in the cheering, which no doubt helped the team muster the needed punch to win. A new feature of the cheering this year was the girls' cheering section, led by three energetic girl cheer leaders. Pictures of them are shown on the first page.

It was the yearling footballers who broke the ice of the day's program by engaging the Georgetown frosh in Byrd Stadium, but unfortunately they lost. Also, at the same hour, the co-eds were having their athletic program, in which the senior team was giving the juniors a lacing in hockey. Following the hockey game the College of Home Economics entertained the returning women grads and wives of alumni until lunch was served for all in the Practice House.

A new attraction was added this year by the intramural soccerites, who engaged the Western Maryland College team, winning by the score of 2 to 0.

"M" Club Meeting

At twelve, noon, hunger called the alumni to the Coliseum for their lunch, which was served cafeteria style. Immediately following the luncheon the "M" Club held its annual meeting and elected officers for the ensuing year. Maj. L. McD. Silvester, '11, succeeded his classmate, James M. Burns, as president of the club. New members elected to the Board of Governors were: Whitney Aitcheson, Frank Iseman, Omar Crothers, and Harold Remsberg. Dr. E. B. Friedenwald and Dr. A. W. Valentine were elected to represent the former athletes of the Baltimore schools.

The annual Homecoming Dance was held in the University Gymnasium and was well attended. It ended a perfect day in a blaze of social splendor.

Prominent among the returning grads was Melvin C. Hazen, '88, recently appointed Commissioner of the District of Columbia, and chairman of the board. With him was Chief Justice Wheat of the District Supreme Court.

John P. Mudd, '07, president, and J. Enos Ray, '92, vice-president of the Alumni Association, were on hand for the reunion.

The following is a list of some of those who registered their presence at Homecoming:

1894, Charles W. Cairne; 1896, W. T. S. Rollins, Clifton E. Fuller; 1900, W. D. Groff; 1902, T. B. Symons, F. H. Peters; 1903, E. P. Walls; 1904, E. B. Friedenwald, Med., A. W. Valentine, Med., S. B. Shaw; 1905, A. A. Parker, Wellstood White, Robert L. Mitchell; 1907, J. P. Mudd; 1908, Charles W. Sylvester, U. W. Long, W. C. Legore; 1909, Wm. R. Maslin, E. N. Cory, W. Allen Griffith; 1910, H. M. Walters, T. D. Webb, D. D. S.

1911, L. McD. Silvester, J. M. Burns, J. W. Bauer; 1912, W. B. Kemp; 1913, Henry P. Ames; 1914, F. S. Hoffecker, H. B. Shipley; 1915, Louis Diener, Med., Michael Levin; 1916, Stanley Day, E. R. Hindman, L. E. Bopst; 1917, H. B. Derrick, H. R. Shoemaker; 1918, Fred B. Rakerman, J. Homer Remsberg, Geary Epply; 1919, Paul E. Crum, R. Lee Sellman, W. W. Hicks.

1921, L. M. Goodwin, Austin C. Diggs, John H. Eisman, W. C. Cole; 1922, J. V. Lemmert 1923, C. E. White, A. N. Nisbet, R. M. Watkins, L. G. Mathias; 1924, Herbert R. Tobias, L. F. Shott, C. G. Branner; 1925, J. C. Burger, Ed. Pugh, C. R. Sanders; 1926, Jack Faber; 1928, W. A. Dynes, D. H. Adams, J. D. Gadd; 1929, R. Duncan Clark, Gelston McNeil; 1930, W. G. Myers, Al Heagy.

1931, Wm. E. Roberts, G. A. Biggs, John Pitzer; 1932, Carl J. Ackerman, Robert C. Reed, J. H. House, E. L. Kindleberger, W. T. Fisher, H. O. Eby, Louis Berger; 1933, Esther Hughes, Arnold Maxwell, C. F. Warner, W. H. Biggs, J. P. Hueback, Frank Iseman.

Mr. C. C. Gelder, Member of Board of Regents, Succumbs

Mr. C. C. Gelder, member of the Board of Regents, died November 20, following a long illness. Mr. Gelder was a native of Eastern Shore, and lived at Princess Anne, Md. He was one of the leading farmers of that section and had been a member of the Board since 1920. Mr. Gelder leaves an enviable reputation of public service to the people at Eastern Shore. Interment was made in Princess Anne Cemetery, of Somerset County. The Alumni News takes this occasion to express the condolence of the Alumni Association to Mrs. Gelder and family.

* * * * *

Home Economics, '33, Hold Reunion Luncheon

Home economics graduates of 1933 had their first reunion luncheon on Homecoming Day in the Practice House. Each alumnæ present told her experiences since graduation. The following were those present: Helen Lines, Margaret White, Ethel Lamond, '32, Rosalie Reed, Wilma Coleman, Evelyn Miller, Esther Hughes, Eloyse Sargent, '32, Bernice Cash, Francis Welsch, Ruth Nelson, Selena Reynolds and Clara Shepherd.

* * * * *

Engineering Faculty

Prof. Russell B. Allen, a graduate of Yale in civil engineering in 1923, has been appointed on the instruction staff of the College of Engineering, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Prof. Ray H. Skelton.

Grid Team Displays Satisfying Advance

While the Maryland football team won only three of its ten games during the season that ended with the game with Florida on December 2, those in charge of the Old Liners were pretty well satisfied with the results.

It was realized at the outset, following the loss of Norwood Sothoron because of an operation, that backs were lacking to an extent that a strong secondary defense could not be expected and that a line must be built looking more to 1934 than to 1933. And it was the secondary defense that proved the greatest handicap, several close games being lost on this account. And the line, as expected, did not develop until late in the season. In the last two tilts it outplayed Washington and Lee's vaunted line in the 33-13 homecoming victory, and held its own with Florida's great forward wall.

The team will get the needed backs from the 1933 freshman squad and in addition Sothoron also will be available next season.

Bucky Buscher and Willis Penner, regular backs, and four reserves who played very little, Don Hay and John Mayhew, ends; Rufus Vincent, tackle, and Bob Snyder, back, will be the only players in the squad of 30 who will be lost by graduation.

Of course, the old bugaboo of scholastic failures and failures to return may hit the team as it did this fall, but the scholastic average of the members of the squad is unusually high and most of them should be able to meet the Southern Conference requirements that call for the passage of at least 12 hours each semester.

* * * * *

Old Liners Given Places On All-Star Grid Teams

Earl Widmyer, halfback; Louis Ennis, end, and John Simpson, guard, were picked on every all-State football team selected by the various Baltimore papers. Widmyer was also placed on an all-District of Columbia team to be the only Old Liner honored.

Tom Webb, center, and Ed Minion and Charles Callahan, tackles, were others picked on some all-Maryland teams, Webb being on most of them. He also was placed on the second all-District eleven.

BASKET-BALL SQUAD

From 1932-33 Squad

*S. Chase, f	6-2	149	Business, D. C.
*R. Snyder, f	5-11	160	Hagerstown, Md.
*R. Vincent, c	6-2	175	Hyattsville, Md.
*A. Buscher, g	6	170	Western, D. C.
*G. Weber, g	6-1	175	Tech, D. C.
R. Yowell, f	6-1	160	Western, D. C.

*Lettermen.

From 1933 Freshman team

A. Rabbitt, f	5-10	150	Western, D. C.
V. Willis, c	6-3½	175	Newark, Dela.
B. Buscher, g	6	173	Western, D. C.

HEADS "M" CLUB

MAJOR L. MCD. SILVESTER

FELLOW "M" MEN:

I wish to thank you, my fellow alumni, for the honor and confidence you have placed in me by electing me to the presidency of the "M" Club. It is my sincere desire to meet your expectations. With your help we can and will meet our objective in increasing our membership and aiding the University authorities in every way.

We had a great time Homecoming Day, and those of you who were unable to be present missed seeing a wonderful football team in action. You missed greeting old friends you have not seen for years and receiving the real handshakes of friendship. Our Homecoming Dance was a most enjoyable affair. The "M" Club is indebted to the University authorities for such splendid cooperation in making Homecoming Day the outstanding event that it was.

There are over five hundred members of the alumni eligible for membership in the "M" Club, and today approximately only twenty per cent of this number are active members. It makes no difference whether you are a graduate of the Baltimore schools or of those at College Park, if you have received your letter in any of the recognized sports of the University, either before or after consolidation, you are eligible for membership. The dues amount to only one dollar ($1.00) a year.

All members of the club who have not as yet received their certificates will receive them upon payment of dues In order to increase our membership, it is requested that every eligible member forward a check for one dollar, today, to Dr. Ernest Cory, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland.

LINDSAY MCD. SILVESTER.

Outlook Is Bright For Varsity Quint

Maryland's basket-ball team, which won its last seven games last season to finish with a record of 11 wins and 8 losses, after getting off to a bad start, should do better this year.

Coach Burton Shipley has all his last season's regulars—Spencer Chase and Bob Snyder, forwards; Rufus Vincent, center; Bucky Buscher and George Weber, guards—and four other capable performers, Bernie Buscher, guard; Vic Willis, center, and Alton Rabbitt, guard from last year's frosh, and Roy Yowell, forward or guard, who served as a reserve about half of last season.

Bernie Buscher, who is a brother of Buckey, has replaced Weber at one of the guard jobs for the only change Shipley has made over the team that did most of the battling during the last campaign.

* * * * *

Only 3 Letter Men On The Ring Squad

Losing five of his regular boxers, one by graduation, one by flunking and three by withdrawing, (of the latter two withdrew from school and one from the "mit pastime"), Coach Jack Harmony of the Varsity ring team has a big job on his hands to turn out a winner.

Harry Carroll, 125-pounder; Lyman McAboy, who fights in the 155 pound class, and Stewart McCaw, light-heavy, are the three letter men who form the nucleus of Harmony's combination.

One of the hardest blows was the decision of Harold Burns, who is in school, not to box this season. He won all his bouts in the lightweight class during the last campaign.

Harmony will get capable additions to his team at the end of the semester when four men, who are now ineligible, qualify for competition.

* * * * *

Freshmen Squad Capable

With a dozen candidates, a number of them being of highly promising material, Coach Jack Faber has a fine outlook for a winning freshman basket-ball team. His charges will play 15 games. Nine of the twelve aspirants for the team are Maryland boys.

FOOTBALL RECORD

September 30—Maryland, 20; St. John's, 0.
October 7—Maryland, 0; Virginia Tech, 14. (At Norfolk).
October 14—Maryland, 0, Tulane, 20. (At New Orleans).
October 21—Maryland, 13, V. M. I., 19. (At Lexington).
October 28—Maryland, 7, Western Maryland, 13. (Baltimore Stadium).
November 4—Maryland, 0; Virginia, 6. (At Charlottesville).
November 11—Maryland, 7; Duke, 38.
November 18—Maryland, 27, Johns Hopkins, 7. (Homewood, Baltimore).
November 25—Maryland, 33, Washington and Lee, 13.
December 2—Maryland, 0; Florida, 19. (At Tampa).

"M" CLUB MAKES CONTRIBUTION

Shortly after the annual meeting of the "M" Club, the newly elected president, Major L. M. Silvester, entertained as his guests the Board of Governors at the Army, Navy, and Marine Country Club. A full board was present.

The most important business transacted was the decision of the board to make a gift of $500 to the athletic board of the University, for the purpose of adding a much-needed board track to its physical equipment. Heretofore, the indoor track team had to train on a cinder track and then compete on the boards, which was a handicap.

Several other matters of importance were discussed.

* * * * *

BASKET-BALL CARD

January 11—Duke.
January 12—Washington and Lee at Lexington.
January 13—V. M. I. at Lexington.
January 24—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.
January 26—Virginia at Charlottesville.
January 30—North Carolina.
February 2—Catholic University.
February 3—Navy at Annapolis.
February 6—Virginia.
February 9—Richmond.
February 10—Western Maryland.
February 13—V. M. I.
February 15—St. Johns.
February 17—Washington College.
February 21—Johns Hopkins.
February 23—Washington and Lee.

* * * * *

Employment

Professor S. S. Steinberg, head of the Department of Civil Engineering, has been appointed State Representative in Maryland for the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey. He will be in administrative charge of local control surveys to be conducted in all sections of the State and will employ up to 420 Maryland engineers and assistants.

All Maryland engineers not now employed should make application by mail to Professor Steinberg at College Park.

DR. N. P. BARNES, '93, SUCCUMBS

Dr. Noble P. Barnes, '93, a graduate of the School of Medicine, was taken ill at the last meeting of the Medical Alumni of Washington, D. C., of which he was president, and succumbed a week later, Nov. 27.

Dr. Barnes was a prominent physician of Washington, and left a reputation as honorable as any citizen could wish for. He was an active alumni leader for many years and will be greatly missed by his associates.

On behalf of the Alumni Association, the News takes this occasion to express sincere condolence to Mrs. Barnes and family.

* * * * *

50 YEARS LATER

RIGGS BRADDOCK

* * * * *

BOXING ROSTER

Name	Wt.	Class	From
Joe Harris	115	Senior	Washington
Daniel Stoner	115	Junior	Westminster
*Harry Carroll	125	Senior	Cambridge
William Waller	125	Soph	Silver Spring
Robert Graves	125	Junior	Kensington
R. Babcock	135	Soph	Washington
Walter Webb	135	Soph	Vienna
John Evans	145	Soph	Washington
Logan Weber	145	Soph	Oakland
*L. McAboy	155	Junior	Washington
John Bourke	155	Junior	Washington
C. Cronin	155	Junior	Joppa
Frank Hawkins	165	Soph	Hyattsville
*Stewart McCaw	175	Junior	Rochester, NY.
Carl Stalfort	193	Soph	Baltimore
———	Heavy

*Letter men.

DR. BOMBERGER,'94, HEADS BANK

Dr. Frank B. Bomberger, '94, an eminent alumnus and for thirty-five years a member of the University's faculty, has been appointed president of the Baltimore bank for cooperatives of the Federal Farm Credit Administration. He was previously connected with the Federal Farm Board as assistant chief of the Division of Cooperative Marketing.

Before going with the Federal Farm Board in 1931, he was assistant director of the University's Extension Service. In addition to his faculty duties he was a pioneer in the early development of athletics at Maryland, and today is a member of the University's Athletic Board. His residence is in College Park.

* * * * *

¶ John T. Braddock, of Washington State, and T. Elgie Riggs, of Montgomery County, Maryland, both members of the class of 1882, met this past fall for the first time in fifty years. Braddock was on a visit East and looked up his classmate, and they visited the University together. It was Braddock's first visit to the campus since graduation, but Riggs had visited more often, as he has been living nearer the University.

Naturally, the most interesting part of their visit was the location of the old Barracks, and reminiscing about their college days.

BOXING SCHEDULE

December 18—University of Richmond.
January 13—V. M. I. at Lexington.
January 20—Western Maryland.
January 27—Army at West Point.
February 2—Duke.
February 9—Rutgers.
February 17—Washington and Lee.
February 23—Southern Conference Tourney.
March 3—Penn State at State College.
March 10—Rutgers at New Brunswick.

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 7, December, 1933.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

VOL. IV JANUARY, 1934 NO. 8

HORTICULTURE BUILDING

The new Horticulture Building which is devoted entirely to teaching and research work in horticulture. In addition to land near the University, the department has acquired a 270 acre tract about three miles from the campus which is being used for experimental and teaching purposes. Excellent opportunities for investigating new problems is afforded the advance undergraduate and graduate students.

The department is divided into four major lines of work, pomology, olericulture, floriculture and landscape gardening.

Mid-Winter Reunion for Alumni and "M" Men Wednesday, February 21, 1934, at College Park

New Regents Appointed Shriver Made Chairman

FOR the first time in the history of the University a woman becomes a member of the Board of Regents in the appointment of Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, of Baltimore, by Gov. Albert C. Ritchie to serve on the Board. Mrs. Whitehurst is a former president of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs.

Maj. General Clinton L. Riggs of

(Continued on Page 2)

Alumni Meet In Richmond

An alumni meeting was held in Richmond, Va., November 16, during the time the Southern Medical Society was holding its annual convention. All branches of the University were represented with forty members present from various sections of the South. Dr. W. H. Toulson, president of the Medical Alumni, presided, and Dr. Theodore Kohn of Richmond, was in charge of affairs. Many interesting informal talks were made by each one present. The spirit of old Maryland was well pronounced.

(Continued on Page 4)

A MID-WINTER REUNION of Alumni and "M" Club members has been arranged for Wednesday, February 21, 1934 at College Park. A dinner in the University dining hall will begin at 6:30 P. M., with one short speech but an abundance of good entertainment on the program. Football letters will be awarded to members of the varsity squad for the season 1933, by one of Maryland's oldest outstanding athletes and alumnus, Melvin C. Hazen, '88, Commissioner of the District of Columbia. Immediately following the dinner the

(Continued on Page 4)

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 ..... Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 ..... Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 ..... President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 ..... Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 ..... Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 ..... Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 ..... Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 ..... Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 ..... Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 ..... Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 ..... Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 ..... Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES $2.00

Alumni In Pittsburgh Have Organized Group

By concerted efforts a very enthusiastic group of alumni located in Pittsburgh and vicinity has been organized. David Kerr Endslow, '26, is president, Dr. Bernard A. Goldman, '22, Med., vice-president, and Clay Wenner, '27, secretary-treasurer. David Kishpaugh, '16, took a very active part in the organization. He displayed real Maryland interest and loyalty, the same as he did on the gridiron back in '15 and '16 by postponing a necessary surgical operation so that he might give his support in the organization movement.

Several meetings of the group have been held with a membership reaching twenty-five or more, which includes every branch of the University. Future meetings will be held the second Friday in March and May at the Roosevelt Hotel.

The editor had the pleasure of attending the last meeting held January 12 and met very interesting and enthusiastic alumni. W. A. Furst presented a movie and talk about the Westinghouse plant, and Endslow about the manufacturing of Eatmor chocolates. Both men are employed by the respective firms. The editor made a few remarks about what was going on at the University in Baltimore and at College Park.

The following were among those present:

Joseph A. Macko, '25; Dr. Irving J. Morgan, '29, M.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trimble, '13; G. S. Frazee, '15; Dr. J. C. Georgessi, '10, M. D.; E. M. Wenner, '27; Mrs. Ruth R. Marsh, '23, and Mr. Marsh; Mr. and Mrs. D. Kerr Endslow, '24; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Furst, '12; Dr. Bernard Goldmann, '22, M. D., and Dr. Fred S. Weintraut, '28, M. D.

Notes from Cumberland

When the Universities of West Virginia and Maryland met at Cumberland on January 5, in basket-ball, many alumni were on hand rooting for their alma mater, even though they lost. Among those present were: K. P. Heintz, P. G. T. Twigg, H. B. Williams, Charles Beamer, Frank E. Stamp, Joseph Freedman, Walter B. Johnson, and Dr. Toulson, Evelyn Miller, Fred Lawless, Marion Callis and many others.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Franklin, '12, of Cumberland, are the proud parents of twins born August 29, 1933. They have been christened Joseph Powell, Jr., and Jean Arendes. Mrs. Franklin was Miss Jean Arendes before her marriage. Dr. Franklin is county health officer for Allegany County, Md., and a leader of the Western Maryland group of the Alumni Association.

* * * * *

Robert D. Wilson, '32, Succumbs

With great sorrow and regret we announce the death of one of Maryland's outstanding athletes and gentlemen, Robert Darby Wilson, of the class of '32. Bob, as his schoolmates addressed him, was fatally injured in an automobile accident, and died at the Montgomery County Hospital, Sandy Spring, Md., shortly after Christmas.

On behalf of the Alumni Association, the News takes the occasion to express condolence to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family.

* * * * *

DOINGS IN CHINA

By ED TENNEY, '28

* * *

Speaking About Tientsin

In Tientsin the climate is perhaps the best of any place in China (except that I, personally, could use a warmer winter) in that it gets very cold in the winter and very hot in the summer, but is always dry and invigorating. The temperature remains below freezing for approximately two and a half months, but the sun shines most every day and it is not damply penetrating. Extraordinarily good ice skating—I'm speaking from an observer's viewpoint as my views as a participant become somewhat distorted, to say nothing of the more material damage to my other regions. Besides ice skating we have soccer, rugby, field-hockey, ice-hockey, basket-ball squads, bowling, riding, horse racing, tennis, baseball, swimming, golf and several other sports in their proper seasons. My own athletic endeavors are confined to yoyoing—fatiguing, but the stamina and patience I developed during my interment at College Park forms an invaluable background for it.

Race Tracks

The Country Club and Race Club are exceptionally good and most of the social activities of the Europeans (except for a lot of the French who have their own club) and Americans center around them. A wonderful race course where we have several meets each year (amateur jockeys after the English system) and which in the interim is used for ordinary riding by the individual members. There is a special section of the stands set aside for the Chinese during race meets as they are keen enthusiasts and notorious bettors—we have the regular pari mutuel system. During the first big meets each spring and fall practically all of the big business houses close during the afternoons and twice each year there is a Champions race wherein the champion of all ponies is selected and on which a big sweepstake is conducted. Rodeos like me buy innumerable $10.00 tickets and some lucky egg wins about sixty or seventy thousand dollars for first place.

(To be Continued)

Campus Visitors

Among the campus visitors during the Christmas recess were Elizabeth Norton, '32, now Mrs. H. E. Besley. "Libby," as she is better known, and Besley, (M. S., '32) were married August 26, '33. They are now living at New Brunswick, N. J., Where Besley is engaged in teaching at Rutgers University. Another well-known visitor to the campus was "Biff" Bafford, accompanied by Mrs. Bafford and children. Mrs. Bafford was formerly Minna Edmonds, '29. "Biff" is employed in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. England of Elkins, W. Va., attended Homecoming while visiting Howard's brother, Walter England, '23, now employed in the dairy department of the University. Howard is a member of the class of '25 and is in the creamery business.

* * * * *

MARRIAGE

Miss Hazel E. Watson, '29, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Watson of Hancock, Md., and Mr. James C. Schriver of Hancock, Md., were married on Wednesday, December 27th, at Chambersburg, Pa. Mrs. Schriver, while in school, was active in the various organizations, and was president of the Footlight Club in her senior year. Since graduating, she has taught English and Latin in the Hancock High School. Mr. Schriver is a graduate of Shippensburg State Normal and Gettysburg College.

* * * * *

New Regents Appointed Shriver Made Chairman

(Continued from Page 1)

Baltimore, was also appointed to serve as a member of the Board. He is a former member of the Philippine Commission under President Wilson, and president of the Real Estate Board of Baltimore. Maj. Riggs has had a varied experience in military service. The two new members of the board were named to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of Messrs. Samuel M. Shoemaker and Charles C. Gelder.

Mr. George M. Shriver, a member of the Board of Regents since 1928 and recently reappointed for another nine-year term by Gov. Ritchie, has been elected chairman of the board to succeed the late Samuel M. Shoemaker. Mr. Shriver is vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

OLD LINE ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

Started Ring Triumph Over Terrors

Bill Waller (on right), Maryland 115-pounder, delivering blow that led to technical kayo of Dick Bennett of Western Maryland, and set stage for 5-3 Old Line victory in match.

Varsity Quint Sets Fast Pace As Usual

Maryland's Varsity basket-ball team is traveling along at the usual pace that has been maintained ever since Burton Shipley took up the reins back in 1923-24 season when the sport was put on a regular basis for the first time.

That means Ship is winning at a 70 per cent gait or thereabouts, for that is what he did for the past ten years of his regime to give Maryland the top rung position among the teams in the Southern Conference.

When this was written he had won 4 of 6 games, topping Michigan, Duke and V. P. I. twice and losing to Indiana and West Virginia, but the team was just getting "hot" and had 13 more games to go.

Ship had only eight at his command for the early games but now has quite an addition. He has Vic Willis, 6-foot-six-inch basketer, who became eligible with the start of the second semester. Willis, whose daddy is none other than Vic Willis, one-time famous pitcher with the Pittsburgh Pirates, also is a football end and a baseball first sacker.

When Ship was coaching at Delaware he used to hold young Vic on his lap, but that was more than 10 years ago for Ship and about 3 feet and 100 pounds ago for the altitudinous athlete.

* * * * *

Freshman Basket-Ball Squad Contains Many Good Players

Jack Faber has a likely looking bunch of freshman basketers under his wing and it is just as well that he has, as four of Shipley's varsity regulars—Chase, Snyder, A. Buscher and Rufus Vincent—are seniors.

Al Waters, "Young Knocky" Thomas, brother of Lewis Thomas, Old Line track and football ace of a few years back, and Arthur Williston, all from Washington; Maurice Schwartzmann from Baltimore; John Guckeyson from Chevy Chase; George Rozievich from Silver Spring; Gerald Groves from Cumberland; Edmond Daly from Peddie Institute; Bob Mathias from Mount Rainier, and Charlie Keller from Middletown, are among those on his squad.

Boxing Is Elevated By Coach Harmony

Boxing definitely has been placed on the athletic map at Maryland and Lieut. John W. (Jazz to his friends) Harmony has been the guiding genius.

Last year he gave an inkling that he was just about as good a coach as exists anywhere by taking green material and winning three bouts and tieing three. This season, though losing heavily by graduation, flunking and withdrawals, he came right back and has won the opening three bouts of the 1933-34 campaign when this was banged out on our ancient typewriter.

Richmond U., V. M. I. and Western Maryland were the victims, the last a mighty surprised one, and as this little piece was being composed the capable "Loot" was prepping his charges to "take" Army, his alma mater, for which he fought for three years without having his hair mussed, much less losing a bout. And he took part in more than 20 ring engagements.

On Military Staff

Jazz, like most of Maryland's other mentors, is coaching as a "side line" as he is one of the cogs in the happily efficient R. O. T. C. staff at College Park that is headed by Maj. Alvin C. Gillem, red hot sport fan and, in fact, red hot for the Old Line institution and anything that it fosters.

Harmony is getting results for two reasons. He knows his boxing and he has the personality and popularity to put his stuff across. Incidently, he dons the gloves to do it and if he were to take on any pupils from the 115-pound class to the heavyweight, our few pennies would go on the amiable "Loot."

Joe Harris, 115; Bill Waller, 115 or 125; Harry Carroll, 125; Dick Babcock, 135; Harold Burns and John Evans, 145; Lyman McAboy, 155; John Hawkins, 165; Stewart McCaw, 165 or 175; and Carl Stalfort, heavy, are the mitt-men who were leaders in winning the first three meets.

Burns, who couldn't find time for boxing for the first two bouts, came back to kayo his rival in the Western Maryland match and turned the tide the Old Liners' way. He had trained only a week.

* * * * *

On the Trip to Florida

Those who accompanied the football team to Florida on December 2, had a very enjoyable trip as a result of the efforts of several alumni located there. Dr. Cristobal Carabello, D. D. S., '05; Dr. J. J. Holdstock, D. D. S., '21; Harry H. Hacker, 00; J. F. Umstot, '15, and Harry Porton, took an active interest in seeing that the Marylanders had a good time in Tampa.

Silvester and Mudd Urge You To Attend Mid-Winter Reunion

FELLOW ALUMNI AND "M" MEN:

All members of the Alumni Association and "M" Club have their minds fixed on the objective of our informal joint Mid-winter Reunion at College Park, Wednesday, February 21, beginning at 6:30 P. M. Reserve date now. Mark it down on your calendar. All alumni and friends of the University are not only invited but are urged to attend. Professional entertainment will be provided for your amusement. Speeches will be limited. Football letters will be awarded to the varsity team.

A basket-ball game, Maryland vs. Johns Hopkins, in the Ritchie Coliseum will immediately follow the dinner. Tickets to the game will be given to you with the compliments of the Athletic Board for a most enjoyable evening. The price for the dinner and entertainment will be one dollar. United States Senator Tydings, '10, Congressmen Cole, '10, and Gambrill, '92, Honorable J. Enos Ray, '92, Commissioner M. C. Hazen, '89, of the District of Columbia, and other distinguished men have been invited.

The "New Deal" is on. Forget the depression. Appoint yourself as a committee of one, in addition to those already appointed, to load your car with members in your locality, dividing expenses and proceed to College Park on the 21st. You owe this to yourself, the University and your many friends.

When better reunions are to be had the Alumni Association and "M" Club, working in close cooperation with the University, will make them. Talk it up. We, too, are "on our way."

L. McD. SILVESTER, '11,
President, "M" Club.
JOHN P. MUDD, '07,
President Alumni Association.

Mid-Winter Reunion for Alumni and "M" Men at College Park

(Continued from Page 1)

basket-ball team will entertain with Johns Hopkins as the opponent in the Ritchie Coliseum.

There will be a nominal cost of $1.00 per person which will include the dinner, entertainment and basketball game thrown in by the courtesy of the Athletic Board. All Alumni, men and women and friends, are cordially invited to attend.

Senator M. E. Tydings, Congressman W. P. Cole, Stephen W. Gambrill, J. Enos Ray, John P. Mudd, president of the Alumni Association, Major Lindsay M. Silvester, president of the "M" Club and many other distinguished Maryland Alumni will be present.

Baltimore Alumni Attending

Special committees have been arranged in each county, town and hamlet throughout this State and adjacent states to talk it up. Class leaders are giving their support. Deans and graduates of the Baltimore schools are planning to attend in a large way. Every indication shows keen interest in what should be one of the outstanding functions of Maryland Alumni.

Notify G. F. Pollock, College Park, Maryland, as to the number of reservations you desire. The affair is informal.

* * * * *

Arnold Carlton Kight, '32, of Cumberland, Maryland, is now in his senior year at the Penn State College of Optometry, located in Philadelphia. He is treasurer of his class and a member of the staff of the Penn State Yearbook, "The Iris." Kight attended Maryland two years, from 1928 to 1930, taking a pre-medical course.

FEBRUARY SPORT LIST

VARSITY BASKET-BALL

Feb. 2	Catholic University at College Park
3	Navy at Annapolis
6	Virginia at College Park
9	Richmond at College Park
10	Western Maryland at College Park
13	V. M. I. at College Park
15	St. Johns at College Park
17	Washington and Lee at College Park
21	Johns Hopkins at College Park
23	Washington and Lee at College Park

* * *

VARSITY BOXING

Feb. 2	Duke University at College Park
9	St. Johns at College Park
17	Washington and Lee at College Park
23	Southern Conference Tournment
Mar. 3	Penn State at State College

* * *

FRESHMAN BASKET-BALL

Feb. 1	Catholic U. at Cathollic U. 7 o'clock
3	Georgetown at Tech Gym, 7:30 o'clock
6	Central High School
7	Bethesda Chevy Chase High School
10	Tome Institute at Tome
12	McKinley High School
14	Episcopal High School
15	Eastern High School
21	Johns Hopkins (Preliminary)

* * * * *

Alumni Meet In Richmond

(Continued from Page 1)

Those present were:

Drs. R. S. Andecon, '24; L. W. Anderson, '17; W. C. Ashworth, '92; O. B. Bonner, '17; H. C. Beck, '96; R. E. Booker, '02; H. C. Bridgers, '15; C. E. Copeland, '93; J. T. Daves, '17; A. E. Goldstein, '12; G. B. Harrison, 05; J. M. Hoge, '02; J. F. Hogan, '11; S. T. Helms, '29; M. Y. Keith, '26; J. I. Kemly, '07; B. H. Kendall, '92; J. A. B. Lowry, '15; R. O. Lyell, '02; H. D. McCarty, '05; J. T. O'-Mara, '03; L. D. Phillips, '01; J. K. Pepper, '07; G. F. Pollock, '23; H. M. Robinson, '09; H. L. Rogers, '15; T. P. Rowe, '24; T. W. Seay, '21; R. L. Simpson, '96; A. W. Smith, '33; W. Tarun, '00; R. C. Taylor, '08; W. J. Todd, '89; A. W. Valentine, '04; W. A. Plecker, '85; Nathan Winslow, '01; J. L. Winstead, '25.

MID-WINTER REUNION FEBRUARY 21, 1934

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 8, January, 1934.

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

VOL. IV MARCH, 1934 NO. 9

All-University Program Held In Ritchie Coliseum

BEFORE a crowd of more than 4,500 spectators the All-University program in the Ritchie Coliseum on February 17, gave to the public a comprehensive idea as to the extensiveness of the physical education program for students taking place at the University of Maryland. Over three hundred students participated in the program, which began with basket-ball and ended with boxing. Immediately following the basket-ball game a grand march by all participants, led by the University band and regimental colors preceded the program. After which demonstrations by the Military Department, including mass calisthenics, manual of arms, silent drills, and machine gun platoon in action, were presented.

The men's Physical Education Department exhibited the art of fencing, wrestling, tumbling, hurdling, and running. The women's department presented the pirate's clog dance and Italian folk dance in gayly colored costumes. The Girls' Trio and Men's Glee Club rendered several vocal selections during the program.

Between the halves of the basketball game the men's Ballet Club presented a dance in costume which added a lot to the humor of the evening.

The All-University program was the first of its kind to be held and seems certain of becoming an annual function at College Park.

* * * * *

Carrington and Himmelheber Become Members of Artist Club

Ray Carrington, '28, who has been studying art in Washington during the past three years, had a painting accepted for the annual show of the Society of Washington Artists which is held each winter in the Corcoran Gallery. This is one of the larger shows of the country and, of more than 300 paintings submitted by artists in twelve states, only 75 were accepted for hanging by the jury.

Additional honor came to Carrington as a result of "making" this show. He was unanimously elected to membership in the Landscape Club of Washington. Joseph Hemmelheber, '23, a Washington architect and artist of note, was also taken into the club. The Landscape Club, which has been established more than 20 years, is composed of about forty professional (men) artists of the nation's capital.

NEW CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF REGENTS

GEORGE M. SHRIVER

DOINGS IN CHINA

By ED TENNEY, '28

* * *

Ed Goes To Housekeeping

I've gone to housekeeping with a fellow Soconyite of my own age (male) and we do very well with the help of a cook, two boys and a coolie. We also have a 1926 model Morris-Cowley (a British excuse for an automobile that indicated a manufacturer with a keener sense of humor than Henry Ford) which my mess-mate, in the interest of public safety, drives most of the time. The police, rickshaw coolies, motorists, bicyclists, and pedestrians of all the concessions have shown a distinct aversion to my harmless little practices of doing a bit of broken field running while at the wheel. Inconsiderate people.

Afternoon Tea

The noonday meal out here is designated as "Tiffin," tea from five to seven (tea dances always last until eight) and dinner, seven until after eight. An invitation to a dinner party, unless a movie is contemplated thereafter (movies start at 9:20) always means 8:30. By the time cocktails are

(Continued on Page 2)

Midwinter Reunion Has A Large Attendance

THERE were over three hundred Alumni "M" men, friends and faculty members of the University at the Midwinter Banquet held February 21, in the University Dining Hall. Major Ralph Sasse, former football coach of West Point, was the guest speaker. "Athletics," said Major Sasse, " have a distinct place in the colleges and universities and would get along all right if the outside critic would let them alone."

Melvin C. Hazen, '88, Maryland's oldest living athlete, now Commissioner of the District of Columbia, presented the Varsity "M's" to 18 football men and two managers of the 1933 season.

Mr. Hazen was captain of the baseball team in 1887, which performed the heroic feat of defeating both St. John's College of Annapolis, and the U. S. Naval Academy in the same day.

Pres. Pearson Speaks

Dr. R. A. Pearson, president of the University, and Mr. J. P. Mudd, '07, president of the Alumni Association made the opening addresses.

An attractive program of entertainment was presented by the Coed Trio of the University, stars from the Washington Station of the National Broadcasting System, and the Heigh Ho Club of Washington. Donald Shook, '28, now with the Heigh Ho Club, was among the entertainers.

Prominent among those attending were U. S. Senator M. E. Tydings, '10, Col. John Markey, former football coach of the College Park School in 1903-4-5, Commissioner George E. Allen of the District of Columbia, and Brigadier General E. T. Conley, U. S. A.

Baltimore Alumni Turn Out

A large representation from the dental school in Baltimore was on hand for the banquet. Much credit is due Drs. Ben Robinson, Alexander Paterson, L. M. Davis and others who were instrumental in bringing more than fifty people to the banquet.

The climax of the evening was the basket-ball game between Johns Hopkins and Maryland in the Ritchie Coliseum to which all those attending the banquet were the guests of the Athletic Board. The basket-ball team supplied the final touch by winning 44-33.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES.....$2.00

Those Who Are Helping to Swell the Paid Membership List.

H. R. Aldridge, '25, Mount Savage, Md.
S. Rankin Bacon, '24, Washington, D. C.
Joseph H. Bafford, '29, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Ralph H. Beachley, '22, North East, Md.
Virginia Brewer, '24, Hyattsville, Md.
George V. Chalmers, '32, Newark, N. J.
W. W. Cobey, '30, College Park, Md.
Edward Coblentz, '26, Catonsville, Md.
T. G. Crapster, '96, Staten Island, N. Y.
Jas. H. Elgin, Columbus, Ohio.
Robert Forrest, '18, Washington, D. C.
G. Page Gardner, '25, Middletown, Md.
Paul B. Harlan, '25, Churchville, Md.
Minnie Hill, '25, Washington, D. C.
Bertha E. Kokner, '22, Pittsburgh, Pa.
J. N. Mackall, '05, Baltimore, Md.
W. L. Murbury, Baltimore, Md.
Chas. R. Moore, Jr., '22, Baltimore, Md.
Lieut. Edward Pugh, '25, Washington, D. C.
Mrs. Eleanor Robey, '24, Woodridge, D. C.
A. T. Schenck, '06, Fort Lewis, Wash.
E. A. Scott, '25, Spruce Pine, N. C.
John F. Sullivan, '25, Hyland, Md.
Robert Young, '22, Fort Monmouth, N. J.
Frank Witter, '28, Orono, Maine.

* * * * *

DOINGS IN CHINA

(Continued from Page 1)

finished it is 9:30 or 10:00. One always wears dinner clothes on Wednesday or Saturday nights and also at dinner parties on other nights unless they are small or spontaneous "pot-luck" invitations. We often have from four to ten people in for dinner without informing the cook in advance but he has never yet failed to produce—kinda hard on the immediate neighborhood larders.

The formal dress during the warm season consists of black trousers, (thinner than the ordinary jacket material) black sash, short white duck mess-jacket, stiff shirt and tuxedo collar and black tie. I understand they are now being introduced at home. We go into white suits from June until September and almost everyone wears shorts—though nobody in the American firms wear them in the office. Very cool and practical but often an offense to the esthetic senses.

(To be Continued)

Varsity Basket-ball Players

Front row, left to right: Alton (Bucky) Buscher, Rufus Vincent, Bob Snyder, Bernie Buscher, Spencer (Spider) Chase.

Back row: Alton (Ike) Rabbitt, Harry Dyer, manager; Vic Willis, Roy Yowell, Norwood Sothoron.

Bob Haig Becomes Member of The "M" Club Board

Through an error an ineligible alumnus was elected to the Board of Governors of the "M" Club at the annual meeting last fall. To fill this vacancy, the board has appointed Robert Haig, '22, who was captain and star performer of the tennis team for two years. "Bob" is now special legal adviser in the United States Department of State, and a member of the intercollegiate bowling league of Washington, D. C.

* * * * *

Ward, '28, Receives Ph. D. From Penn State

Herbert K. Ward, '28, of Rockville, Maryland, received his Ph. D. Degree in Chemistry at the Midyear Commencement at Penn State College. While studying at Penn State he was graduate assistant and research fellow in the Chemistry Department. His work there merited for him membership in several honorary science fraternities and the American Chemical Society.

* * * * *

Donaldson, '10, Dist. Governor of Pi Gamma Mu Fraternity

John L. Donaldson, '10, Dean of Columbia College of George Washington University of Washington, D. C. is District Governor of the National Honorary Social Science Fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu. Dr. Donaldson received his Ph. D. Degree from Johns Hopkins in 1914.

The Social Science Group of the University, headed by Dr. A. H. Jaeger, have petitioned Pi Gamma Mu to establish a chapter at Maryland.

* * * * *

Alumni Day, Saturday, June 2

Annual Field Day Card Pretentious

Maryland's annual field day, which will be staged on May 5, is going to be fully as pretentious as any that has been held at College Park in the past.

As usual, the affair will comprise not only the interscholastic track and field meet, the basis of the occasion, but Maryland Varsity athletes will oppose collegiate rivals in four sports and one Old Line freshman also will be seen in action.

Maryland Varsity teams are slated to meet West Virginia in baseball, St. John's in lacrosse, Catholic University in track and William and Mary in tennis, while the yearlings will stage a dual meet with Gallaudet.

No change will be made in the program for the scholastic athletes. There will be the usual 13 events in the open scholastic competition with five contests: the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes, broad jump and shot put closed to the county high schools of the State.

* * * * *

Alumni Day, Saturday, June 2

* * * * *

Varsity Basket-Ball

29	Michigan	25
17	Indiana	30
24	West Virginia	26
37	Duke	33
29	Virginia Tech	24
34	Virginia Tech	32
32	Johns Hopkins	37
43	Virginia	20
24	North Carolina	28
33	Catholic U.	25
27	Navy	46
28	Virginia	25
33	Richmond U.	44
49	Western Maryland	33
36	V. M. I.	27
32	St. John's	37
44	Washington College	33
32	Johns Hopkins	19

Conference tourney, Maryland, 37; Washington and Lee, 45.

OLD LINE ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

Outstanding Members of Varsity Boxing Squad

Front row, left to right: Joe Harris, Dick Babcock, Harry Carroll, Frank Hawkins, Walter Webb, Bill Waller.
Back row: Jim Crotty, manager; Mortimer Schwartz, Stewart McCaw, Carl Stalfort, Jack Herbsleb, Lyman McAboy, Lieut. John W. (Jack) Harmony, coach.

OUTLOOK IS PLEASING FOR SPRING PASTIME

WITH 44 events on the calendar for the Varsity baseball, lacrosse, track and tennis squads and spring football practice to occupy about six weeks, athletes are beginning to swarm the fields at College Park.

Jack Faber and Roy Mackert will have more than 40 gridders going through the paces, the former will have fully 25 stick wielders when he shifts to lacrosse, Burton Shipley will drill more than 20 in the art of baseball, Geary Eppley will have in excess of 30 tracksters doing their stuff, but Les Bopst will have only about 10 racket wielders in his efforts to build up tennis.

These Varsity squads with the freshman aggregations in all the sport mentioned, along with the intramural activities, will occupy all the ground that is available shortly.

Grid Outlook Bright

Maryland has about the likeliest football squad it has had in years and unless there are unexpected losses between now and next fall the eleven should be able to take care of itself in pretty good shape during the 1934 season.

There are only seven letter men left for lacrosse, and despite the fact that a number of good recruits came up from the 1933 yearlings, it will be difficult to turn out a team as good as last year's.

The baseball team, unless it has pitching troubles, should get along pretty well, and the outlook would have been fairly rosy had not Shipley lost Ray Davidson, southpaw hurler, who failed to return to school. However, Steve Physioc, ace righthander,

(Continued on Page 4)

SPRING SCHEDULES

(All events at College Park unless otherwise stated.)

Lacrosse

April 7—Harvard.
April 14—Mount Washington.
April 21—Washington College.
April 28—Yale.
May 5—St. John's.
May 12—Navy at Annapolis.
May 19—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.

Track

April 7—Virginia Tech at Blacksburg.
April 14—Richmond U. at Richmond.
April 21—Navy at Annapolis.
April 28—Penn Relays at Philadelphia.
April 30—Virginia.
May 5—Catholic U. (tentative)
May 12—V. M. I.
May 16—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.
May 19—Southern Conference meet.

Baseball

April 6—Cornell.
April 7—Virginia at Charlottesville.
April 9—Duke at Durham.
April 10—William and Mary at Williamsburg.
April 11—Richmond U. at Richmond.
April 16—Virginia.
April 20—Washington and Lee at Lexington.
April 21—V. M. I. at Lexington.
April 25—Richmond U.
April 28—Virginia Tech.
May 1—Duke.
May 2—Navy at Annapolis.
May 5—West Virginia.
May 7—Washington and Lee.
May 9—Western Maryland.
May 11—V. M. I.
May 12—Washington College at Chestertown.
May 16—Washington College.
May 17—William and Mary.

Tennis

April 7—Western Maryland.
April 14—Navy at Annapolis.
April 21—Delaware at Newark.
April 28—Virginia.
May 5—William and Mary.
May 10—V. M. I. at Lexington.
May 11—Washington and Lee at Lexington.
May 12—Virginia at Charlottesville.
May 19—Johns Hopkins.

BASKETERS AND BOXERS ENJOY GOOD CAMPAIGNS

Everybody was gratified with Maryland's indoor sports season which was brought to a close when the Old Line boxers defeated Penn State at State College on March 3. It was a fine climax.

While Shipley's Varsity basket-ball team might have won a couple more games it did well enough in taking 11 of 18 tilts during the difficult campaign, and, with the boxing squad combined, put on a lot of fine entertainment and drew large crowds. Their twin bills were extremely popular.

To help out, the freshman basketball team figured in 16 contests, taking 12 of them and will send up four or five players to help fill the gaps that will be made in Shipley's Varsity by graduation.

Four Will be Lost

The Varsity basketers, to whom Spencer Chase, Rufus Vincent, Bob Snyder and Bucky Buscher will be lost, had one of their off days in the Southern Conference tourney and lost to Washington and Lee in the first round. However, the Generals kept on to take the title.

In addition to taking six of eight meets in a hard schedule, Coach Lieut. Jack Harmony's boxing squad furnished a Conference champion in Stewart McCaw, 175-pounder, and had Lyman McAboy, 155, and Al Farrell, heavyweight, reach the finals. McAboy doubtless would have won the title had he not received a bad cut over the eye in the semifinal. Farrell won the hardest and best fight of the tourney in scoring over Stephens of N. C. State in his semifinal bout; he who was kept out by scholastic troubles last season, is available.

(Continued on Page 4)

OUTLOOK IS PLEASING FOR SPRING PASTIME

(Continued from Page 3)

Led by Earl Widmyer, Maryland is better off than usual with runners for the track team, the coming up of Bob Slye and Willard Beers, two clever hurdlers has proved a boon, and if the field events competitors can be bolstered the Thinclads should be hard to beat.

John Zirckel and Tom Wilson are the only tennis regulars left from last season and the net combination will be fortunate if it can get an even break.

Five of the seven lacrosse tilts, 11 of the 19 ball games, four of the nine tennis matches, and three of the nine track meets, will be decided at home.

There will be a total of about 25 events in freshman baseball, lacrosse, track and tennis and nearly all, if not all of these, will be listed at College Park.

* * * * *

Some Alumni Who Are High School Principals

There are a few Alumni who are performing good work in the State public school system. A former track star of the crack relay team of 1926 has been advancing in good strides. Joseph S. Endslow, '26, is now principal of the Dublin High School at Street, Maryland. He also gives instruction in agriculture, mathematics, general science and for his recreation coaches the track aspirants. Over at Rising Sun, Maryland, we have George E. Gifford, '23, M. S. 33., former orator and debater, as principal of Calvert High School. His additional duties are civics, history and general science. William E. Tarbell, '24, heads the Arendale High School at Millersville. At Lisbon High School, Joseph S. Mumford, '23, M. S. '25, decides upon the administration policies and teaches mathematics and science. Paul E. Huffington, '26, just about runs the whole school at Tilghman High, as he is principal and in addition teaches mathematics, history, chemistry, and English.

Joe McGlone Advances

It is understood that Joseph McGlone, former president of the Student Government and business manager of the Reveille, has lived up to his name "The Fighting Irishman." "Joe" went with the United States Government as farm manager for Federal Prison Camps. He was assigned to the Occuquan post as superintendent of the farm. He performed his job so effectively that he has been recommended for the position at Chillicothe, Ohio, as superintendent of Federal Prison Farms for the entire United States.

* * * * *

Varsity Boxing

4½	Richmond U.	3½
6	V. M. I.	2
5	Western Maryland	3
2	West Point	6
7	Duke	1
5	St. John's	3
3½	Washington and Lee	4½
4½	Penn State	3½

NOTICE

Because of the development of certain situations it was decided advisable to omit the February issue of the Alumni News. However, the June issue will be doubled in size in order to carry a complete and comprehensive account of the Alumni Day and Commencement Week program.

BASKETERS AND BOXERS ENJOY GOOD CAMPAIGNS

(Continued from Page 3)

might also have gained a crown had he not lost the decision in the final.

A record of the boxers who took part in five or more dual meets follows:

Name and Weight	W.	L.	Drew
Bill Waller, 115-125	4	2	0
Harry Carroll, 125	3	2	2
Dick Babcock, 135	3	1	1
Walter Webb, 135-145	3	1	1
Lyman McAboy, 155	7	1	0
Stewart McCaw, 165-175	6	2	0
Carl Stalfort, Heavy	3	2	0

Farrell did not report until the second semester. He scored a kayo in one bout and got a forfeit in the final match.

Scoring of the Varsity basket-ball players in the regular season games follows:

Name	P.	G.	Pts.
Spencer Chase	F	18	100
Bob Snyder	F	18	80
Roy Yowell	F-G	16	51
Rufus Vincent	C	18	144
Alton Buscher	G	18	88
Bernie Buscher	G	18	87
Victor Willis	C	11	27
Norwood Sothoron	G	13	2
Alton Rabbitt		11	4

Al Waters, 127, and John Guckeyson, 117, both in 15 games; Fred (Little Knocky) Thomas, 69, in 12 games and Jack Stonebraker, 53, in 9 games, were the leading freshman basketers and the most likely looking recruits for the Varsity next season.

* * * * *

¶ Arnold Carlton Kight, '32, Cumberland, Md., is now a senior at Penn State, College of Optometry, located in Philadelphia. He is treasurer of his class and a member of the staff of the Penn State Yearbook, "The Iris." Kight attended Maryland two years, from 1928 to 1930, taking a premedical course.

ALUMNI DAY, SATURDAY, JUNE 2

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 9, March, 1934

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

VOL. IV APRIL, 1934 No. 10

Frank C. Norwood, '74, Dies Leaving Enviable Record

Frank C. Norwood, '74, former State Senator and one of the most prominent and widely known citizens of Frederick County, died at the Frederick City Hospital, January 5, 1934, it was recently learned.

Mr. Norwood entered the Maryland Agricultural College, now the College Park Branch of the University, in 1870, receiving his A. B. degree in 1874, and in 1879 graduated with an LL.B. degree from the University's Law School in Baltimore. He began the practice of law in Frederick immediately following his graduation.

State Senator

For many years Mr. Norwood was active in politics, having been State Senator, a member of the House of Delegates, and State's Attorney for Frederick County. He was also well known in local financial circles, having served as president of the First National Bank of Frederick, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Central Trust Company of Maryland, and attorney for the Domestic Building Association for more than thirty-five years.

He was deeply interested in history, and was considered an authority on local, state and national historical issues. He was a member of the Maryland State Historical Society, and president of the Frederick County Historical Society. He took a keen interest in local, civic, and church affairs, being a member of the All Saints Church, a member of the board of directors of the Frederick City Hospital and the Kiwanis Club.

Born in Frederick County

He was a native of Frederick County, having been born at Liberty in September 1865. Having lost his wife, formerly Miss Anna E. Routzahs, several years ago, he is survived by one brother, Dr. Charles A. Norwood of Frederick.

Mr. Norwood was a member of the oldest graduating class of the College Park School, of which there is now but one surviving member, Horace M. Davis of Poolesville, Maryland.

Mr. Norwood's passing is a distinct loss to this community, friends, fellow acquaintances, and the Alumni Association. On behalf of the Association, the NEWS takes this occasion to express condolence to his brother, relatives, and friends.

Horace M. Davis, '74, Oldest Living Graduate

Horace M. Davis, the lone survivor of the class of 1874, is also the oldest graduate of the College Park Schools of the University, then known as the Maryland Agricultural College. He

THEN—1874

NOW—1934

(Continued on Page 2)

Annual Field Day, May 5, Offers Varied Program

By "BILL" HOTTEL

University of Maryland's Field Day, always a high spot of the spring sports calendar in the South Atlantic sector, this year promises to to be the most pretentious ever held. It will be staged May 5 with seven different events marking the program.

While it is held primarily as a track carnival for the benefit of the high and prep schools of Maryland and nearby states, the lacrosse tilt between the Old Liners and St. John's that will climax the day's activities will be the feature of the intensive and attractive card.

Here is the complete menu:

12:30 Interscholastic meet, with the regular 13 events and 7 closed to the county high schools of the State.

12:30 Dual meet, Maryland Freshmen vs. Gallaudet College.

1:00 Dual meet, Maryland vs. William and Mary.

1:00 Baseball, Maryland vs. West Virginia.

1:00 Tennis, Maryland vs. William and Mary.

4:00—Lacrosse, Maryland vs. St. John's.

Forty or more institutions have taken part in the school track competition each year and the list this year probably will be greater than ever. There will be a constant bark of the gun once the meets get underway, as all of them will be run concurrently.

Noted Athlete to Visit

Maryland has some clever trackmen led by Earl Widymer, the flashy sprinter, but William and Mary will present the ace of the South in Monroe Little, intercollegiate broad-jump champion, who also runs the 100 and 220 and hurls the javelin. In a meet against Dartmouth, he won all these events, except the 100, and ran second in that.

William and Mary also has a great athlete in Platt Bullard, who is a star in the 440 and half-mile.

Stick Duel in Store

Maryland and West Virginia should provide a great ball game and the stick battle between the Terps and Johnnies, unless it is very different from any they have staged in recent years, should be a tussle worth going miles to see. Both will be unusually strong and should be in rare trim by the time they meet, as they will have played enough games to have smoothed out all the rough edges.

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES . . $2.00

More Alumni Pay Dues

Clark, Hedley A., '15, Baltimore, Md.
Gardner, Page G., '25, Middletown, Md.
Kries, Henry E., '09, Baltimore, Md.
Mayer, Carl F., '09, Frostburg, Md.
Plumley, Walter P., '29, Mt. Rainier, Md.
Press, William II., '28, Washington, D. C.
Royer, Samuel T., '31, Somerset, Pa.
Shoemaker, Norman I., '30, Point Pleasant, New Jersey.
Williams, R. C., '14, Detroit, Mich.

* * * * *

ALUMNI HELP DESIRED!

Now is the time for all Alumni to give their assistance to the University in several ways.

Naturally those who are athletically inclined will first think about Field Day which will take place May 5, at College Park. The next date prominent in the minds of alumni is the Reunion June 2, at College Park, a time when old acquaintances are renewed and loyalty to the University is revived. However, the most paramount project that should be given worthy consideration at the present time is the encouraging of high school students to go to college if it is possible and logical to do so, and MARYLAND is the place for them to go.

The general Alumni Association is asking all alumni who live in those towns where high schools are located, both within and outside the State, to get together and make contacts with the prospective students. This is probably the greatest help that the Alumni Association can give, which will assure the University a wealth of new students of the quality necessary to carry on the principles and traditions of our Alma Mater.

Those alumni who enter into this work are at liberty to call on the alumni office or the University for literature or assistance in encouraging high school graduates to come to Maryland.

Alumni With Telephone Company in W. Virginia

Thanks to Alfred Henry Clark, '26, who took the matrimonial step June 24, 1933, for the following news about our fellow alumni connected with the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of West Virginia, in which he is chief clerk of the commercial department. Clark married Miss Margery Griffin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a graduate of the Pratt Institute.

Then there is W. R. Trimble, '27, located in the business office, who has been a married man since March 19, 1932, when he and Miss Maxine Durreth of Huntington, W. Va., made the tie.

Leroy (Slim) Sheriff, '27, is with the same company, but located at Beckley, West Virginia. His matrimonial venture began in October, 1931, with Miss Hope R. Hebestein, of Endeavor, Wisconsin. "Slim" was a member of the great relay team of 1926, which won the Penn Relay Intercollegiate Championship.

W. Roy Cheek, '28, a single man, is in the accounting department and located in Charleston.

* * * * *

Horace M. Davis, '74, Oldest Living Graduate

(Continued from Page 1)

came to College Park in 1870 from Frederick County, where he was born and raised. Following graduation he taught in the public schools of Montgomery County, and in 1877 was awarded the degree of Master or Arts.

A year later he journeyed to California where he continued his teaching profession for six years, returning to Maryland in 1884, and locating on a farm near Poolesville, Maryland. In addition to farming he again taught in the public school until 1927 when he retired. Mr. Davis was given a Teacher's Life Certificate by the State Board of Education several years ago in recognition of his meritorious work in public school teaching.

Athletics

Mr. Davis' first and last "Inauguration" experience was during his college days when Grant was inaugurated for his second term. It was of such a disagreeable nature due to the inclemency of the weather that he has never attended another inauguration.

As for athletics during his days at College, they consisted of competitive matches among the students in corn cutting, corn husking, plowing, and many other phases of agricultural pursuits. He also has said that in those days, baseball was played to some extent among the students.

Members of Mr. Davis' family have been prominent in the history of the University. His son, Horace M. Davis, Jr., is a graduate of dentistry in the class of 1905. He was a football player of note for the Baltimore Schools in those days. Also, Mr. Davis' son-in-law, Arthur Hershperger, performed on the diamond at the College Park Schools in 1904-05.

Mr. Davis makes his home near Poolesville, Maryland, and enjoys a conversation about the old school days.

On June 11 he will have reached his eighty-third birthday.

DOINGS IN CHINA

By ED TENNEY, '28

* * *

CUSTOMS IN CHINA

The formal dress during the warm season consists of black trousers, (thinner than the ordinary dinner jacket material) black sash, short, white duck messjacket, stiff shirt and tuxedo collar and black tie. I understand they are now being introduced at home. We go into white suits from June until September and most everyone wears shorts—though nobody in the American firms wear them in office. Very cool and practical but often an offense to the esthetic senses.

We work six hours a day with two hours interval at tiffin—of great assistance if one has been out the previous night and also affords plenty of time for a swim during the summer.

Pigtails Do Exist

As to some of the more well-known Chinese customs—very few pigtails exist any more except in the more remote interior places. The men don't wear skirts—they wear long coat-like gowns. Bound feet are still very common. The men wear their hats indoors (except in foreign offices and in places where foreign customs prevail). Rickshaws are very comfortable and most of the women wear long trousers (I think Marlene Dietrich got the idea over here), and that's all I know about the Chinese ladies. Soft cloth or felt shoes are worn by an overwhelming majority of the Chinese.

Basket-ball and soccer football are their most popular games. They are exceptionally good at the latter.

Thus ended "Ed's" description of China and its customs.

* * * * *

¶ Mr. and Mrs. B. Heath White and two children, who have been in the Argentine for the past three years, are on a visit to the United States. Mrs. White was formerly Dorthy Murray, '26, of Washington, D. C. Mr. White's home is in Leesburg' Va.

* * * * *

Spring Football Briefs

Roy Mackert, boss of the physical education department, is all alone in directing the spring football practice since Jack Faber is giving undivided attention to the Varsity stickwielders. Roy has about 30 gridders doing their hour a day.

* * *

Maryland's gridders have been given quite a batch of plays they will use next fall and if we were a betting man we would wager a simoleon or two that they originated in the fertile brain of none other than Vice-President H. C. (Curly) Byrd. And incidentally, the grid squad looks pretty good and if all the boys get back next autumn the Terps will be no set-up for anybody's eleven.

* * * * *

¶ Olin Beall, '17, now a lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps and stationed at Port au Prince, Haiti, paid the campus and Bill White a visit this fall. He had some tall yarns to tell, so we are told.

Stars Due To Shine For Old Liners On Field Day

Upper (left to right)—Carl Pfau, goalie; Willie Wolf, second baseman; Norwood Sothoron, second defense. Pfau and Sothoron were rated the best men in their positions in lacrosse last year. Center—John Zirckel, ranking Old Line tennis player. Lower—Earl Widmyer, Dixie's greatest sprinter; Buckey Buscher, who led the nine in hitting last season; Warren Evans, speedy quarter-miler.

Some Brief Items About Maryland Varsity Teams

By BILL HOTTEL

Burton Shipley's base ball team, which started the season, appears to pack a potent punch in the following array: Willie Wolf, second; Lyman McAboy or Kenneth Karow, third base; Buckey Buscher, center; Bob Love, left field; Dick Nelson, short; Spider Chase, first base Willis Benner or Pete Chumbris, right; Harry Clark or Roy Yowell, catcher; Steve Physioc, Ralph Ruble, Herman Medler, Vic Willis and Nick Merryman, pitchers. Only Clark, Yowell, Willis, Medler and Merryman are new to the squad. 20 games are on the schedule

* * *

Jack Faber apparently has under his wing one of the best, if not the best, balanced lacrosse squad Maryland ever has boasted. In the 25 players, the Old Liners have great general strength, reserve power and more poundage than usual.

A tentative first team, for the seven game schedule, has been toiling as follows: Carl Pfau, goal; Louis Ennis, point; Sam Silber, cover point; Leonard Rombro, first defense; Bob Snyder, second defense; Norwood Sothoron, center or second defense; Herbert Brill or Ramsey Thomas, first attack, Ike Rabbitt, second attack or center; John Christhilf, out home; Rufus Vincent, in home. Harold Burns was leading in the race for the second attack job when he injured his shoulder.

Others likely to break into the lineup at any time are: Henry Schaaf, defense, Frank Christhilf and Bernie Buscher, attack.

Earl Widmyer and Ed Quinn, sprinters; Warren Evans and Bob Archer, quarter-milers; Bob Sonen and Corny Cronin, half milers; Bill Beal and Don Ashton, milers; Paul Bowers, Doug Devendorf and Everette Jones, two milers; Bob Slye and Willard Beers, hurdlers and jumpers, and Conrad Allison, javelin thrower, carry most of the TNT in Coach Geary Eppley's track squad. He needs field men, a department that may be "a stone around the neck" of the runners. A tough ten-meet schedule is underway.

* * *

John Zirckel and Tom Wilson, the only letter men left Bill Meloy, Jim Rintoul, Thad Dulin and Tighlman Hubbert appear to be the netmen whom Les Bopst will bank on to fight most of the tennis battles this year.

MARRIAGES

Priscilla Pancoast, '26, married Mr. Walter Lippincott Richman, of Woodstown, N. J. November 25, 1933. Mrs. Richman was formerly county demonstration agent for Cecil County. Mr. Richman is a prominent dairy farmer near Woodstown, N. J., Mrs. Katherine Baker Bromley, (26), sang at the wedding. Misses Vivian Kellar and Gladys Becker of the University Extension Service were among the guests

* * *

Frances Gunby, '28, married Robert Allridge Getman at Balboa, Panama, October 21, 1933. Mrs. Getman is a graduate in home economics, and has been connected with the Gurgas Hospital in the Canal Zone for several years. The honeymoon is being spent visiting in the United States. The home of the bride is at Salisbury Md.

* * *

Kenneth Baker, '31, has been appointed county agent for Queen Annes County. Prior to his appointment he was teaching at Sudlerville High School. He married Miss Sara E. Huffington and they have a son Thomas Kenneth, born October 4, 1933. The Bakers reside at Centreville, Maryland.

* * *

Miss Marion Bates, '32, and Dr. Eugene B. Daniels, Professor of Economics, were married December 17, 1933 at the Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Daniels is a member of the A. O. Pi Sorority and a graduate in Arts and Science. The newlyweds are now living at 1511 Franklin St., N. E., Washington, D. C.

* * * * *

BIRTHS

Mr and Mrs. H. A. Stewart, Woodstock, Virginia, have a daughter, Barbara Preston Stewart, born Feb. 4, 1934. Mrs. Stewart was Ann Stone of the class of '24, and Mr. Stewart, '26.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wenner are the proud parents of a daughter born at Pittsburgh, Pa. Wenner is a member of the class of '27 and now employed by the Duquesne Light Co. He is secretary-treasurer of the Pittsburgh group of the Alumni Association.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Pearce are the elated parents of a son Wilbur Brown, weighing eight pounds and a half, born December 23, 1933. Mrs. Pearce was formally Virginia Brown of Rural Retreat, Virginia. Mr. Pearce is a member of the class of '25 and Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He is employed by the Maryland State Dairymen's Association, and lives at Sparks, Maryland.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Chesnut, are the proud parents of a baby girl, Helen Dale, born August 23, 1933. Frank is a member of the class of '24. They are living in Trenton, N. J.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Shoemaker, Point Pleasant, N. J. have a son, James Allan, born January 19, 1934. Mr. Shoemaker is a member of the class of '28 and the Sigma Phi Sigma Fraternity.

* * * * *

DEATHS

Samuel J. Ady, Jr., '28, died February 2, 1934, following an appendicitis operation. "Sam," as his classmates knew him, was a well liked and popular member of his class and a member of the lacrosse team, winning his letter in 1928. His home was in Sharon, Maryland.

On behalf of the members of the Alumni Assocation, we take this occasion to express condolence to his family.

* * *

Dr. Frank Webster Keating, '96, succumbed at his home in the Rosewood State Training School where he had been superintendent for 37 years. Dr. Keating was quite active in many medical and social organizations, also a member of the Maryland National Guard of Calvary.

On behalf of the University and members of the Alumni Association, we take this occasion to express condolence to his family.

ATHLETIC MENU

Remaining spring sports contests at College Park or those near enough to be called home games, notably Navy and Hopkins:

Lacrosse

April 21—Washington College.
April 28—Yale.
May 5—St. John's.
May 12—Navy at Annapolis.
May 19—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.

Track

April 21 Navy at Annapolis.
April 30—Virginia.
May 5 William and Mary.
May 12 V. M. I. and Washington and Lee in triangular meet.
May 16—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.

Baseball

April 25—Richmond U.
April 28—Virginia Tech.
May 1—Duke.
May 2—Navy at Annapolis.
May 5—West Virginia.
May 7—Washington and Lee.
May 9 Western Maryland.
May 11—V. M. I.
May 12—Washington College at Chestertown.
May 15 North Carolina.
May 16—Washington College.
May 17—William and Mary.

Tennis

April 23 Washington and Lee.
April 28—Virginia.
May 2 Catholic University.
May 5—William and Mary.
May 14 Western Maryland.
May 19—Johns Hopkins.

BULLETIN SCORES

These events were staged since the regular copy was written:

Baseball

*Maryland, 1; Cornell, 2.
*Maryland, 5; Cornell, 0.
Maryland, 3; Virginia, 0, (10 innings).
Maryland Duke (rain).
Maryland, 2; Richmond, 10.
Maryland, 3; William and Mary, 5.

Lacrosse

*Maryland, 9; Harvard, 3.

*At home.

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 10, April, 1934

Miss Grace Parnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U

MARYLAND ALUMNI NEWS

COLLEGE PARK, MD.

VOL. IV MAY, 1934 No. 11

Saturday, June 2, Marks Forty-second Alumni Meeting and Class of '09, to Celebrate Twenty-fifth Reunion

W. B. Posey, '18, To Manage Maryland Tobacco Assn.

WALTER B. POSEY, '18, has been unanimously elected general manager of the Maryland Tobacco Growers' Association. Posey has been Prince Georges County agent for the past 14 years, and in addition, since 1928 has served as State Tobacco Specialist for the University of Maryland Extension Service.

When the World War call for volunteers was sounded, "Big Boy" Posey, as he was known on the campus, answered the call and served as first lieutenant in the field artillery, returning after the war and graduated in 1918. While in school he was prominent in athletics, playing tackle for three years on the football team, and during his last year was captain of the squad. He also participated in track and is a member of the "M" Club and the new Sigma Omicron Social Fraternity.

For many years he has been connected with the Tobacco Association

(Continued on Page 3)

JUNE WEEK PROGRAM

Sunday, May 27—Baccalaureate Service, 11 A. M., University Auditorium.

Tuesday, May 29—Rossbourg Commencement Dance, $2.00 per couple, University Gym.

Wednesday, May 30—Junior-Senior German, $2.00 per couple, University Gym.

Thursday, May 31—Senior Banquet, $1.50 per person, Kennedy-Warren Apartments.

Friday, June 1—Class Day—June Ball, Admission by card only, University Gym.

Saturday, June 2

Commencement Exercises, 3 P. M., Ritchie Coliseum.

Alumni Registration 12 noon on Alumni Day, Engineering Auditorium.

5 P. M. Annual Meeting Alumni Association, Engineering Auditorium.

6:30 P. M. Alumni Supper, $.75 cents per person, University Dining Hall.

Class Reunions of 1884-1889-1894-1899-1904-1909-1914-1919-1924-1929.

9-12 P. M. Alumni Student Dance, $1.50 per couple, University Gym.

Dan Gregory playing for all dances.

Supper And Entertainment Invites Former Students

ALUMNI DAY for 1934 will be held Saturday, June 2, at College Park, which will be the forty-second annual reunion for the graduates of the College Park schools.

On this day the Commencement exercises for the entire University will be held in the Ritchie Coliseum at 3:00 P. M. Gov. Albert C. Ritchie will make the address.

The program of Alumni activities for the day deviates somewhat from the usual schedule of events. Instead of having the meeting in the morning followed by a luncheon, the meeting will be held at 5:00 P.M. in the new Engineering Auditorium, opposite the Agriculture Building. At 6:30 P.M. the Alumni will have supper in the University Dining Hall with entertainment dominating the program and no speeches, also ample time for class reunions and visiting with former schoolmates. Wives, husbands, and sweethearts of Alumni are cordially invited.

(Continued on Page 2)

Maryland Alumni News

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

G. F. Pollock, '23 Editor

O. R. Carrington, '28 Advisory Editor

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JOHN P. MUDD, '07 President
173 Manheim St., Phila., Pa.

J. ENOS RAY, '92 Vice-President
Chillum, Md.

G. F. POLLOCK, '23 Sec.-Treasurer
College Park, Md.

ALUMNI BOARD

[Note—The officers named above are also members of the Alumni Board.]

C. WALTER COLE, '21 — Arts and Sciences
WELLSTOOD WHITE, '05 — Engineering
CHAS. W. SYLVESTER, '08 — Education
H. B. DERRICK, '17 — Agriculture
ELIZABETH HOOK DAY, '20 — Home Economics

MEMBERS AT LARGE

ELGAR JONES, '31 — Women's Representative
T. B. SYMONS, '02 — Men's Representative

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES — $2.00

More Alumni Pay Dues

C. H. Just, '29, Landover, Md.
Arthur E. Ewens, '00, M. D., Atlantic City.
W. A. N. Bowland, '07, McDonough, Md.
Willett Bland, '21, Sparks, Md.
L. O. Jarrell, '09.
Charles L. Larson, '17, Westbury, L. I., N. Y.
M. C. Albrittan, '23, Baltimore, Md.
Geo. E. Taylor, '31, Annapolis, Md.
G. F. Pollock, '23, College Park, Md.

* * * * * * *

CALDWELL, '21, IN COSTA RICA

I suppose my classmates of '21, wonder what I am doing in Costa Rica. Well, a year or so ago I had an opportunity and I jumped at it to try and beat the depression, and I think we are going to beat it. I organized a company to exploit the palm nuts of Central America.

The Government of Costa Rica has given us a concession and after a year, we are ready to go to work. I have, with my friend Doug Rollow, explored practically all of Costa Rica. We have done everything from shooting baboons and tigers to sailing a fourteen-foot Cayuca off the coast on the Pacific Ocean. We have crossed the mountains 12,000 feet up on horse and cut our way through the jungle, and it has all been one great experience. Contrary to what one might think after reading about Nicaragua, this little country is one of the most beautiful spots you can imagine. The temperature is about 68 F. Overcoats at night and ordinary clothes in the day. The people are wonderful, practically all speak English, although I now speak Spanish like I had been born here, however, It is not necessary, but I do it just to know I can.

Good Hunting

There are miles of good roads, scenery that rivals Switzerland, earthquakes every three or four days, but they do no damage, hunting twenty minutes from the city by auto, and I mean real hunting, quail, partridge, wild pigeon, etc., and if you wish something larger an hour and a half in an auto and you can get wild boar, tigers, baboon, ducks, deer by the hundred, ant-eaters, etc

It is an experience about which we have often dreamed and read while in college and little did I think it would be my good fortune to write about it as an actual fact.

Best of wishes to my classmates and Alma Mater.

DAVID R. CALDWELL, '21.

* * * * * * *

When May Queen Was Chosen

Before an audience of more than 600 people, Miss Betty Ehle of Perry Point, Maryland, was crowned May Queen at the Annual May Day Exercises held May 8, on the campus of the University at College Park.

In a setting depicting the meeting of George Washington and Lafayette and the entertainment by Benedict Calvert, the Queen was crowned by Martha Washington, represented by Miss Betti Buschman of Leonia, New Jersey.

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT INVITES FORMER STUDENTS

(Continued from Page 1)

Following the supper, those desiring to do so, may attend the Alumni-Student Dance in the Gymnasium, which is the concluding event of the June Week program.

During the annual meeting of the association, the wives or sweethearts of the Alumni are cordially invited by Miss Adele Stamp, Dean of Women, to make use of the girl's recreation room in the Old Library, where all the modern conveniences of home are available.

The class of '09, celebrating their twenty-fifth anniversary will no doubt take the lead in class reunions. However, many other classes are making an extra effort to have their members present.

June Week Program

Preceding Alumni Day there will be many social events held on the campus, beginning Tuesday, May 29, to which all Alumni are invited. There will be a nominal charge for each function as indicated by the program on the front page, tickets for which can be secured from the Alumni Office. The June Ball is the only exception, which is given by the University and all Alumni are invited as guests. Admission, however, is by card only, available upon request to the Alumni Office. Dan Gregory and his Columbia Broadcasting Orchestra will furnish the music for the entire week.

The registration for Alumni, begins Saturday at 12 noon in the new Engineering Auditorium and will continue throughout the day. All Alumni coming to the campus are urged to register their presence.

OLD LINE ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

TERP TEAMS SHINE IN SPRING SPORTS

By the time this is read, it is likely that the spring sports season at Maryland will have been completed, as the final tilts were listed May 19, when Hopkins was booked in lacrosse in Baltimore and the Terp trackmen were to figure in the Southern Conference championship meet at Duke.

High lights of the spring campaign up to the time this was written were the victory of Earl Widmyer in the 100-meters and the triumph of the mile relay team on April 28 in the Pennsylvania Carnival. Widmyer stepped the 100-meters in the fast time of 10.7. Maryland, with Cornelius Cronin, Bob Archer, Bob Sonen and Warren Evans doing the running, won its mile relay in 3:22.7, the third fastest time for the distance during the two-day classic games. This broke the Maryland mark of 3:23.4 made in the same games in 1926 by Leroy Sheriff, Louis Thomas, Gump Matthews and Joe Endslow.

Many Records Smashed

Incidentally, some Terp track records are taking a beating this year. Here are some others that have earned places on the book:

100-yard dash—Earl Widmyer, 9.8. He also tied Gump Matthews mark of 21.4 for the 220 that was made in 1928.

220-yard low hurdles—Bob Slye, sophomore, 24.6

Javelin—Bill Guckeyson, freshman, 183 feet 3½ inches. Breaks record of Bill Supplee of 173 feet 4 1/5 inches made in 1926.

Discus—Bill Guckeyson, 133 feet 10 inches, breaking mark of 129 feet 9 inches by John McDonald in 1928.

440-yard run—Warren Evans, 49.4, bettering by 1/5 second the old record of Joe Endslow made in 1925.

800-yard run—Coleman Headly, freshman, 1:59, bettered mark of Joe Endslow made in 1925.

* * *

Nine Makes Fine Showing

Making a particularly good showing in Southern Conference circles, Maryland's baseball team had 14 wins in 19 starts for a great season, with seven triumphs in eight games within the Dixie organizaton.

Ralph Ruble, big senior from Poolesville, Md., pitched seven victories, hurling shutout ball for 30 consecutive innings. One of the wins was at the expense of the Navy, the Middies being trimmed at Annapolis, 8 to 3.

* * *

With Les Bopst steering the tennis ship, the net game is on the upgrade at Maryland. The team won six of nine matches and laid the foundation for better things. This pastime had been at a low ebb for quite a spell.

* * *

Stick Team Below Standard

Weak in a couple of spots, especialiy on the attack, the Old Line stick team was not quite up to standard this year, but its only really bad showing came when St. John's won on field day at College Park, May 5, by 8 to 3.

St. John's is capable but the Terps, playing their best, would have had an even chance. However, the 1935 ten should put the Old Liners back on the title running.

Later, Navy and Maryland played a 6-6 thriller at Annapolis, five extra periods failing to break the deadlock.

* * *

¶ Maryland's freshman baseball and tennis teams this spring were well above the average, and the yearling track team in addition to Guckeyson, will send up Coleman Headley, a middle distance ace; Joseph Ryan, a flashy sprinter, and Harley Drake, who is showing capabilities as a pole vaulter, and maybe one or two others of note.

There also are several lacrosse players of worth among the young Terps, notably Charlie Ellinger, who as a member of the 1933 Baltimore City College team, was rated the King Bee of the Monumental City schoolboy stickmen.

* * *

Field Day A Big Success

Field Day at Maryland, May 5, probably was the most successful ever held. Despite the fact that more than 600 athletes competed in the three track meets, a baseball game, two tennis matches, and a lacrosse battle, everything was run off as smoothly as clock work.

Tech High of Washington won the open interscholastic trophy while Bel Air, coached by Joe Endslow, repeated its 1933 success in the county section. Tech also was a defending champion.

* * *

Follow Their Brothers

Brothers of Maryland Varsity athletes from within the State were conspicuous in the county section of the big interscholastic carnival at College Park on May 5.

Harford Cronin of Bel Air, brother of Cornelius, broke the half-mile mark by running it in 2:06.6, and in the 440-yard dash, Jack Archer, also of Bel Air, brother of Bob, won. "Little" Evans of Hyattsville, brother of Warren, was second.

Cornelius Cronin, Bob Archer and Warren Evans all are stars of the Old Line Varsity team, the first named being a senior and the latter two juniors.

Bob Remsburg, who was graduated from Maryland in 1930, made the old half-mile mark of 2:08 while running for Middleton High in 1926. He entered Maryland that fall.

* * * * *

GIRLS GET RIFLE LETTERS

Six members of the girls' rifle team, the only coed sport in which the school insignia is awarded, have been rewarded for their skill in the recent successful season.

Margaret Burdette, manager; Irene Knox, captain; Josephine Knox, Virginia White, Dorothy Griffith and Dorothy Pierce are the girls who were honored.

All are members of the graduating class, except Misses White and Pierce.

* * * * *

Lawrence B. Towers, '91, Succumbs

It is with regret that we announce the death of Lawrence B. Towers, '91, former State Senator and a loyal Alumnus of the University of Maryland.

Senator Towers made his home in Denton, Maryland and for many years has been a real leader on the Eastern Shore, and in State politics.

On behalf of the Alumni Association we take this occasion to express sympathy to his family.

* * * * *

W. B. POSEY, '18, TO MANAGE MARYLAND TOBACCO ASSN.

(Continued from Page 1)

to which he has been elected general manager. He has also been active in the supervision of the federal program regarding the production and financing of tobacco crops in Southern Maryland. He also has taken a keen interest in the civic affairs and was recently elected president of the County Community Council.

So strongly does Dr. Symons, Director of the Maryland Extension Service, feel the loss that he has recommended to the Board of Regents of the University that they grant Posey a leave of absence to "try-out" the position to which he has been elected.

On behalf of the Alumni Association we take this opportunity to wish "Big Boy" much success in his new endeavor.

MARRIAGES

The Claflin home in College Park was the scene of a very pretty wedding on March 31, 1934, when Dorothy, '33, became the bride of Mr. Robert Robinson of the class of '32. The bride was an active member of the A. O. Pi Sorority, and her husband of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

Mr. Robinson is employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The couple make their home in Baltimore.

* * *

Stewart Collins, a member of the February graduating class, and now employed under the CWA, and Miss Helen Danzer a sophomore in the University, were married in February. Mr. Collins is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity, and Mrs. Collins is a Kappa Kappa Gamma.

* * *

John T. Doyle, '33, employed by the Shell Oil Co. in Los Angeles, and Dorothy E. Simpson, '33, who is assisting in the Zoology Department, are planning to be married this summer in California.

* * *

Harry Aydelotte Jarvis, and Miss Lilian Clarkson of England, were married April 14, at the American Church, Carrientes 718, Buenos Aires, Argentina. They are on their way to the United States for their honeymoon.

Harry is a former president of the Student Government Association, and hails from the Eastern "Sho."

* * * * *

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. William Kricker announce the arrival of Carolyn, born April 2, 1934. Mrs. Kricker was formerly Agnes McNutt, '31, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. Bill, '32, as he is known by the Phi Delta Theta boys, is in the poultry business at Sparrows Point, Md.

PERSONAL

¶ Another member of the class of 1895 has been heard from, Owen H. Fowler, special attorney for the Packard Motor Co. in Detroit, Michigan. He received his LL.B. degree in law from George Washington University in 1898, and his L.P.N. in 1902. In 1900 he married Miss Elga M. Lewis, sister of the well known fullback of the gridiron in 1897, Grenville Lewis. The Fowlers have two children and reside at 300 Whitmore Road, Detroit, Mich.

* * *

Sanders, '24, to Edit Paper

P. D. Sanders, '24, formerly of the Department of Entomology of the United States Department of Agriculture, has been made Editor of the Southern Planter, one of the oldest magazines devoted to agriculture in the country. He will be located in Richmond, Va. Sanders began his career in the department of Entomology at College Park. Transferred to the Unitd States Department of Agriculture about two years ago where he was put in charge of the Southern Division of the United States.

* * *

Graduate in Gubernatorial Race

Dr. Charles Henry Conley, '93, M.D. '99, and a prominent citizen of Frederick County for over thirty years, has entered the gubernatorial race. Dr. Conley attended the College Park schools in the days when it was known as the Maryland Agricultural College, later transferring to the Medical school in Baltimore from which he graduated in '99. Recently he gave a campaign speech before the Democratic Club of the University.

* * *

¶ Frank Witter, '28, is now Animal Pathologist at the University of Maine doing diagnostic work and teaching. Following his graduation from Maryland he went to Michigan State where he graduated in Veterinary Medicine in 1931.

On July 1, 1933 he married Miss Verna Church of Michigan. They are living at Orono, Maine, where during the past winter they experienced weather 20°-35° below zero. Frank claims he has been deer hunting in both Michigan and Maine, and "his only catch was on July 1, 1933."

* * *

Brigham, '08, Promoted

Reuben Brigham, '08, Senior Agriculturist in charge of the Section of Visual Instruction and Editorial Work, Office of Cooperative Extension Work, has been detailed to the Division of Information of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Under this assignment he will serve as chief of the Regional Contact Section of that Division.

Shortly after his graduation, Reuben returned to the College Park Schools in charge of publicity work, during which time he served for a time as secretary-treasurer of the Alumni Association. A few years later he transferred to the U. S. Department of Agriculture where he has been ever since.

* * * * *

Former Commandant Dies

Colonel George F. Everett, former Professor of Military Science and Tactics at the College Park Branch of the University from 1914 to 1916 died recently at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Colonel Everett came to the Maryland Agricultural College in 1914 as first lieutenant and filled the post then known as commandant of the military unit. He transferred to Gettysburg College during the World War as adjutant of the training corp.

ALUMNI DAY ~ JUNE TWO

Maryland Alumni News

University of Maryland
College Park, Maryland

Maryland Alumni News, issued monthly by the University of Maryland, at College Park, Md., as second-class matter under the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Vol. IV, No. 11, May, 1934

Miss Grace Barnes,
Librarian,
Campus.

U